Mackenzie Reh, New Haven
Junior, M - Medford, N.Y.

Reh helped lead the Chargers to a 2-0 week with a team-best 11 points, all coming on goals, as she finished with a team-best four against Bentley and matched her career-high against Saint Anselm with seven. Among her 11 goals were five free position scores as she finished 5-of-6 in free position attempts, while she added eight draw controls, including a season-best seven against Saint Anselm. She also scooped up two ground balls and caused one turnover.

Eliza Bresler, Bentley
Sophomore, GK - Newton, Mass.

Bresler made nine saves and had a 50% save percentage in the Falcons’ narrow 9-8 defeat to New Haven on April 25. She then made 14 saves for a 58.3 save percentage in the team’s 21-10 win over SNHU in the regular season finale. It was the 6th time this season she has made at least 14 saves in a game.

Haley Bartlett, Merrimack
Freshman, A - Gilford, N.H.

Bartlett had an even 10 points last week -- second most on the team -- with a pair of five-goal games, one shy of her single-game high on each occasion. Those efforts contributed to a pair of wins for the Warriors to close out the regular season. It’s the second consecutive week she’s been honored with this award from the league office.

Week 11 Highlights:

Beth Ann Pierce, Adelphi (Sr., Middleburg, Va.)
Pierce scored seven goals in a non-conference win over #10 Mercy. This sets a new career-high for the senior who also accounted for two draw controls through the week and one caused turnover in a top-3 win over Le Moyne.

Kaitlyn Stackpole, Adelphi (Fr., Massapequa, N.Y.)
In a crucial week for Adelphi, Stackpole put up seven caused turnovers and collected six ground balls in a 2-0 victory against #3 Le Moyne as she caused three turnovers and was responsible for a season high six ground balls in a win over #10 Mercy.

Sarah Reilly, Assumption (Jr., A/M - Fairfield, Conn.)
Reilly came up big for the Hounds in a 1-1 week to close the regular season. The junior scored five goals and dashed off two assists as the Hounds took down Southern Connecticut 19-15. She followed it up with two goals, two assists and two draws in a six-goal loss to Merrimack.

Julia Glavin, Bentley (Fr., M - Ipswich, Mass.)
Glavin led Bentley in scoring during the final week of the regular season with nine points, on seven goals and two assists. She notched four goals in the team’s narrow 9-8 defeat to New Haven, then struck for a hat trick in the regular season finale win over Southern New Hampshire. Glavin also had six ground balls, five draw controls and three caused turnovers during the week. She ended the regular season leading Bentley in goals, points, draw controls and caused turnovers.

Caitlin Sweeney, Franklin Pierce (Sr., M - Shirley, N.Y.)
Sweeney tallied 15 points, on nine goals and six assists, in an 0-2 week for the Ravens. Snagged 20 draw controls and caused one turnover. She piled up nine points (4-5-9) with nine draw controls and a caused turnover on Wednesday, in a loss to Merrimack.

Ally DaCosta, Merrimack (So, A - New Bedford, Mass.)
DaCosta finished with two games in which she had five or more points, helping the Warriors on the offensive front to lead the team to a pair of wins in the final week of the regular season. She had five points (5g, 4a) in a road win at Franklin Pierce before adding more six points — all on assists — in Saturday’s home win over #25 Assumption.

Amber Feminella, Merrimack (Jr., A - Cortlandt Manor, N.Y.)
Feminella had two more hat tricks last week on the way to finishing with nine points on a team-high seven goals and two assists. She had three markers in a road win at Franklin Pierce and then six points (4g, 2a) in the regular season finale victory over #25 Assumption.

Gianna Guerra, New Haven (So, GK - Thieells, N.Y.)
Guerra extended her win streak to four games as she collected 24 saves en route to a 2-0 week with wins over Bentley and Saint Anselm. She opened the week with eight saves against the Falcons, and followed that with 16 stops, one shy of her career-high, against the Hawks. Her 16 saves is the seventh time this season she finished with double digit stops, while she is now just four saves shy of reaching 200 career saves prior to the completion of her sophomore season.

