Amherst College prepares students to use ideas to make a difference in the world. Since its 1821 founding in Western Massachusetts, Amherst has demonstrated steadfast confidence in the value of the liberal arts and the importance of critical thinking. Today, its financial aid program is among the most substantial in the nation, and its student body is among the most diverse. Small classes, an open curriculum and a singular focus on undergraduate education ensure that leading scholars engage daily with talented, curious students, equipping them for leadership in an increasingly global and complex world.

AMHERST ATHLETICS

Amherst College has the oldest athletics program in the nation, dating back to a compulsory physical fitness regimen that was put in place for all students in 1860. Today, over a third of the student body participates in varsity sports and eighty percent are involved in intramural and club sports teams.

With 27 intercollegiate athletic teams, Amherst College student-athletes have successfully blended academics and athletics for decades. In addition to capturing 13 NCAA Division III team championships - including 11 in the past 11 years - and 78 NCAA individual titles, Amherst student-athletes have also excelled in the classroom - earning 35 prestigious CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, including 21 selections since 2008.

AMHERST COLLEGE
2019-20 WOMEN’S TENNIS ROSTER

Jackie Bagwell begins her 29th season at the helm of the Amherst College women’s tennis program in 2018-19, and has now amassed 432 wins – surpassing the 400-win milestone during the 2015-16 season. Since taking the reins in 1991-92, Bagwell lead the team to 15-or more wins in 18 campaigns, and 20-or more wins in five of the last 10 seasons. The Kokomo, Indiana native has led the Purple & White to at least the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament in 21 of the last 22 seasons, including the college’s first NCAA title in any sport in 1999. Her teams have taken home at least a share of the NESCAC crown in nine of the past 13 seasons.

Bagwell graduated from the University of Indiana in 1986 with a degree in history/physical education and worked as a teaching pro at the Jimmy Connors United States Tennis Center in Florida. Prior to moving to Amherst, Bagwell spent two seasons coaching at Hamilton College.

A Message from the NESCAC & NCAA

The NESCAC and the NCAA promote good sportsmanship by student-athletes, coaches, and spectators. We request your cooperation by supporting the participants and officials in a positive manner. Profanity, racial, sexist, homophobic, or other derogatory comments, or other intimidating actions directed at officials, spectators, student-athletes, coaches or team representatives will not be tolerated and are grounds for removal from the site of competition. Also, the consumption of alcoholic beverages is prohibited at the site of competition.
Meet The Seniors

Jen Chen
East Brunswick, N.J.

“Jen has been such an essential person in the growth of our program. She leads and competes with kindness and grit. No matter what, Jen has a smile on her face. That positivity spreads through our program. Everyone loves Jen!”

Maddie Dewire
Hingham, Mass.

“Maddie is a fearless leader and competitor. Her ability to be a strong critical thinker has provided some of the best mentorship for our student-athletes. Maddie’s resiliency and professionalism are qualities that keep our team’s foundation strong.”

Anya Ivenitsky
South Salem, N.Y.

“Anya has a fierce drive that is consistently brought to the courts everyday. She leads with empathy and dedication in all that she does. Anya balances academics, athletics, life and everything in between with such intelligence and grace and we believe her teammates look up to her for that.”

Camille Smukler
Villanova, Pa.

“Camille has been an integral part of our team’s success and camaraderie. She is thoughtful and committed to holding herself and her teammates to high standards. Camille has been a wonderful leader and competitor since arriving at Amherst College.”
