NE10 MEN'S PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Denis Davydov, Merrimack
Junior, Ulyanovsk, Russia

Denis Davydov reached the Round of 16 in both the main singles and doubles draws at ITA East Regionals over the weekend. Davydov entered the singles draw as a seeded participant, and won a pair of three-set tilts in his first two matches in the main draw over opponents from UDC and Concordia. In doubles, Davydov prevailed in 8-5 fashion over entries from Queens College and Saint Thomas Aquinas to record a pair of wins.

NE10 MEN'S ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Alec Mackay Rodriguez, Merrimack
Freshman, Bogota, Colombia

Alec Mackay Rodriguez made a splash in his first-ever ITA East Regional Tournament, winning one doubles match in the main draw while reaching the Round of 16 in the main singles bracket. Mackay Rodriguez dispatched Kevin Huynh in straight sets (6-2, 6-4) in his opener before a three-set (6-4, 5-7, 1-0 (8)) triumph against STAC’s Marcel Volz.

NE10 WOMEN'S PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Samantha Perri, Adelphi
Senior, Floral Park, N.Y.

Perri was Adelphi’s best performer at the ITA East Regionals, as she reached the quarterfinals in singles and the semifinals in doubles alongside Nicole Kielan. She fell to both eventual regional champions - NYIT’s Diana Baumgartner and Barbie Quagliardi in doubles, and Quagliardi in singles - in both events. Perri, unseeded in the women’s singles, recorded three wins over the weekend, beginning with a 6-3, 6-0 win over Laura Fermosel of the University of New Haven. Another 6-2, 6-4 win over Ivana Andric of NYIT followed, before the senior upended conference foe Alexandra Vo of longtime rival Stonehill College in a match tiebreak, 3-6, 6-4, 10-5.

NE10 WOMEN'S ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Alexxa Etienne, Southern New Hampshire
Freshman, Bayamon, Puerto Rico

Alexxa Etienne went 3-1 in singles play to reach the quarterfinals of the ITA East Regional Championships on Sunday. Etienne defeated Wilmington’s (Del.) Marie Rondot, 6-4, 6-4, Chestnut Hill’s Mia Covic, 4-6, 7-5, 1-0 (6) and USciences’ Karla Miletic, 0-6, 6-3, 1-0 (5), before falling to Roberts Wesleyan’s Nathabi Mogobpodi, 7-5, 3-6, 1-0 (8) in the quarters.

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 2

Julia Chappell, Assumption (Fr., - Manchester, N.H.)
Julia Chappell went undefeated in her only match of the week, coming with victories at No. 1 singles and doubles against Division I Holy Cross. The sophomore earned a 7-5, 6-3 win in singles as she came from behind in both sets and also earned a 6-1 win in doubles to help give the Hounds a 5-2 victory over the Crusaders for their first win of the year.

Daniel Weitz, Bentley (So., - Roslyn, N.Y.)
Weitz had a strong showing at the UCOITa Invitational, which featured several Division I schools. He won the A singles consolation tournament, with wins over players from Sacred Heart and Fairfield University. Earlier, he and doubles partner Kendall Au won two matches in the B doubles tournament, beating teams from Sacred Heart and Boston University.

Kristina Calistro, Merrimack College (Fr., - Roseville, Calif.)
Appearing in her first-ever Intercollegiate Tennis Association tournament, freshman Kristina Calistro reached the Round of 16 in the main singles draw. The newcomer advanced further than any of her teammates, topping opponents from Goldey-Beacom (6-7, 7-5, 1-0) and Wilmington University (6-4, 4-6, 1-0). Both matches went to a third-set tiebreaker, which Calistro won in each instance.

Abby Ramsay, Saint Michael's (Jr., #1S / #1 D - Bedford, N.H.)
In her team’s lone match of the week, junior Abby Ramsay (Bedford, N.H.) won 0-0 against SUNY Plattsburgh on Wednesday. She combined for a 6-1 victory at No. 1 doubles before earning a 6-0, 6-1 triumph at No. 1 singles. The Purple Knights claimed an 8-1 win.

Alexxa Etienne, Southern New Hampshire University (Fr., - Bayamón, Puerto Rico)
Alexxa Etienne went 3-1 in singles play to reach the quarterfinals of the ITA East Regional Championships on Sunday. Etienne defeated Wilmington’s (Del.) Marie Rondot, 6-4, 6-4, Chestnut Hill’s Mia Covic, 4-6, 7-5, 1-0 (6) and USciences’ Karla Miletic, 0-6, 6-3, 1-0 (5).

Sofia Morais, Southern New Hampshire University (Sr., - Porto, Portugal)
Morais went 7-2 last week, including 4-1 in singles play, at the ITA East Regional Championships. Morais topped USciences’ Danielle Paran, 8-5, and Merrimack’s Meredith Wedro, 8-2, in the qualifier bracket, before taking down the District of Columbia’s Joanna Skrzypczynska, 6-3, 6-3, and Queen’s (N.Y.) Reean Rushad, 6-4, 6-4 to reach the round of 16. Morais reached the quarterfinals of the doubles bracket with classmate Anna Sala, as they defeated USciences’ Paran and Stephanie Mazurek, 8-3, UDC’s Skrzypczynska and Anastasia Danylova, 9-7, and NYIT’s Monica Borobia and Ann Kathrin Zilles, 8-3.

Isabelle Porter, Stonehill (So., - Jupiter, Fla.)
Reached the quarterfinal round of the USTA/ITA East Regional over the weekend in the Skyhawks lone action of the week. It marks the first time Stonehill has placed a singles player in the quarters as the region’s No. 15-ranked player entered the tournament as a seeded player. Porter also teamed up with sophomore Bethany Hammond to reach the third round of the doubles championship. Porter opened the singles main draw with a hard-fought win over Chestnut Hill University’s Barbara Broville in a third set tiebreaker. She followed that up by advancing to the third round after Marija Milic from University of the District of Columbia retired with Porter in front big 6-4, 5-1 in the second set. Porter then beat Le Moyne College’s Birdem Oz in the third round before being dealt a 6-4, 6-4 setback to Marisa Ostaja from Queens (N.Y.) College in the quarterfinals. Porter and Hammond opened their doubles championship with an 8-2 victory over Taylor Pankeavicz and Meritxell Jimeno Vicente from American International College, and then cruised past Mallory Nolte and Sabrina Blasi-Smith from Wilmington (Del.) University in the second round, 8-1.

Alexandra Vo, Stonehill (Jr. - Washington Crossing, Pa.)
Made a pair of deep runs in singles and doubles play at the USTA/ITA East Regional in the Skyhawks lone action of the week. Vo reached the singles Round of 16 and also combined with junior Annelise Howick to make the doubles quarterfinals. Vo reached the main draw with an 8-2 win over Josefina Torres Martin from Concordia (N.Y.). Vo cruised to a 6-3, 6-0 decision in the Round of 64 over Kaitlyn Byrnes from NYIT and then upended second-seeded Luisa Auffarth from Queens 3-6, 6-4, (11-9) in the second round. Vo and Howick, the No. 9-ranked doubles pairing in the Oracle/ITA East Region rankings, opened their tournament with an 8-2 win over Barbara Broville and Mia Covic from Chestnut Hill in the Round of 64 and then eased past Andrea Cendovil and Dea Lako from Post 6-1 in the third round. Vo and Howick then battled past Manuela Comejo and Anna Horejsto-Pey from Goldey-Beacom in a tiebreaker for a 9-8 decision.
