Bobbi Morgan
Head Women’s Basketball Coach

Bobbi Morgan enters her 11th season as Haverford College’s women’s basketball coach. The team has seen unprecedented success under her tenure and has made the Centennial Conference playoffs in each of the last seven seasons. That run of postseason success is highlighted by the program’s first conference championship in 2014 as well as an NCAA Tournament berth in 2018.

The 2017–18 season saw the Fords finish with the second-most wins in program history, reaching the NCAA tournament for the second time in the program’s history with an at-large bid. The historic 2013-14 campaign saw Morgan win the Women’s Basketball Coaches’ Association (WBCA) Region 4 Coach of the Year and be named as a finalist for the WBCA National Coach of the Year. The Fords set new program marks for overall wins (24) and Centennial Conference wins (15) en route to the conference crown and automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. Haverford continued to make history on the national stage as the team registered its first NCAA Tournament victory that same season.

Her players have garnered 15 all-conference accolades in the past seven seasons, including the program’s first All-American in Nina Voith ’14. Morgan has twice been recognized as the Centennial Conference Coach of the Year. The Fords have also found success in the classroom with 29 representatives on the conference’s academic honor roll during that time. Last season, Samantha Wetzel ’18 was named the Centennial Conference Women’s Basketball Scholar Athlete of the Year for the second consecutive season.

Morgan came to Haverford from Cabrini College where she was the head coach for four seasons. Her teams earned Pennsylvania Athletic Conference (PAC) playoff berths four straight years, reached the finals twice, received one ECAC bid, and earned an automatic trip to the NCAA Division III Tournament after capturing the PAC championship in 2008.

She took over at Cabrini after a highly successful 17-year varsity coaching career at the Academy of Notre Dame (1986-89) and Haverford High School (1990-2004), compiling a 326-139 career mark. Morgan, who began her coaching career as an assistant at Widener University, played basketball at the University of Richmond, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism. Morgan also earned her Master of Education degree at Cabrini.
2017–18 HIGHLIGHTS

- Haverford reached the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history.
- The Fords finished the season with 21 wins, the second-most in program history.
- Sierra Berkel ’18 and Samantha Wetzel ’18 became the seventh and eighth members of the program to reach 1,000 career points.
- The Haverford defense again excelled as one of the stingiest in the entire country, holding opponents to just 47.5 points per game, the third-best total in all of Division III.
- Wetzel became the Centennial Conference’s all-time blocked shots leader with four blocks in the Centennial Conference championship game.
- Julianna Clark ’21 became the first player in team history to be named the Centennial Conference Rookie of the Year.
- Samantha Wetzel ’18 was named the Centennial Conference Scholar Athlete of the Year for the second consecutive season.
- Wetzel and Sierra Berkel ’18 were each named to the Philadelphia Inquirer Academic All-Area team.
- Sierra Berkel was named first-team All-Centennial Conference for the second consecutive season, the first two-time selection to the first team in program history.

"Playing for Haverford women’s basketball is playing for something bigger than yourself—a team working towards a common goal of success both on and off the court. Being a part of this team has taught me about living life with all of the core values we stress every day in practice, and how a team can truly become your family. My time as a Haverford student-athlete has been one of the best experiences of my life in terms of opportunities, life lessons, and overall fun times with my HCWBB family. I cannot stress how truly thankful I am for that.”

—Katie Cook ’19

FACILITIES

Calvin Gooding ’84 Arena

The 1,200-seat Calvin Gooding ’84 Arena opened in 2005. It has three full wood-floor courts for basketball and volleyball that includes two courts across the main playing floor and the Kannerstein Pavilion, which is a full-length court that allows for multiple teams to practice in the arena at the same time.

Gooding ’84 Arena is located inside the Douglas B. Gardner ’83 Integrated Athletic Center, a $48 million state-of-the-art indoor facility which features the Arn ’76 and Nancy Tellem Fitness Center and a conference room with video analysis capabilities.