NE10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Tim Guers, Saint Anselm
Junior, G - Langhorne, Pa.

Guers helped the Hawks to a 2-0 week, averaging 23 points, 8.5 rebounds and six assists. He scored 22 points, hauled in eight rebounds and tallied four assists in a victory over Saint Rose on Tuesday, playing all 40 minutes. Against NYIT, Guers handed out 24 points, secured nine rebounds and handed out eight assists to fall just short of a triple-double versus the Bears. Guers currently ranks second in the NE10 in points per game (22.4) and fourth in rebounds per game (7.6). It’s the fourth time this season he’s been recognized by the league, including the third time in the last four weeks overall.

NE10 ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Derrick Rowland, New Haven
Redshirt Freshman, G - Cohoes, N.Y.

Rowland helped lead the Chargers to a 2-0 record, opening up with a career-high 19 points to lead the Chargers in a home win over Franklin Pierce. He made 5-6 three-pointers in the win. Rowland followed that up with an 11-point effort on the road at SNHU as the Chargers closed out cross-divisional play with a 6-2 record, the most against the Northeast Division since 2013-14. For the week, Rowland shot 55 percent (11-of-20) overall, including an 8-of-13 effort from long range (61.5%), while pulling down four rebounds in each of the two games.
