NE10 MEN'S TRACK ATHLETE OF THE WEEK
Leakey Kipkosgei, American International
Sophomore, Kapsabet, Kenya
Kipkosgei posted the seventh-best time in the nation after placing third in the steeplechase at the Penn Relays on Thursday. His time of 8:56.65 is also the best in the NE10 this year and is an NCAA Provisional mark.

NE10 WOMEN'S TRACK ATHLETE OF THE WEEK
Michaela Pernell, Merrimack
Sophomore, Naugatuck, Conn.
Pernell won the 100m dash at the Skyhawk Invite with a personal-best of 11.92, ranking first in the NE10 this season and it's also an NCAA Provisional time. She also ran to a fourth-place finish with a 4x100m relay team with a time of 48.27.

NE10 MEN'S FIELD ATHLETE OF THE WEEK
Michael Kandolin, New Haven
Sophomore, Columbia, Conn.
Kandolin recorded a toss of 50.90m in the discus at the Penn Relays. He then impressed at the Yale Springtime Invitational with 3rd-place finishes in the discus and hammer with distances of 44.50 and 50.95 meters.

NE10 WOMEN'S FIELD ATHLETE OF THE WEEK
Sahara Brown, Southern New Hampshire
Senior, Center Barnstead, N.H.
Brown set a new personal record and provisionally qualified for the NCAA Championships with her javelin throw of 44.76 meters (146 feet, 10 inches), winning the event for her fifth straight meet.

NE10 MEN'S TRACK ROOKIE OF THE WEEK
Ryan Nesta, Merrimack
Freshman, Milford, Mass.
Nesta finished sixth in the 400m at the Stonehill Skyhawk Invite, qualifying for NE10’s with a personal-best time of 51.41.

NE10 WOMEN'S TRACK ROOKIE OF THE WEEK
Catherine Purves, Franklin Pierce
Freshman, Dalkeith, Scotland
At the Penn Relays, Purves moved into the top-10 in the nation in the 400-meter hurdles, with a school-record time of 59.96 to finish 11th. The time is tied for sixth in the country and is the East Region's fastest time.

NE10 MEN'S RELAY TEAM OF THE WEEK
4x800-meter relay
Franklin Pierce
Choose One
Jon Holmes, Joshua Ercolini, Adam Bryson, Dage Minors -- On Saturday at the Penn Relays, the quartet put together a time of 7:41.88 to finish 15th. They were the top Division II finishers in the event and the time is the fastest in the NE10 so far this spring.

NE10 WOMEN'S RELAY TEAM OF THE WEEK
4x100m
Merrimack
Choose One
Team of Michaela Pernell, Olivia Downey, Leniesha Williams and Carol Dimaiti finish fourth overall and first among DII schools in the 4x100m at the Stonehill Skyhawk Invite with a time of 48.27.
NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 7

Chad Miller, American International
So., Spanish Town, Jamaica
Miller posted an NCAA Provisional mark in the 400 meters by winning the race at the Stonehill Invitational on Saturday. His time of 47.73 seconds is the only provisional mark in the event in the NE10 this year, and breaks the previous season best by nearly one full second.

Alex Cerbo, Assumption
Jr., Cranston, R.I.
Cerbo won the hammer throw at the Skyhawk Invitational, recording a distance of 170 feet, 10-inches. The throw is the second farthest recorded in the NE10 this season. Cerbo also competed in the shot put and placed third with a distance of 45 feet, 7.75-inches.

Antonia Pagliuca, Assumption
Jr., Peabody, Mass.
Pagliuca smashed the school record by over 20 seconds in the 10,000 meter run at the Penn Relays, placing tenth with a time of 35:49.28. The junior now owns the top time in the NE10 by 11 seconds and currently ranks 17th in the nation.

Gwen Sawyer, Assumption
Sr., North Yarmouth, Maine
Sawyer won the lone event of the day for the Hounds at the Skyhawk Invitational, as she placed first in the shot put with a distance of 42 feet, 11-inches. The throw ranks second in the NE10 so far this season.

