NE10 Men’s Track Athlete / Rookie of the Week

Felipe Custodio, Adelphi

Junior - Valley Stream, N.Y.

Custodio claimed two individual NCAA provisional marks in the two events in Boston. In the 400-meter dash, Custodio clocked in at 47.81 to beat his career-best of 48.55. In the 200, he finished with a time of 21.57. Custodio is now ranked seventh in Division II in the 400 and eighth in the 200.

NE10 Women’s Track Athlete of the Week

Michaela Pernell, Merrimack

Junior - Naugatuck, Conn.

Pernell’s provisional-qualifying time of 7.51 seconds in the 60-meter dash placed her second at the John Thomas Terrier Classic over the weekend. She is second on the DII provisional qualifying list. Pernell also finished seventh in the 200 with a provisional time of 24.57 seconds to sit fifth on the provisional list.

NE10 Men’s Field Athlete of the Week

Michael Agyeman, Southern Connecticut

Sophomore - Manchester, Conn.

Agyeman placed first in the triple jump with a leap of 14.88 meters, edging out Division I competition at the Dr. Sander Invitational. The performance met the NCAA provisional qualifier and ranks 13th in the nation.

NE10 Women’s Field Athlete of the Week

Dana Bramble, American International

Senior - East Hartford, Conn.

Bramble broke her own school record with a victory in the triple jump, besting her previous mark of 12.08 meters. Her mark of 12.25 meters Friday at the Boston University John Thomas Terrier Classic is a Division II provisional mark and ranks best in the NE10 and is the fourth-best mark in the nation this year.

NE10 Women’s Track Rookie of the Week

Calene Lazare, Merrimack

Freshman - Newton, Mass.

Lazare finished sixth in the 60-meter dash with a time of 7.85 seconds at the John Thomas Terrier Classic this weekend.

NE10 Men’s Field Rookie of the Week

Travis Hunt, Merrimack

Freshman - Woburn, Mass.

Hunt won the shot put at the Southern Maine Invitational on Saturday with a distance of 13.50 meters.

NE10 Women’s Field Rookie of the Week

Katherine Eckerson, Assumption

Freshman - Simsbury, Conn.

Eckerson competed in both the triple and long jumps at the Inaugural Branwen Smith-King Invitational. She placed fourth in the triple jump with a mark of 33'2” and finished seventh in the long jump with a leap of 16'4.5”.

---

DMR

AIC’s distance medley relay team of senior Kemani Hume, juniors Leakey Kipkosgei and Chad Miller and freshman Ackeen Colley, won the event at the Boston University John Thomas Terrier Classic. The quartet posted an NCAA provisional mark of 9:54.82 in the event.

4x800 Relay

Stonehill’s 4x800 relay of Elizabeth Hannon, Jillian Caiazzi, Alyssa Freeman and Kelly Higgins picked up one of Stonehill’s six titles at the Branwen Smith-King Invitational clocking in at 9:38.39. The quartet ranks first among the Northeast-10 and ninth in New England.
MEN’S

Michael Grady, Adelphi (Jr. - East Meadow, N.Y.)

Grady completed the 800-meter run in 1:50.80, crushing his season-best of 1:54.33 and career-best of 1:52.60, for a new school record for the event.

Ackeen Colley, American Intl’l (Fr. - Lucea, Jamaica)

Colley broke AIC’s program record in the 800-meter run on Saturday at Boston University, finishing ninth in the event with a time of 1:49.78. He became the first AIC athlete to break 1:50 in the event while also recording the top time in Division II this season. Colley also ran a leg of the first-place DMR, which led to a provisional mark of 9:54.82 in the event.

Chad Miller, American Intl’l (Jr. - Spanish Town, Jamaica)

Miller posted a provisional mark in the 400 meters on Saturday at Boston University, finishing fifth in the event in 47.91 seconds. He also ran a leg of AIC’s first-place DMR, which bested his previous mark of 4:40.44 in the event.

Naquan Smith, American Intl’l (Sr. - Bloomfield, Conn.)

Smith broke his own program record in the pole vault on Saturday at the Boston University John Thomas Terrier Classic, finishing eighth in the event with a mark of 4.50 meters. That bested his previous mark of 4.40 meters.

Dillon Bruso, Assumption (Jr. - Aubumin, Mass.)

Bruso broke a 13-year-old Assumption record in the shot put, with a toss of 48’7.25” to place third at the Inaugural Branwen Smith-King Invitational on Saturday. The throw ranks third in the NE10 this season.

Max Michaud, Assumption (So. - Northboro, Mass.)

Michaud broke the program record in the 1,000 meters that had stood for 39 years, racing to an 11th-place finish of 2:28.74 at the John Thomas Terrier Classic, the fastest non-Division I time at the meet.

Trevor Guay, Franklin Pierce (So. - Londonderry, N.H.)

Guay finished 27th on Saturday at the Terrier Classic with a time of 49.93 seconds in the 400-meter dash to rank eighth in the NE10.

Trevor Ciempa, Merrimack (Sr. - Bloomfield, Conn.)

Ciempa won the high jump at the Southern Maine Invite on Saturday with a 1.99 mark, a personal-best clear.

Michael Kandolin, New Haven (Fr. - East Calais, Vt.)

Kandolin took fourth in the weight throw out of 32 competitors with a mark of 17.43 meters, a New England qualifying mark.

Matthew McLaughlin, New Haven (Fr. - Clifton Park, N.Y.)

McLaughlin posted a personal-best time of 22.19 in the 200-meter dash at the John Terrier Classic on Saturday, a personal-best time and the fourth-fastest of the Division II field at the meet.

