ICE HOCKEY
Week 3 - November 14, 2016

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE WEEK</th>
<th>FOLLOW US</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Nate Indelicato, Franklin Pierce
(So., F - Pembroke, Mass.) | !Twitter
@TheNORTHEAST10
@TheNORTHEAST10
Northeast-10 Conference
The Northeast-10 Conference |

Indelicato tallied three goals and three assists toward six points over a 2-0 week for the Ravens. He had two goals, including the game-winner, and an assist in Saturday night’s win over Assumption. Indelicato then added a goal and two assists, including an assist on the game-winner, in Sunday’s win at Daniel Webster.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE GOALTENDER OF THE WEEK</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Shane Joyce, Saint Anselm
(Jr., G - Pembroke, Mass.) |  |

Joyce went 2-1 with a 1.34 goals-against average and .960 save percentage for Saint Anselm last week. He saved 96 of the 100 shots he faced with two of the four goals coming on the power play. Joyce made a career-high 44 saves against Norwich on Friday and had a 24-save shutout against Saint Michael’s on Saturday.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE ROOKIE OF THE WEEK</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Cameron Wright, Stonehill
(Fr., F - West Dummerston, Vt.) |  |

Wright recorded a three-point week as he picked up his first-career two-point game with a pair of assists in a 3-2 victory over Southern New Hampshire. He also tallied his second-career goal in a 7-1 win over Framingham State.

AROUND THE NE-10

- Franklin Pierce and Stonehill each went 2-0 on the week while picking up conference victories along the way.

- Along with the Ravens and Skyhawks, Saint Anselm and Saint Michael’s each recorded their first NE-10 wins of the season.

- Saint Anselm was tabbed as the preseason favorite in the NE-10 Preseason Coaches’ Poll last month.

- Assumption’s Cam Laughlin stands as the NE-10 points leader with nine points through five games.
Tom McGuckin, Franklin Pierce
(Jr., G - Clayton, N.J.)
McGuckin made 66 saves against 71 shots in a 2-0 week for the Ravens. He made 33 saves against 36 shots in Saturday night’s win over Assumption and collected 33 saves against 35 shots in a win on Sunday afternoon at Daniel Webster.

Jeremy Carignan, Saint Anselm
(So., F - Amos, Quebec)
Carignan recorded two goals and two assists in three games this week as Saint Anselm went 2-1. The sophomore scored twice in a 6-2 win at No. 15 Salem State on Tuesday and added two assists in a 4-0 win over Saint Michael’s on Saturday.

Sam D’Antuono, Saint Michael’s
(So., F - Hingham, Mass.)
D’Antuono tallied two goals and two assists while winning 14.0 face-offs per game at a 47.2 percent clip in a 1-2 week. During a 4-2 win over Assumption on Tuesday, he had a goal and two assists while going 19-for-38 on draws, assisting the game-winner 11:57 into the third period.

Chris Moquin, Southern New Hampshire
(Jr., F - Hooksett, N.H.)
Moquin registered four points in a pair of games for Southern New Hampshire last week. He had a helper in the Penmen’s 3-2 setback against Stonehill on Monday before collecting his first career hat trick against Daniel Webster on Wednesday.

Evan Jacques, Stonehill
(Sr., F - Norton, Mass.)
Jacques tallied three goals in two games for Stonehill. The senior scored a goal in the first period against Southern New Hampshire to knot the game at one. In a non-conference battle against Framingham State, Jacques recorded two goals in the 7-1 victory.

Billy Palmer, Stonehill
(So., G - Cranston, R.I.)
Palmer picked up two wins this week with a 3-2 victory over Southern New Hampshire and a 7-1 win over Framingham State. He tallied a 1.55 goals against average this week and totaled 42 saves for a .933 save percentage.