NCAA Division III Student-Athlete Celebratory Signing Form

I, _________________________, have been accepted to Haverford College, an NCAA Division III institution. In addition to my academic responsibilities, I intend to participate in the sport(s) of __________________________ during the _______ academic year.

Consistent with Division III's goal of fostering an environment where students can follow their passions and discover their potential, Division III student-athletes are encouraged to:

DISCOVER
Division III student-athletes are encouraged to pursue their interests and passions beyond the classroom and field of play...to discover themselves.

DEVELOP
Division III institutions provide an environment that encourages student-athletes to develop into well-rounded adults. Small class sizes, the ability to participate in more than one sport, and an emphasis on participating in activities outside of the classroom are all hallmarks of the Division III experience.

DEDICATE
Division III institutions expect student-athletes to dedicate themselves to achieving their potential. Student-athletes must manage their busy schedules, keep up with class work and face the same challenges as the rest of the student-body.

Haverford College is a preeminent liberal arts college founded in 1833 by members of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) devoted to providing a rigorous, intensely personal undergraduate education. While the College is not formally affiliated with any religious body today, the Quaker values of individual dignity, intellectual vitality, and tolerance, upon which Haverford was founded, remain essential to its character. The College’s learning environment, based on a rich academic curriculum at its core, is distinguished by a commitment to excellence and a concern for individual growth. The full resources of the college, in and out of the classroom, are designed to promote the intellectual and personal growth of students and faculty. Preparing students for a life of leadership and service in a complex, multicultural world is at the center of the College’s mission.

This form commemorates my choice to attend Haverford College. By signing this form, I embrace the Division III philosophy. I also understand my signature neither obligates me to attend the institution, noted above, and participate in athletics nor does it guarantee me a roster position.