Jack Brown, So. Connecticut (So. - Lyndon Center, Vt.)

Brown captured first place in the pole vault with a vault of 4.75 meters, an NCAA provisional qualifier, against Division I competition at the Dr. Sander Invitational.

Stefan Balestra, Stonehill (Sr. - Whitman, Mass.)

Balestra finished third in the weight at the Branwen Smith-King Invitational at Tufts, with a personal-best distance of 54’6.5”, which ranks him third in the NE10’s performance list.

Jimmy Murphy, Stonehill (Sr. - Mansfield, Mass.)

Murphy led a Skyhawks sweep of the top three positions in the 3,000-meter run at Tufts’ Branwen Smith-King Invitational. He posted a first-place finish in a personal-best and New England-qualifying time of 8:34.75 — the fourth-fastest in the NE10 after the flat-track conversion.

Stephen Vercollone, Stonehill (Jr. - Pembroke, Mass.)

Vercollone hit the provisional qualifier in the 800-meter run on Saturday at BU with a personal-best time of 1:52.71 - the 16th-fastest time in the country this winter. He placed 21st in the field of 121 entries and 11th among collegiate runners. His time ranks third in the NE10 this season. Vercollone later joined his teammates at Tufts and ran the third leg of Stonehill’s 4x400 that finished second in a season-best 3:26.06. His 49.8-second split helped the Skyhawks post the third-fastest time in the NE10 this season.

WOMEN’S

Emily Hagarty, Adelphi (Sr. - Bellmore, N.Y.)

Hagarty was the lone competitor representing the Panthers on Thursday competing in the pentathlon. She finished the event with 3,233 points and landed in fourth place, breaking her own school record.

Antonia Pagliuca, Assumption (Sr. - Peabody, Mass.)

Pagliuca shattered the program record in the 5,000 meters at the John Thomas Terrier Classic, finishing with a time of 17:12.90. The time provisionally qualifies her for NCAAs and is the 11th-fastest mark nationally, while placing her first in the NE10 by nearly 45 seconds.

Stephanie Mattson, Bentley (Jr. - Smithfield, R.I.)

At the BU John Thomas Terrier Classic, Mattson placed ninth of 44 in the long jump, including first among DII athletes, after clearing 17’ 8”. She was also 22nd of 86 in the 400 meters with her New England-qualifying time of 58.59 seconds, placing third among DII participants. Mattson concluded her day by helping Bentley place 21st in the 4x400 relay in 4:12.95.

Nicole Calewski, Franklin Pierce (Gr. - Whitman, Mass.)

Calewski finished fourth in the 60-meter hurdles on Friday at BU’s Terrier Classic, with a time of 9.05 seconds. The time met the NEICAA qualifying standard and currently ranks second both in the NE10 and the East Region.

Emily Hagarty, Franklin Pierce (Sr. - West Bridgewater, Mass.)

Quinn finished fifth in the weight throw on Friday at BU’s Terrier Classic with a heave of 16.36 meters. The mark met the NEICAA qualifying standard.

Riley Knebes, New Haven (Sr. - Salem, Ore.)

Knebes sprinted to a 55.61 finish in the 400-meter dash at the John Terrier Classic on Saturday, a personal-best time and the fourth-fastest of the Division II field at the meet. This season the time met the NCAA provision mark by just over a second and gave her an eighth-place finish out of 87 runners. She also posted a time of 25.83 in the 200 which placed her 24th out of 125 and third among DII competitors.

Alanna Robinson, New Haven (Jr. - Montclair, N.J.)

Robinson posted a top-10 finish at the John Terrier Classic hosted by Boston University, securing ninth place in the weight throw out of 47 athletes with a toss of 15.77 meters, the best among DII competitors.

Valerie Hinds, Saint Rose (So. - Kingston, N.Y.)

Hinds placed ninth in the shot put at the John Thomas Terrier Classic on Friday with a school-record 13.04 meter mark.

Ashley Elder, Southern New Hampshire (So. - Bristol, Conn.)

Elder took home a win with a personal record in the shot put at the Middlebury Invitational. Her toss of 13.82 meters was more than a half meter better than her PR of 13.30 meters. She also tallied 10 points for the Penmen.

Knebes posted a time of 22.03 in 100-meter heat at the Boston University John Thomas Terrier Classic, finishing fifth in the event with a mark of 17.83 in the 200. She also posted a time of 25.83 in the 200 which placed her 24th out of 125 and third among DII competitors.

Ana Maria Perez, Southern New Hampshire (Sr. - Nashua, N.H.)

Perez captured both the 60-meter hurdles and the triple jump on Saturday at the Middlebury Invitational. She breezed through the hurdles in a personal-record time of 9.30 seconds, which topped her previous best of 9.34. In the triple, Perez traveled a distance of 10.88 meters to secure 10 points for the Penmen.

Olivia Dexter, Western New England (So. - Westerly, R.I.)

Dexter competed in three events over a two-day period. She opened the weekend at the Terrier Invitational placing 25th out of 126 competitors in the 200-meter dash and qualifying for her second event for New England. Dexter clocked in at 25.50, good for sixth among NE10 sprinters in the event. She also competed in the 200 on Saturday at the Branwen Smith-King Invitational claiming one of Stonehill’s six individual titles. Additionally, Dexter finished fourth in the long jump with a mark of 17.72’.

Shayla Lyons, Stonehill (So. - Westerly, N.Y.)

Lyons qualified for New England invitational in the shot put this weekend as she finished second at the Branwen King-Smith Invitational. Her mark of 117.5” ranks sixth in the conference and 21st among New England competitors.