Seamus Higgins, Bentley
Jr., Randolph, N.J.
At the Stonehill Skyhawk Invitational, Higgins finished first in the 3,000 meters, winning by 4.72 seconds over teammate Cody Murphy with a time of 9:10.03.

Steph Mattson, Bentley
So., Smithfield, R.I.
At the Stonehill Skyhawk Invitational, Mattson was first among Division II student-athletes and third overall in the long jump with her 18' 7.75" breaking the school record she set earlier this month by 0.75 inches. She was also seventh in the triple jump (30' 10.5") and tenth in the 200 meters (wind-aided 26.18, second best in program history), setting new PR’s in both.

Rindal Pierre-Canel, Franklin Pierce
Jr., Randolph, Mass.
On Saturday at the Penn Relays, finished ninth in the triple jump, with a mark of 14.32 meters. The mark met the NEICAA qualifying standard and currently ranks second in the NE10 and third in the East Region.

Lauren MacGregor, Merrimack
Jr., Salem, N.H.
MacGregor posted a fourth-place finish in the triple jump at the Stonehill Skyhawk Invite, setting a new school record and qualifying for New England’s with a 11.51m jump. The jump ranks third in the NE10 this season. Also added a ninth-place finish in the long jump with a personal-best 5.37m jump.

Jacob Robinson, Merrimack
So., Riverhead, N.Y.
Robinson posted two runner-up finishes at the Stonehill Skyhawk Invite in the 100m and 200m, including finishing second in the 100m by less than a hundredth of a second. He posted a new school record with a time of 10.53 in the 100m, ranking third in the NE10. Ran a time of 22.23 in the 200m. Also ran with the 4x100m relay team that finished first and set a new school record (42.02).

Olivia Lane, New Haven
So., Norwich, Conn.
Lane had a pair of top-five finishes at the Yale Springtime Invitational including winning the shot put at a distance of 12.92 meters. She also came in fifth in the discus with a throw of 37.57 meters.

Cara Kelly, Saint Rose
So., Vernon, N.J.
Kelly cleared 3.20m to win the pole vault at the Capital District Classic.

Lyzandra Fernandes, Southern Connecticut
Sr., Danbury, Conn.
Fernandes competed at the Yale Springtime Invitational, where she earned third place in the pole vault after launching 3.10 meters.

Shatajah Watty, Southern Connecticut
Sr., Uncasville, Conn.
Watty competed at the Lyons Invitational, where she placed third in the 400 meter dash with a time of 54.60. She was also one-fourth of the quartet that took home first in the 4x100 meter race (46.52).

Ashley Elder, Southern New Hampshire
So., Bristol, Conn.
Elder captured the discus by more than three meters with a heave of 44.04 meters. She also turned in a personal record in the hammer throw en route to a third-place finish overall and the top Division II mark, as she whirled the weight 44.32 meters.

Riley Dowd, Stonehill
Sophomore, Peabody, Mass.
Dowd won the 1500-meter run with a personal-best time of 3:54.86 to lead a sweep of the top five positions as Stonehill won its ninth-straight Skyhawk Invitational on Saturday.

Joshua Hubbell, Stonehill
Jr., Gloucester, Mass.
Hubbell helped lead Stonehill to its ninth-straight Skyhawks Invitational team title with three strong performances on Saturday. He placed second in the long jump as he cleared a personal-best distance of 22-feet, 6.25-inches. He finished fifth out of 19 entries in the 200-meter dash with a time of 22.73-seconds and then ran the second leg on Stonehill’s 4x100-meter relay team that finished second in 43.28-seconds.

Anthony Innamorati, Stonehill
Jr., Clinton, Mass.
Innamorati won the pole vault to help Stonehill to its ninth-straight Skyhawk Invitational on Saturday. Won in a jump off as he cleared 14-feet, 7.25-inches.

Stephen Vercollone, Stonehill
So., Pembroke, Mass.
Vercollone highlighted the Skyhawks ninth-straight Skyhawk Invitational team title on Saturday by winning the 800-meter run with a school-record and NCAA provisional qualifying effort. He placed first in 1:51.65 to set a new school record with the No. 22 ranked time in the country to date. He was also part of Stonehill’s 4x400-meter relay which ran second in 3:28.79.