Kacie Smith, Stonehill

Scored six of the first place and No. 6-ranked Skyhawks eight goals in a big 2-0 week, breaking the NE10’s single-season scoring record along the way. She netted a pair of hat tricks in wins over Merrimack and No. 8 Pace - the top defensive team in the country. Smith’s three goals in Wednesday’s 4-2 win against Merrimack broke the NE10’s single-season scoring record of 82 points by Keliann Margiotta from LIU Post in 2014. She added her ninth hat trick of the season in Saturday’s 4-3 triumph over Pace, netted the gamewinner with 1:50 remaining in regulation.

Julie Gysels, LIU Post
Junior, M/D - Boom, Belgium

Julie Gysels helped fifth-rank LIU Post to back-to-back shut outs last week, before dropping a 4-3 contest to #4 Saint Anselm. The Pioneers held their opponents scoreless for 178:46 minutes during their 2-1 week. The Boom, Belgium native was also credited with an assist.

Katharina Ohmen, Merrimack
Sophomore, GK - Bremen, Germany

Katharina Ohmen posted consecutive double-digit save efforts in a two-game week for the Warriors. Ohmen started with an 11-save effort at No. 6 Stonehill before posting a 10 stops in Merrimack’s blanking of AIC. Overall the second-year keeper totaled 21 saves and an .840 save percentage. She eclipsed the 100-save plateau for the first time in her career against the Yellow Jackets.

Hélène Servais, Southern New Hampshire
Freshman, Forward - Brussels, Belgium

Servais registered eight points last week for Southern New Hampshire in contests against fourth ranked Saint Anselm College and the University of New Haven. Servais potted a pair of goals against the Hawks Tuesday before adding a goal and an assist Saturday to close the week with three scores and a helper.

The 2017 NE10 Field Hockey Championship will begin with Quarterfinal Round play on October 31. The Semifinals will be November 3, with the Championship Final on Sunday, November 5. All games will be hosted by the higher-seeded teams.
Quarterfinal Round: Tuesday, October 31
Semifinal Round: Friday, November 3
Championship Final: Sunday, November 5
- Hosted by High Seeds Throughout -

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 8

Amanda Gargiulo, Adelphi (Sr., Goalkeeper – Westbury, NY)
Gargiulo has started and played the entirety of every game this week. Record this week was 2-1. In total had 7 saves.

Jessica Lodato, Adelphi (Sr., Midfield – Cormack, NY)
Started all 3 games for the Panthers and had two decisive defensive saves against LIU Post

Allison Sheahan, Assumption (Sr., Forward – Higganum, Conn.)
In Assumption's 1-1 week, senior Allison Sheahan tallied two goals and three assists. As the Hounds fell 3-2 to Pace in overtime, Sheahan tallied the game-tying assist to force the overtime, and then over the weekend she had two goals and two assists in Assumption's 9-0 victory over Southern Connecticut.

Raegan Moulton, Franklin Pierce (Jr., Midfield – Baldwinville, Mass.)
Moulton piled up seven points on three goals and one assist in a 2-0 week for the Ravens. Did all her damage in Saturday's wild, double-overtime win at Bentley, where she factored in on all three goals (3-1-7) and capped her first collegiate hat trick with the game-winner in the second overtime. Recorded eight shots (five on goal) on the week.

Emily Miller, LIU Post (Jr., Forward/Midfield – Bridgewater, NJ)
Miller tallied eight points in three matches last week at the LIU Post field hockey team posted a 2-1 record last week. The Bridgewater, NJ, native scored her first hat trick of the season in a 4-0 win over Bellarmine on Monday afternoon. Now with a team-leading 28 goals, Miller's ranks second in the conference in goals, points (62), and is third in game-winning goals (4). Additionally, she is second in the nation in points per game (3.88) and goals per game (1.75).

Laura van der Doorn, Southern New Hampshire (Soph., Forward – Beverwijk, The Netherlands)
van der Doorn totaled seven points on three goals and an assist in a 1-1 week for the Penmen. She opened the week with a goal and an assist, each of which put SNHU ahead, against fourth-ranked Saint Anselm College on Tuesday before closing things out with a pair of goals in a 12-1 victory over the University of New Haven.

Hannah Friend, Saint Anselm (Soph., Forward – North Easton, Mass.)
Friend led the fourth-ranked Saint Anselm College field hockey team to a 2-0 week, racking up four goals for eight points (4-0=8). She notched three of her team's four goals against Southern New Hampshire University on Wednesday, recording her second hat trick of the season. Versus the fifth-ranked LIU Post side, Friend scored her team's first goal of the game, breaking a 0-0 halftime deadlock that ended in a 3-2 victory for the Hawks. In only her second season on the Hilltop, Friend is tied for eighth place all-time in career point scoring (16-9=41) and needs only four additional points to rank second all-time in single-season point scoring (9-7=25).

Jenna Deschaine, Saint Michael's (Sr., Back – Claremont, N.H.)
Senior back Jenna Deschaine scored three goals while adding an assist and helping the Purple Knights allow only 3.7 shots on goal and 3.3 penalty corners per game during a three-contest week. During a 4-2 loss at Bentley on Tuesday, Deschaine scored the opening goal in the ninth minute while Saint Michael's yielded six shots on goal and four corners. Deschaine and company held Adelphi off the board until the 33rd minute of a 2-1 loss on Saturday, when they allowed four shots on goal and five corners. On Sunday, she scored twice and added an assist in a 5-0 win over Molloy, as the Purple Knights allowed only one shot on goal and one corner. She recorded all of her points during a 20:26 span of the second half to help her team build upon a 1-0 lead.

Morgan Johnston, Saint Michael's (Jr., Forward/Midfield – Newburyport, Mass.)
Johnston scored in all three games last week, finishing with three goals on four shots. During a 4-2 loss on Tuesday at Bentley, she tallied in the 54th minute to make it 3-2 before giving Saint Michael's a 1-0 lead in the 26th minute of a 2-1 loss to Adelphi on Saturday. On Sunday, she tallied the third goal during the 42nd minute of a 5-0 win over Molloy.

Elaine Bachelder, Stonehill (Fr., Back – South Berwick, Maine)
Was the backbone of the defensive effort in a key 2-0 week for the first place and No. 6-ranked Skyhawks. The defense limited Merrimack and No. 8 Pace to 14 shots and 6.5 penalty corners per game, as the team posted a 2.50 goals against average for the week. Bachelder stopped several odd-man counterattacks over the two wins, dropping back as Stonehill's last defender.