Jessica Mazliah, New Haven (Sr., A - Holbrook, N.Y.)
Mazliah helped lead New Haven to a 2-0 record, extending their regular-season ending win streak to eight straight games. She closed out the week with 10 points, coming on four goals and six assists. The attacker opened the week with a pair of assists in a victory over Bentley, before collecting a team-best eight points on four goals and four assists in the regular season finale over Saint Anselm. She also added six ground balls and a caused turnover on the week.

Casey Gelderman, Pace (Sr., M - Farmingville, N.Y.)
Gelderman led No. 15 Pace to a pair of wins last week, racking up 10 goals and two assists. She was especially strong in a 26-16 triumph over Franklin Pierce, setting a new program record with nine points in the game (7G, 2A). Gelderman, who is Pace’s all-time leading scorer, wraps up her final regular season with 243 career points.

Erica Mattilla, Saint Anselm (Sr., A - Westford, Mass.)
Mattilla recorded nine goals and one assist in two games against nationally-ranked opponents in a week that saw Saint Anselm secure its first NE10 Championship berth since 2015. The senior led her career highs in goals and points with six goals and one assist in a 20-16 loss at No. 20 New Haven on Saturday after scoring a hat trick in a 15-9 defeat to No. 14 Pace on Wednesday.

Ashley Dineen, Saint Michael’s (Sr., A/M - Somers, N.Y.)
Dineen turned in four games, six draw controls and two caused turnovers during a 1-1 week. In a 10-9 victory over Stonehill, the Purple Knights’ first since 1999, on Wednesday, she had two goals, three draw controls and two caused turnovers before collecting two goals and three draw controls in a 1-3 loss to No. 3 Le Moyne on Saturday.

Kristin Wilder, Southern New Hampshire (Jr., A - Framingham, Mass.)
Wilder registered 13 points on 11 goals and two assists in a 1-1 week for the Penmen. She scored seven times and dished a pair of helpers for nine points in a 21-14 victory over American Int'l on Wednesday, and then scored four goals in a 21-10 loss at 19th-ranked Bentley on Saturday.

Shannon Hughes, Stonehill (Fr., A/M – Franklin Square, N.Y.)
Led the Skyhawks with 11 points in a 2-1 week, totaling nine goals and four assists, while adding seven ground balls, seven caused turnovers and two draw controls. Tallied a season-high six points in Friday’s 22-6 win at St. Thomas Aquinas with a season-high matching three goals and season-best three assists, with two ground balls and a caused turnover. Contributed a new season-high of four goals in Saturday’s 19-6 win at Queens, to go with an assist, two caused turnovers, two ground balls and a draw control. Had two goals, three ground balls and four caused turnovers at Saint Michael’s on Wednesday.

Linna Jalinuskas, Stonehill (Jr., A - Farmington, Conn.)
Led the Skyhawks to a 2-1 week with a team-high 11 goals to go with an assist for 12 points. Converted 4-of-6 free-position shots and added three ground balls and two draw controls for the week. Netted a game-high six goals in Friday’s 22-6 win at St. Thomas Aquinas. Paced the Stonehill attack in Sunday’s 19-6 win at Queens with five points, totaling four goals and an assist, adding two draw controls off the bench. Chipped in with a goal at Saint Michael’s on Wednesday.

Taylor Shannahan, Stonehill (Sr., M/D - Mendham, N.J.)
Filled the stat sheet with five goals and six assists in 10 points in a 2-1 week for the Skyhawks, contributing 15 draw controls, ten ground balls and six caused turnovers. Broke the program’s record for ground balls, finishing with 75 for the year, after surpassing the record at Saint Michael’s in which she led Stonehill with three goals and an assist for four points, while contributing four ground balls and two caused turnovers. Totaled ten draws and add three points with a goal and two assists in Friday’s 22-6 win at Saint Thomas Aquinas. Posted a goal and three assists for four points in her final collegiate game on Sunday, a 19-6 win at Queens, while totaling five draw controls, four caused turnovers and four ground balls.
