Matt Paradis, Southern New Hampshire

Junior - Spofford, N.H.

Matt Paradis fired a pair of 1-under 69s to card a 2-under 138 for the tournament that was good enough to earn him individual medalist honors Tuesday at the Penmen Fall Invitational at Hanover Country Club, where the Penmen placed fourth, overall. Paradis collected a tournament-high eight birdies over 36 holes.

Bianca Cruz-Hernandez, Le Moyne

Junior - Lake Mary, Fla.

She earned medalist honors, the first of her collegiate career, with a program-record 148 at the 10-team Le Moyne Fall Invitational on Sunday and Monday. She took a first round lead with a program-record one-under 71. She followed with a 77 in the second round to hold onto the top spot in the standings.

Matt Conti, Southern New Hampshire Univ.

Freshman - Walpole, Mass.

Matt Conti finished tied for 14th, overall, with a 4-over 144, including a 1-over 71 in the final round to help the Penmen finish fourth at their Penmen Fall Invitational on Tuesday.

Christine Songcuan, Franklin Pierce

Freshman - Lancaster, Calif.

Songcuan helped lead the Ravens to a second place finish at the Le Moyne Fall Invitational. She tied for 14th place by shooting a 165 (+21) while ranking ninth in total pars (15).
NE10 MEN’S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

NE10 Championship

Sunday, Sept. 30 Monday, Oct. 1
En Joie Golf Club, Endicott, N.Y.
Host: Le Moyne

NE10 WOMEN’S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

NE10 Championship
Sunday, Oct. 14 - Monday, Oct. 15
Capital Hills at Albany, Albany, N.Y.
Host: Saint Rose

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 3

Lucas Roop, Assumption (Fr. - Gorham, Me.)
Roop posted an impressive 148 on back-to-back 74’s to finish third for Assumption and tie for 26th overall at the Penmen Fall Invitational on Tuesday.

Keeton Foster, Franklin Pierce (Jr. - Spofford, N.H.)
Foster helped the Ravens to a second place finish at the Penmen Fall Invitational Tuesday afternoon. Foster climbed two spots in the individual rankings into a tie for fourth place with a 141 (+1) scorecard. He was the only Raven golfer to place within the top-1 and he ranked second in the field of golfers in par-3 scoring (2.75, -2) and third in birdies (6).

Taylor Hartley, Franklin Pierce (Jr. - Battle Ground, Wash.)
Hartley was the only Raven golfer to place within the top-5 at the Le Moyne Fall Invitational. She tallied her second-best finish in her FPU golf career as she carded a two-day 156 (+12). Hartley subtracted six strokes from her day one scorecard to complete the second round at 75 (+3). She also ranked second in total pars (23) and was tied for first in par 3 scoring (3.20, +2).

Matt Johnson, Saint Michael’s (Jr. - Sudbury, Mass.)
Johnson tied for sixth with a historic two-round, two-over 72-71--142 on Monday and Tuesday at Southern New Hampshire’s Penmen Fall Invitational. He tied his career-low round on day two while finishing with the lowest two-round total by a Purple Knight since at least the mid-1990s, when complete records became available. Johnson was four strokes short of the winner during the tournament and helped Saint Michael’s tie two 2018 NCAA Championship qualifiers (Le Moyne and Post) for eighth place while besting another (Concordia).

Makyla Lewellen, Southern New Hampshire (So. - Zainesville, Ohio)
Lewellen shot a 167 at the Dartmouth Invitational, including a 79 in Sunday’s final round. The Penmen were one of just two non-Division I teams at the 15-squad event.

Hannah May, Southern New Hampshire (Fr. - Phoenix, Ariz.)
May shot a 167 at the Dartmouth Invitational, including a 79 in Sunday’s final round. The Penmen were one of just two non-Division I teams at the 15-squad event.