

Integrity Group Activity 4: Dress-up Relay

Integrity — Ability to know and do what is right

- BE COMMITTED: Set high standards for your behavior & stick to them, even in difficult situations.
- BE COURAGEOUS: Stand up for what you believe is just & good.
- BE HONEST: Choose words & actions that are sincere, not misleading.
- BE DISCIPLINED: Remain dedicated & self-controlled, even when challenged.
- BE RESILIENT: Learn from mistakes & losses; seize the opportunity to improve.

Problem Solving: Integrity

Summary: Each team member must dress entirely in the outfit from the pile of clothes. The team that completes this task first wins the game.

Equipment: (2 sets) T-shirt, shorts, jacket, boots, hat, sunglasses, and tape. (See diagram on next page for setup instruction.) Time: 10 minutes total

Brief the group: 2 minutes

Exercise: 6 minutes

Reflection: 2 minutes

Clothes Represent: The opportunity to encourage and support those around you, despite the challenges ahead.

Directions:

- Split up into 2 separate teams at the starting line.
- One team member at a time, players must run to the pile of clothes and put on each item.
- They then must take off each item, and yell "Go team!"
- After one person finishes, the next player must go dress up in the clothing pile.
- The first team to have each member dress up in the outfit wins.

Facilitator Notes:

- You want to make sure that each player is putting on each item of clothing.
- There should be the same number of clothing items in each pile.

Processing the Ideas:

- Discuss the importance of integrity: the ability to know and do what is right. How did this group do in demonstrating integrity in dress-up relay?
 - How does dress-up relay relate to a game situation?
 - How will INTEGRITY look on your team? Identify 3. Refer to Integrity checklist.
 - One team member writes and reports later.
