MEN'S

Alex Arnold, Bentley
So., Saco, Maine
Arnold recorded the conference’s best long jump performance of the weekend, 20’ 11.25” (6.38m), while placing fifth overall at Bryant’s Black and Gold Invitational. He was also fifth in the 4x400 (3:31.18), eighth in the 4x100 (45.25) and tenth in the 200 (22.97), with the latter ranking third on the NE10 performance list.

Keith Steinbrecher, Merrimack
Sr., Wading River, N.Y.
Steinbrecher competed in the 3000m steeplechase event at the Raleigh Relay’s at North Carolina State on Friday, where he finished 12th in the event with a personal best and school record time of 9:10.59. The time was good enough for a NCAA Championship Division II provisional qualifier.

Michael Kandolin, New Haven
Jr., Columbia, Conn.
Kandolin’s first place finish in the hammer throw came with a collegiate-best distance of 54.49 meters as he fell just short of the provisional qualifying mark of 54.65 meters. The hammer was one of two events that Kandolin placed in for the meet as he added a fourth place finish in the discus throw with a distance of 42.35-meters.

Michael Reddy, New Haven
So., Forest Hills, N.Y.
Reddy posted a personal best time of 4:06.25 in the 1,500-meter run which placed second overall, less than two seconds behind the leader. Reddy was also part of the Chargers 4x200-meter relay team which posted a second place time of 3:29.81.

Stefan Balestra, Stonehill
Sr., Lincoln, R.I.
Balestra led the Skyhawks at its outdoor opener at Saturday’s UMass Lowell Invitational by turning in a first place and school-record performance in the hammer throw. He cleared a distance of 177’ 5” in the hammer, narrowly missed the NCAA Division II provisional qualifying standard and surpassed his previous school mark of 175-06 at the Skyhawk Invitational last April. He also placed seventh in the discus throw at 119’ 4”

Hampton Boyd, Stonehill
Freshman, Holliston, Mass.
Boyd turned in a second place finish in the 400-meter dash at Saturday’s UMass Lowell Invitational with a time of 50.33-seconds. His effort currently ranks fourth on the NE10 performance chart.

WOMEN'S

Stephanie Mattson, Bentley
Jr., Smithfield, R.I.
During the Black and Gold Invitational at Bryant, Mattson posted the conference’s best 400-meter time of the weekend, 57.81, as well as the fourth best 200 (26.14) and fifth best long jump (17’ 0.75”, 5.20m). She placed fifth in the 400, fifth in the 4x100, ninth in the 200 and ninth in the long jump. In the individual events, 17 of the 19 student-athletes who finished ahead of her were from Division I institutions.

Riley Knebes, New Haven
So., Salem, Ore.
Knebes set an NCAA Division II provisional time at the Stockton Invitational as she took home first place accolades in the 400-meter hurdles with a school record time of 1:01.99. She was the only athlete to hit an NCAA provisional mark at the event.

Alanna Robinson, New Haven
Jr., Montclair, N.J.
Robinson’s top honor came in the shotput, one of two events that she placed in for the day. With a distance of 12.40-meters, Robinson out-threw her closest competition by nearly four inches to take home the top spot. She also posted a fifth place finish in the hammer throw with a distance of 42.37-meters.
