Belle Ives, Assumption
Junior, F - Topsfield, Mass.
Ives scored two goals and an assist in Assumption’s 4-1 win against Southern New Hampshire. She started the offensive momentum by scoring just nine minutes into the game. She tallied her next goal and assist within three minutes of each other in the second half to ensure the win. As a midfielder, Ives also helped the defense in only allowing four shots on goal.

Chelsea Davis, American International
Freshman, B - Boonton, N.J.
Davis had another outstanding week for AIC, which went 2-0 with back-to-back 2-1 wins over Pace and Merrimack. She helped hold Pace to just seven shot attempts, and had two defensive saves against Merrimack, including one in overtime, and also had an assist on AIC’s game-tying goal.

Sara Freedman, Stonehill
Sophomore, G - Hopkinton, Mass.
Freedman led the No. 5 Skyhawks to a 2-0 week as she posted a pair of shutouts, while averaging six saves per game for the week. She made four saves in Wednesday night’s 2-0 win over Franklin Pierce. Freedman followed that up with eight saves, including five in a scoreless first half before Stonehill was able to score two second half goals, in Saturday’s 2-0 win over Bentley. It’s the third time this fall she’s been honored.

Hannah Friend, Saint Anselm
Freshman, F - North Easton, Mass.
Friend helped lead #7 Saint Anselm to a 2-0 mark in games this week. She scored what proved to be the game-winning goal in a 3-0 win over Bentley on Wednesday. She also scored the game-tying goal on Saturday afternoon against #10 Adelphi, which eventually was a 2-1 win for the Hawks.

The 2016 NE-10 Championship will begin on Tuesday, November 1, and will culminate with the championship final on Sunday, November 6. It will be hosted by the higher seeds throughout.

Stonehill will serve as the host for the 2016 NCAA Championship Weekend. The National Semifinals will take place Friday, November 18 with the Title game being played on Sunday, November 20.
NE-10 COACHES POLL

FIELD HOCKEY COACHES' POLL

MERRIMACK PICKED TO WIN NE-10 TITLE

1. Merrimack – 141 Pts. (10)
2. Stonehill – 130 (2)
3. Adelphi – 116
4. Saint Anselm – 100
5. Assumption – 99
6. LIU Post – 86
7. Bentley – 82
8. American Int’l – 56
9. Franklin Pierce – 54
10. Pace – 47
11. Saint Michael’s – 40

---

NFHCA NATIONAL RANKINGS

Tuesday, October 4

#1 LIU Post
#5 Stonehill
#7 Saint Anselm
#9 AIC
#10 Adelphi

---

NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE HONOR ROLL

WEEK 6 - OCTOBER 10, 2016

Lena Pollich, Adelphi

(Sr, F - Massapequa, N.Y.)

Pollich scored the game-winning, overtime goal for the Panthers to hand top-ranked LIU Post its first loss of the season last Wednesday night, as Adelphi picked up a 2-1 decision. In a 1-1 week, she also assisted on the lone goal for the Panthers vs. Saint Anselm.

Taylor Ross, American International

(So, GK - Stroudsburg, Pa.)

Ross was the backbone of AIC’s two 2-1 wins this week. She had three stops against Pace, keeping them off the board until very late in the second half, and then at Merrimack she led the team to their first win against the Warriors in seven seasons, making 10 saves, including five in overtime.

Lesly Sanchez Alvarez, Pace

(Jr, GK - Stamford, Conn.)

Sanchez Alvarez made an outstanding game in Saturday’s double-overtime win at Saint Michael’s. She made an impressive 16 saves to keep the Setters in the game until Madison McGowan could net the game-winner in the 88th minute. The 16 saves were a season-high for Sanchez Alvarez.

Katherine Sears, Saint Anselm

(Sr., GK - Northboro, Mass.)

Sears backstopped #7 Saint Anselm to a pair of wins this past week. She stopped the only shot in 64:49 of action in a 3-0 shutout over Bentley. On Saturday, Sears made eight saves and allowed only one goal in a 2-1 victory over #10 Adelphi. For the week, Sears posted a 0.52 GAA and had nine saves for a .900 save percentage in 134:49 minutes of action in the cage.

Abby Dusha, Saint Michael’s

(Sr, F - Greenwich, N.Y.)

Dusha turned in a natural hat trick in a matter of 4:35 of the second half to help the Purple Knights down Mercy, 4-0, on Sunday to cap a 1-1 weekend. Saint Michael’s lost in double overtime to Pace, 2-1, on Saturday.

Melanie Rennie, Southern New Hampshire

(So., goalie - Madison, Conn.)

Rennie stopped 21 shots in a pair of games last week. After registering nine saves against Assumption, the sophomore netminder backstopped the Penmen to a 2-1 triumph over top-ranked LIU Post with 12 stops. After LIU Post finally broke through on its eighth shot on goal in the first half, Rennie dispatched the final five Pioneer attempts, which allowed So. New Hampshire to mount a comeback and pick up the program’s first-ever win over a nationally ranked opponent.

Amaris Taylor, Southern New Hampshire

(Jr, fielder - Tulsa, Okla.)

Taylor had a hand in both of So. New Hampshire’s goals in the Penmen’s 2-1 win over top-ranked LIU Post. The junior captain tallied the game-tying goal early in the second half before assisting on the game-winner as time expired to lead SNHU to its first-ever win over a ranked opponent.

Carly Andersen, Stonehill

(So, F - Cheshire, Conn.)

Andersen scored both of the No. 5-ranked Skyhawks goals in their 2-0 win over Bentley. Both goals came within a three minute span in the second half.

Alexandra Dillon, Stonehill

(Jr, B - Canton, Mass.)

Dillon helped lead the No. 5 Skyhawks to a 2-0 week in which it didn’t yield a goal, while limiting their two opponents to just 8.5 shots, including 6.5 shots on goal, and only four penalty corners per game. She also registered a defensive save in Saturday’s 2-0 win over Bentley as Stonehill held the Falcons to just 11 shots (nine on goal) and four corners in the 2-0 win. The Skyhawks held Franklin Pierce to just six shots (four on goal) and four corners in Wednesday’s 2-0 win.