Landmark Conference Sportsmanship Code
The University of Scranton and the Landmark Conference welcome you to today's contest. In order to make today's game great for everyone, we ask that you:
• Support the players, coaches, and officials; do not use personal comments or insults
• Please refrain from using profanity, vulgarity, racist or sexist comments during the game
• Be sure to treat fellow fans and event staff with respect
• Please do not consume or possess alcohol and tobacco products while at today's game
• Give players, coaches, and officials space to perform by staying clear of the competition area and team benches
• Individuals who are unable to follow these guidelines, are disruptive or hostile to others, or appear to be intoxicated, will be removed from today's game, and may face additional discipline.

Game Notes
The University of Scranton women's lacrosse team will host Kean in the team's home opener on Saturday afternoon at Weiss Field at 12 p.m. Scranton defeated the Cougars by a 13-5 score a season ago behind four goals from Elena Gallo and a hat trick from junior Jill Henson.

The Royals are ranked No. 24 in the latest IWLCA Top 25 poll that was released earlier this week, but dropped a 17-8 decision at No. 19 Ithaca on Wednesday. Henson led the squad with four goals in that contest and leads the team with seven goals through two games, while sophomore Halie Conklin has scored four goals thus far. Scranton was picked second in the Landmark Conference pre-season poll.

Kean opened the season with a 16-6 victory over the College of Mount St. Vincent on Wednesday. Danni LeSaint paced Kean with five goals and Jamie Lewit added four goals and two assists. The Cougars went 7-11 (3-3 NJAC) a year ago and made the NJAC Tournament.
