NE10 Defensive Player of the Week

Ray Sarkodieh, Assumption
(Sr, DL - Worcester, Mass.)

Sarkodieh was a force on the inside in Assumption’s 31-28 victory over Kutztown with seven tackles, 2.5 tackles for a loss and 2.0 sacks. The senior recorded a half sack on the final play of the first half and then another half sack on the first play of the fourth quarter. His solo sack came on a third and four to force a punt to the Hounds for what would be their eventual game-winning drive.

NE10 Special Teams Player of the Week

Deonte Harris, Assumption
(Jr., WR - Baltimore, Md.)

Harris gained 135 yards on just four touches with a touchdown. He took the first Assumption kickoff return of the year 97 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter to give the Hounds a 14-7 lead. Kutztown refused to kick it deep over its final four kickoffs. Harris also added three punt returns for 38 yards, including a 31-yard return to set up team’s game-winning drive in the final 90 seconds of the fourth quarter.

NE10 Rookie of the Week

Mcprecia Remy, New Haven
(Fr, LB - Brooklyn, N.Y.)

In his collegiate debut, Remy added to his five total tackles with an interception and a forced fumble. Among his five tackles was one for loss. His interception, which came in the first quarter, helped set up the Chargers opening touchdown of the day.

A Round the NE10

- There will be no NE10 Championship Weekend in 2017. The league has voted to do away with it as two programs received NCAA bids last year.

- Assumption narrowly edged defending NE10 Champion LIU Post in the Coaches’ Preseason Poll.
