NESCAC Player of the Week

Nicole Hilton | Wesleyan

Senior, Outside Hitter, Wantagh, N.Y.

Hilton helped lead Wesleyan to a 2-0 week with wins over Trinity (3-0) and Juniata (3-2). She recorded double-double kills in both matches, averaging 3.75 kills and 0.63 blocks per set while hitting .473. Hilton recorded 13 kills with a .524 attack clip against the Bantams and followed that up with 17 kills, a .441 hitting percentage, six digs, and three blocks to knock off the Eagles in a rematch of last year’s NCAA Elite Eight contest.

NESCAC Notes

Amherst - Senior Emily Kolsky (Los Angeles, Calif.) played every point of 11 sets and averaged 4.18 kills per set with a .270 hitting percentage. She also averaged 5.00 digs per set, highlighted by a 19-kill, 29-dig performance in a five-set setback to Wellesley. Kolsky went for a double-double against Clark (16 kills, 17 digs), and turned in 11 kills and nine digs in a 3-0 sweep of Roger Williams...

Bates - Sophomore outside hitter Sydney Phillips (Plainville, Mass.) averaged a team-high 3.18 kills per set with a .303 attack percentage in a 3-1 weekend for the Bobcats at the Hall of Fame Invitational. Phillips leads Bates this season with 2.39 kills per set...

Bowdoin - Senior Caroline Flaharty (Fort Myers, Fla.) led Bowdoin to a pair of non-conference wins last weekend. On Friday, she racked up 11 kills and 12 digs against Endicott and followed up with 12 kills and seven digs, along with two aces, in a victory over WPI. For the weekend, she totaled 3.83 kills and 3.17 digs per set and became the third player in school history to surpass 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in a career...
