John Stanton, Southern New Hampshire
Redshirt-Sophomore, Outfielder - Sandwich, Mass.

Stanton went 6-for-8 with three walks, a pair of extra-base hits, three RBI and three runs scored during a 3-1 week for the Penmen. The sophomore, who posted a ridiculous slash line of .750/.857/1.125/1.982, reached base safely in 12 of his 14 plate appearances during the weekend. He was 3-for-3 with a run scored in a 3-2 loss to Stonehill in game one Sunday and then again went 3-for-3 with two walks, a run and an RBI as he finished a home run shy of the cycle in a 7-2 game-two victory.

David Palmer, New Haven
Junior, Pitcher - East Islip, N.Y.

Palmer did not allow a run in two starts, going 1-0 while striking out 11 batters and walking none in 11.0 innings of work. He tied career-highs with seven innings pitched and eight strikeouts in a 5-0 win against Bentley in game one of a doubleheader on Saturday. Earlier in the week, he held Felician scoreless through four innings, allowing just two hits and striking out three. Overall, opponents hit just .184 against him in his two starts.

Joey Porricelli, Merrimack
Freshman, Infielder - Monroe, Conn.

Starting in all three games at third base, Porricelli hit .385 during a 3-0 week for the Warriors. The first-year infielder went 5-of-13 on the week, slugging at a .462 clip, hit one double and added a pair of RBI. He totaled a pair of multi-hit games, stole one base and record a perfect fielder percentage from the hot corner.
