PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Academic Honors
• Placed the most basketball players on the Centennial Conference Academic Honor Roll in seven of the past 14 years.
• Three NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients and three Rhodes Scholars.
• 2005–06, ’12, ’14, and ’17: at least one player named to the Philadelphia Inquirer Academic All-Area Team (Division I, II, III).

2017–18 Team Highlights
• The Fords won the most games since the 2013–14 season and matched their highest finish in the Centennial Conference standings since the 2010–11 season.
• Haverford broke the school record for three-pointers made in a season and had the program’s highest scoring average in over 20 years.
• Joe Scibelli ’19, the 2016 Centennial Conference Rookie of the Year, recorded six double-doubles and now leads all active conference players with 18 career double-doubles.
• Haverford had three players named to the Centennial Conference Academic Honor Roll, while Jeremy Evans ’18 was selected to the conference’s all-sportsmanship team.

Looking ahead
The Fords appear poised to reach even greater heights during the 2018–19 season, as Haverford’s top 11 scorers all return. Seniors Kahlil Garnes ’19 (908 career points) and Joe Scibelli ’19 (861 career points) are both on pace to hit the 1,000-point milestone next winter, while Jonathan Lang ’20 is just shy of 500 career points after his sophomore season. Eleven of the returning players on the Fords’ roster have started at some point during their Haverford career.

COACH PROFILE

Patrick Doherty
Head Men’s Basketball Coach

Patrick Doherty is in his second season as Haverford College’s men’s basketball coach. During his first season leading the Fords, Doherty guided the team to its most wins since the 2013-14 season and saw his squad match its highest finish in the Centennial Conference standings since the 2010-11 campaign. The Fords posted the team’s highest scoring average in nearly 20 years and shattered the school record for three-pointers made in a season.

Doherty came to Haverford after eight seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Lafayette College. He spent his last five seasons as the top assistant on Fran O’Hanlon’s squad, earning the promotion to associate head coach prior to the 2015-16 season. Working alongside the winningest coach in both Lafayette and Patriot League history, Doherty coached the Leopards to four appearances in the Patriot League Championship game, capped by winning the league title and automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament during a historic 2014-15 season.

Doherty began his college coaching career during the 2007-08 season as an assistant coach at The College of New Jersey. He also spent one year as an assistant at Williams College, where he helped lead the Ephs to the conference semifinals with a 17-9 overall record and a 6-3 mark in the NESCAC. Doherty started his coaching career at Central Bucks East High School in Doylestown, Pa. as the head junior varsity coach and assistant varsity coach for two seasons.

Additionally, he has worked with the Hoop Group as a coach and site facilitator and also served as a program director for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland, a non-profit organization that uses the game of basketball to unite and educate children and their communities. During his time in Northern Ireland, Doherty was a player/coach for Northstar Basketball Club.

Doherty graduated Summa Cum Laude from Lafayette in 2004 with a bachelor’s degree in philosophy and Spanish. He was selected as a Marquis Scholar—the College’s highest academic scholarship—and joined the basketball team as a walk-on player during the 2000-01 season.
