NESCAC Player of the Week

Luke Protti | Bates

Protti scored back-to-back goals 39 seconds apart in the second half to break a 1-1 tie and give Bates a 3-1 lead it held for the final result in a win at Hamilton. Protti had not attempted a shot in the other four games of his career.

NESCAC Notes

Amherst - First-year forward Ada Okorogheye (London, England) opened his collegiate career in style, posting the assist on Amherst's first goal of the 2019 season in a 2-0 win over Nichols before potting what stood as the game-winner in a 3-0 shutout against Bowdoin.

Bowdoin - Three different players scored goals in Bowdoin's 3-0 season-opening win at the University of New England. The multi-goal match was the first of his Hamilton career.

Colby - Seniors Drew Goulart (Weston, Mass.) and Ben Potter (Chicago, Ill.) each scored in the season-opener as the Panther's picked up a road win at Norwich.

Middlebury - Sophomore defender Luke Stoneback (Commerce, Mich.) helped the Camels post a 2-0 record with shutout wins over Mitchell and Colby. Stoneback scored his first-career goal and the eventual game-winning marker in a 3-0 win over Colby, heading in a corner kick in the 14th minute. He also helped anchor a defense that yielded just four shots.

Trinity - Sophomore Eduardo Velez-Perez (Bayamon, Puerto Rico) scored twice and assisted on the third goal to lead the Bantams to a 3-0 win over Emerson in Trinity's season opener.

Tufts - Junior Travis Van Brewer (Wilbraham, Mass.) assisted on the goal in the season opener against Framingham State before tallying the game-winning goal in the 77th minute in a 3-2 victory at Williams.

Williams - In his rookie debut, Liam Devanny (Concord, N.H.) saved all six shots he faced in 110 minutes of play in a 0-0 draw against Middlebury. In the 74th minute after a flurry of shots, he made a diving save off a point-blank header from the Panthers to keep the game scoreless.
