Victoria Major, Adelphi (So. - Deer Park, N.Y.)
Major claimed first place in the high jump with a clear of 1.65 meters. It was the second time she tallied the top spot in the event this season. She also placed seventh in the women's 200-meter dash, clocking in at 25.61.

Dana Bramble, American International (Sr. - East Hartford, Conn.)
Bramble won the long jump at the Smith Pioneer Invitational on Saturday. Her mark of 5.72 meters is a season best and also an NCAA provisional mark. This is the second consecutive week she has posted a provisional mark in the event. She led a group of AIC jumpers that finished 1-2-3 in that event.

Kialeigh Marston, Assumption (So. - Standish, Maine)
Marston highlighted the day for the Hounds at URI over the weekend, as she competed in the mile run and placed fifth with a time of 5:07.59, which met the provisional mark for the NE1CAA.

Stephanie Mattson, Bentley (Jr. - Smithfield, R.I.)
During the GBTC Invitational Sunday, Mattson finished first among 22 in the 300 meters with a school-record time of 41.57 seconds, an improvement of 1.01 seconds on the standard she posted at the same meet last year. Mattson also had a pair of third-place finishes, in the long jump (5.36m) and in the 60 meter dash (8.10 seconds).

Nicole Galewski, Franklin Pierce (Sr. - Whitman, Mass.)
Galewski was victorious in the 60-meter hurdles at the Panther Invitational on Saturday, with a time of 9.18 seconds, which matched her season-best performance. The mark matched the NE1CAA Championships qualifying standard in the event.

Emily Quinn, Franklin Pierce (Sr. - West Bridgewater, Mass.)
Quinn was victorious in the weight throw both at Saturday's Panther Invitational (16.58m) and Sunday's GBTC Invitational (16.61m). Sunday's mark met the NE1CAA Championships qualifying standard.

Riley Knebes, New Haven (Sr. - Salem, Ore.)
Knebes ran first out of 33 sprinters with a personal-best time of 15.76 seconds in the 400-meter dash, crossing the line in 56.90, besting the competition by over two seconds at the Ramapo College Season Opener at the Armory in NYC. She also took sixth out of 24 competitors in the 60 hurdles, clocking a finals time of 9.50.

Amazia Lake, New Haven (Jr. - Manorhaven, N.J.)
Lake raced to a season-best time of 51.90 seconds in the 400-meter hurdles at the Armory on Friday. She finished just .22 seconds out of first place. She notched her second-second-place finish of the day recording a personal-best distance of 10.00 meters in her third attempt in the long jump, only .07 meters shy of first place.

Nicole Maliborska, New Hampshire (Jr. - Manchester, N.H.)
Maliborska placed second in the 3,000-meter run with a time of 9:37.87. Her mark was a season-best time and bettered the third-place finisher by nearly 20 seconds at the Ramapo College Season Opener at the Armory on Saturday.

Valerie Hinds, Saint Rose (Sr. - Kingston, N.Y.)
Hinds betters her season record in the weight throw at the Ramapo College Season Opener, held at the NYC Armory. Hinds' heave of 16.86 meters cleared her previous best by just shy of a meter. She also placed second in the shot put with a mark of 12.22 meters.

Ashley Elder, Southern New Hampshire (Jr. - Bristol, Conn.)
Elder captured the shot put and finished second in the weight throw to help lead the Penmen to a third-place finish at the Panther Invite. She placed first in the triple jump with a mark of 10.83 meters, 1.38 meters ahead of the next best competitor. She was second in the 60 hurdles after crossing the finish line in 9.14 and her time of 28.16 was the third fastest in the 200. Murphy also added a 4:55-meter showing in the long jump for good for fourth.

Gaelin Farrell, Stonehill (Sr. - Baldwinville, Mass.)
