The Moravian College Athletic Department would like to create a safe and family-friendly environment at all athletic events. Please note that visiting athletic teams and parent groups interested in holding a post-game meal or reception on campus must have prior approval. Requests must be submitted through the department of athletics one week prior to the event.

Gathering Locations

Makuvek Field/Johnston Hall (soccer/field hockey/lacrosse) – Library Courtyard, grass area located off the north east corner of Johnston Hall.

Steel Field Complex (football/baseball/softball/tennis/track) – Grass area by the tennis courts along Center Street.

General Policies

- Individuals and groups are to stay in designated post-game gathering locations. All individuals are expected to follow instructions provided by college staff members, including game managers.
- Individuals, regardless of age, are not permitted to possess or consume alcoholic beverages. Tobacco usage is prohibited.
- The use of propane or charcoal grills as well as open flames are strictly prohibited.
- Moravian College will not provide tables, electrical outlets or tents. All personal tables, chairs and tents should not obstruct fire lanes, parking spots or pedestrian walkways. Tents should be anchored into the ground.
- Groups are expected to dispose of all trash and leave the designated area in the same condition as when they arrived. Tailgates should last no longer than one hour post-game.
- Individuals not following the above policies or who are acting disorderly or disruptive will be asked to leave the premise.
