Tufts and Williams both fell to MIT in the NCAA Tournament to end each team's postseason run.

Tufts forced a deciding Game 3 in the regional in Cambridge, Mass., hosted by the Engineers. Rookie pitcher Kristi Van Meter (Amston, Conn.) tossed a four-hitter and senior Sarah Finnigan (Weymouth, Mass.) had an RBI and scored a run to lead the Jumbos to a 2-1 win in Game 2.

In Game 1, MIT came back from a 2-0 deficit, scoring three runs in the top of the seventh to earn the victory, 4-2. In Game 2, junior Mackenzie Murphy (Diablo, Calif.) tossed a two-hit shutout and senior Brenna Martinez (Arvada, Colo.) hit a solo home run in the top of the fifth inning to account for the only run of the contest and give the Ephs a 1-0 victory.

In Game 3, MIT rallied from a three-run deficit to post a 7-5 victory and advance to the NCAA Division III College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla. Williams led 4-1 after two innings, but the Engineers pushed four runs across the plate in the third and fourth innings to tie the score up, 4-4. MIT added two runs in the bottom of the fifth inning to take the lead for good.
