Fakas led Adelphi to a 2-0 week behind a 4-0 record at the top of the lineup, building on a weekend in which she and Samantha Perri reached the doubles semifinals in the ITA East Regional. She picked up wins at No. 1 singles and doubles against Saint Rose and Stonehill, as Adelphi handed Stonehill its first NE-10 loss.

Perkins finished as the singles runner-up at the ITA East Regional last week. As the No. 16 seed, she defeated the No. 2, No. 3 and No. 6 seeds, including a 6-3, 6-3 win over three-time NE-10 Player of the Year Grace Messina. Also playing in two dual matches, Perkins lost just one game in a pair of top singles and doubles wins.

Bisazza won at both first singles and first doubles on Sunday in a losing effort at Colby. At first doubles, he teamed with Yuval Barak for a 9-8 win. Later, at first singles, he rallied for a 1-6, 6-4, 10-6 win.

Morais went 4-0 during a 2-0 week for the Penmen. She earned a pair of No. 1 doubles victories over Bentley and American International with classmate Kaitlyn Poje. Morais also won at No. 2 singles against Bentley and picked up a No. 1 singles victory in the win over AIC.
Cassie Burbine, Assumption (Sr., Londonderry, N.H.) - Burbine went a combined 2-0 against Stonehill on Saturday playing out of the first flight for singles and doubles. She teamed up with Hannah Riley to win at No. 1 doubles, 9-8, (12-10) and then won again at No. 1 singles, 6-3, 6-4.

Kaitlin Hughes, Saint Anselm (Fr., Rockland, Mass.) - Hughes went a combined 6-0 last week for Saint Anselm, winning all three of her singles matches and all three doubles matches. Over the six matches, she dropped just eight games total, four in singles and four in doubles.

Abla Chadli, So. New Hampshire (Gr., Rabat, Morocco) - In her only match of the week, Chadli went 2-0 to lead the Penmen to a 9-0 blanking of Bentley. She dispatched Rachel Petrini, 6-0, 6-0, at No. 1 singles and also teamed with sophomore Anna Sala to pull out an 8-6 win at No. 2 doubles against Hannah Fabianski and Katie Brandow.

Nicole Downey, Stonehill (So., Groveland, Mass.) - Downey was a combined 5-1 in singles and doubles play in a 2-1 week for the Skyhawks, as they clinched at least a share of the NE-10 regular season title. She won all three of her matches at No. 4 singles while combining with junior Emma Prinos for a 2-1 doubles record.

Alexandra Vo, Stonehill (Fr., Washington Crossing, Pa.) - Vo posted a combined 4-2 record in singles and doubles play in a 2-1 week for the Skyhawks, as they clinched at least a share of the NE-10 regular season title. She won all three of her matches at No. 2 singles to lead Stonehill to wins over New Haven and Assumption.

Three NE-10 teams posted undefeated marks this past week in Le Moyne (4-0), Adelphi (2-0) and SNHU (2-0).

Entering the final week of the regular season, Stonehill has already earned at least a share of the NE-10 regular season title.

The 2016 NE-10 Women’s Tennis Championship will begin with first round matches scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 19. The top six teams will compete in the tournament.
