Kylie Lorenzen, Southern New Hampshire
(So., F - Holliston, Mass.)

Lorenzen posted 23 points, 11 rebounds, four assists, a block and a steal, while shooting 8-of-16 from the floor and 2-of-4 from beyond the arc, in a 74-70 overtime victory against Concordia (N.Y.) on Friday.

Sierra Clark, Adelphi
(Sr., F - Hughesville, Md.)

In a 2-0 week for Adelphi, Clark paced the team in scoring with a pair of 20+ point efforts. In a 75-69 OT win over Bridgeport, she hit the game-winning three-pointer as a part of a 20-point, 11 rebound night along with four blocks. She followed that up with a game-high 23 points in a 56-44 win over Dominican, shooting 11-for-16 from the floor and adding five rebounds, a block and a steal.

Denia Davis-Stewart, Merrimack
(Fr., F/C - Dorchester, Mass.)

Davis-Stewart recorded her first-ever double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds while also contributing three blocks and two steals in Merrimack’s victory over Holy Family last week. She made her first career start against the Tigers as Merrimack’s center, shooting 4-of-7 from the field.

AROUND THE NE10

• Seven NE10 teams went perfect on the week in non-conference action. Adelphi went 2-0, while Assumption, Merrimack, New Haven, Southern Connecticut and Southern New Hampshire each went 1-0.

• Bentley senior All-American Jen Gemma moved past former NE10 Players of the Year Alison Fay ’84 and Kelly Barker ’01 into second on the program’s all-time scoring list with 1,814 points.

• Bentley set school records for three-pointers in a game (15) and points in the second quarter (31) in a 103-66 win over Holy Family Saturday. Meanwhile, New Haven held Post to just 37 points on Friday, the first time since 2009 that the Chargers allowed under 40 points.
