Battling heavy winds and rain throughout the day, sophomore what Cam Hayes accomplished in Saturday’s win against AICI was remarkable. The sophomore completed 16-of-21 passes for 202 yards and had a say in both scores, the keeper and the pass to Spence. He also added 44 rushing yards rushing on a career-high 14 attempts.

Dustin Huseinovic was one of Pace’s key players in an impressive defensive showing last week against SCSU. The freshman led Pace with 11 tackles while also adding an interception and another pass break-up.

Playing in a constant downpour and heavy winds, LaButte was phenomenal for the Warriors when he was called upon in Saturday’s win against AIC. He pinned the Yellow Jackets deep with three punts inside the 20 and averaged 35 yards per punt, totaling 245 yards on seven kicks.

Matthews-Byrd racked up 194 rushing yards for the Hawks against Bentley on Saturday, the sixth-most in one game by any Hawks student-athlete in team history. He averaged 6.1 yards per carry.
Levi Fancher, Assumption (Gr., LB – Beacon Falls, Conn.)
Fancher registered a season-high 13 tackles in Assumption’s 21-7 loss to No. 19 LIU Post on Saturday. The senior had five solo tackles and eight assisted in keeping the second-ranked scoring offense in the NE10 scoreless through the first half.

Andrew Brazicki, Bentley (So., RB – Franklin Park, N.J.)
Brazicki scored the go-ahead touchdown with 2:47 left in the Falcons’ 20-16 win at Saint Anselm and finished with 32 carries for 143 yards, both career-bests. He also caught a pass for seven yards.

Isaiah Collins, Bentley (Fr., WR – Dorchester Center, Mass.)
In the Falcons’ 20-16 win at Saint Anselm, Collins returned three kickoffs for 133 yards, including an 82-yarder that led to a first-minute touchdown.

Malik Pierre, LIU Post (Sr, RB – Holbrook, N. Y.)
Posted season-highs in carries (32) and rushing yards (124). Averaged 3.9 yards per rush and scored one touchdown on the ground during a 21-7 win against Assumption. Added 12 receiving yards for 136 all-purpose yards on the day.

Nazir Streater, LIU Post (So, RB – Palmyra, N.J.)
Returned the second-half kickoff 86 yards for a touchdown for the game’s first points against Assumption.

Cody Demers, Merrimack (Sr, WR – Dracut, Mass.)
Demers finished in familiar territory with his fifth 100-yards-receiving game of the season, hauling in a team-high eight catches. The senior’s performance was highlighted by the 62-yard catch and run in the second quarter that set up a touchdown on the way to a 14-0 win for the Warriors.

Michael Mercuri, Merrimack (So, LB – Lowell, Mass.)
On the defensive side of the ball, Mercuri was one of four different Warriors with at least five tackles and led the way with seven total tackles and one tackle for a loss, as well as a pass breakup. He was part of a defensive that posted its first shutout in nine years as part of a 14-0 blanking of AIC.

CJ Fitzpatrick, New Haven (Sr., LB – Pearl River, N. Y.)
Interception returned for a touchdown and seven tackles in a win over Stonehill on Saturday.

Prince Unaegbu, Pace (Sr, DL – Boston, Mass.)
Unaegbu led the Setters’ dominant defensive effort in their 14-7 overtime win over SCSU last Saturday. The senior recorded nine tackles, 1.5 sacks and 2.5 tackles for loss en route to being named the Homecoming Game MVP.

Ryan Sullivan, Saint Anselm (So., DB – Stoughton, Mass.)
Sullivan led the Hawks with 14 total tackles, racking up 10 of the solo variety in his team’s four-point loss to Bentley. He also added a half-tackle for one yard and notched a pass breakup in the contest.

Eli Parks, Southern Conn. St. (Sr, RB – Bristol, Conn.)
Parks pounded out 168 all-purpose yardage, including 146 rushing yards on 31 carries for 4.7 yards per carry, in a 14-7 loss at Pace. The game was Parks’ third straight with 140+ yards, making him the first Owl to do so since 2012. He also passed the 1,000-yard mark for the season and sits at 1,013.