Head Coach Josie Henry

Josie Henry completed her ninth season at Case Western Reserve in 2019. Formerly an assistant coach at Division I Cleveland State University, Henry continues to lead a remarkable turnaround for the program since being named to her post during the summer of 2010.

Henry has coached 2 NCAA All-Americans, 19 All-Region and 36 All-UAA players during her nine seasons. Under Henry’s tutelage, the Spartans qualified for the 2018 NCAA Division III Tournament for only the second time in program history, and advanced to its first NCAA Championships. The 2018 Spartans went a program-best 38-12 and finished the season ranked sixth nationally. CWRU finished tied for fifth at the 2018 NCAA Championships, which is the highest national finish for any team in CWRU athletics history.

Assistant Coach Andrea Nagy

Andrea Nagy completed her fourth season overall with the Spartans coaching staff in 2019. Under Nagy’s leadership, Case Western Reserve finished fifth at the 2018 NCAA Division III Championships while helping the team to a program-best record of 38-12.

Nagy earned her Bachelor’s Degree in Communication Management from NCAA Division I Cleveland State University in August 2012, where she also was a member of the softball team. She was an infielder for the Vikings, helping lead the team to Horizon League Championships in 2008 and 2010, and an NCAA Regional Tournament appearance in 2009. Nagy secured her Master’s Degree in Business Administration from Capital University in 2017.
