Pitchers

Colin Sledzik, American International
(Sr., SP – Higganum, Conn.)
Sledzik turned in a 0.90 earned run average over two appearances with one start during the opening weekend for American Int’l. The senior tossed a complete game in his only start of the week allowing just one earned run while striking out four during a 7-4 victory over Wilmbington.

Kellen Croce, New Haven
(Jr, LF/DH - North Salem, N.Y.)
Croce delivered a sterling performance on Sunday in picking up his first career complete game shutdown. He allowed just four hits in seven innings, did not walk a batter and struck out nine while only allowing one runner past second base in a 5-0 victory against Queens (N.Y.).

Josh Garran, Pace
Garran strung together a pair of solid starts and went 1-1 for the Setters this week. He picked up the win on Tuesday against Bloomfield, tossing five scoreless innings and scattering just four hits. He suffered the tough-luck loss in Sunday's opener against West Chester, going the full six innings and allowing just two runs while striking out five. He had an ERA of 1.64 for the week after allowing just two runs in 11 innings.

Tim Viehoff, Southern New Hampshire
(Sr., SP - Derry, N.H.)
Viehoff went the distance in a 2-1 win at Felician on Saturday as he allowed just one run on four hits, while striking out eight and walking two over seven innings for the Penmen.

Jake Walkinshaw, Southern New Hampshire
(So., RP - Seymour, Conn.)
Walkinshaw helped the Penmen slam the door on a pair of wins during a 4-0 week as he tossed 4.1 scoreless innings, allowing three hits and zero walks while striking out three.
