JACOB VANRYN | ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER | JVANRYN@NORTHEAST10.ORG

NE10 MEN'S Track Athlete of the Week

Juwan Hall, Merrimack

Sophomore, Waterbury, Conn.

Hall won the 60m dash at the Bowdoin invitational, posting the best time in the NE10 this season at 6.93, qualifying for both the NE10 and New England Championships. He fell 0.02 seconds short of matching his school record.

NE10 Men's Field Athlete of the Week

Turner Kelly, Southern Connecticut

Junior, Amityville, N.Y.

Kelly captured first place in the shot put with a NCAA provisional qualifying mark of 15.77 meters at the URI Sorlein Invitational, finishing ahead of competitors from UConn and URI.

NE10 Women's Track Athlete of the Week

Rebecca Celorio, Adelphi

Graduate, Scotia, N.Y.

Celorio set her second program-record in as many weeks, as she set a new mark in the mile at the NYC Gotham Cup. She ran a 5:00.96 mile (NCAA Provisional mark), breaking the previous school best by nearly seven seconds.

NE10 Men's Field Rookie of the Week

Justin Ireland, Assumption

Freshman, Norton, Mass.

Ireland helped the Hounds claim the Pioneer Invitational on Saturday behind a first place finish in the 60 meter dash with a time of 7.12 seconds. He also placed fifth in the 400 meter dash, clocking in at 53.47 seconds.

NE10 Men's Track Rookie of the Week

Patrick Whyte, Merrimack

Freshman, Bloomfield, Conn.

Whyte finished eighth in the triple jump at the Bowdoin invitational with a personal-best 11.98m jump.

NE10 Men's Field Rookie of the Week

Destiney Coward, Southern Connecticut

Junior, East Haven, Conn.

Coward posted victories in the weight throw and shot put at the URI Sorlein Invitational. Her mark of 19.47m in the weight throw was a NCAA automatic qualifier. Her total of 13.29m in the shot put was just shy of a NCAA mark.

NE10 Women's Track Rookie of the Week

Anna Lastra, Stonehill

Freshman, Bridgton, Maine

Lastra led the way for the Skyhawks in the 3000-meter run with a time of 10:15.94, finishing second, hitting both NE10 and New England standards. It’s the second straight week she’s been honored by the league with this award.

NE10 Men's Field Rookie of the Week

Gabrielle Eldridge, Merrimack

Freshman, Easton, Mass.

Eldridge finished second in the shot put at the bowdoin invitational with a personal-best 11.75m throw. The throw is second on the school record board and 11th in the NE10 this season.
NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 5

Michael Grady, Adelphi (So., East Meadow, N.Y.)
Grady turned in two sixth-place finishes for the Panthers at the NYC Gotham Cup over the weekend, in the 800 and 3,000-meter events. His 1:55.55 time in the 800 sees him rank fifth in the NE10 this season, while his 8:37.91 clocking in the 3,000 ranks him third.

Alex Cerbo, Assumption (Jr., Cranston, R.I.)
Cerbo had a strong showing at the Pioneer Invitational on Saturday, helping the Hounds to a first place finish at the meet. Cerbo placed first in the weight throw with a distance of 46 feet, 9-inches and second in the shot put with a toss of 45 feet, 1-inch.

Tim Bolick, Bentley (Sr., Hopkinton, Mass.)
Bolick turned in a winning performance for the third straight indoor meet, capturing the open 1000 meters at the Greater Boston Track Club Invitational. His time of 2:30.51 was a PR by 0.67 seconds and was good for fifth on the NE10 performance list.

Stephanie Mattson, Bentley (So., Smithfield, R.I.)
During the Greater Boston Track Club Invitational, Mattson had four second-place finishes and a school record. She broke a mark that had stood since 2000 in the 300 meters, finishing second in 42.68 seconds, and also registered seconds in the long jump (17’6.25”), triple jump (new PR of 35’10”), and 4x220 yards (1:53.12).

Lillian Baah, Franklin Pierce (Sophomore, Danielson, Conn.)
Baah won the triple jump (11.16m) and finished third in the long jump (5.19m) at the Greater Boston Track Club Invitational over the weekend.

Cory Cataldo, Franklin Pierce (Senior, Tewksbury, Mass.)
Cataldo took the top spot in the 60 meter hurdles at the Greater Boston Track Club Invitational, finishing with a time of 8.47 - fourth-best in the NE10 this season.

Courtney Daggett, Stonehill (So., Attleboro, Mass.)
Daggett bypassed the NCAA provisional mark in the high jump with a height of 5 feet, 2.25 inches, taking third at the URI Sorlein Invitational and matching her personal best. She is the second Skyhawk to hit the provisional mark in the high jump this season.

Olivia Dexter, Stonehill (So., East Calais, Vt.)
Dexter finished second in the 60-meter dash with a time of 7.78 and then also took second in finals with a time of 7.75, a personal best. She also crossed the finish second in the 200-meter sprint with a time of 25.66. She hit NE10 and New England qualifications in both events.
