NE10 Offensive Player of the Week

Mack Lowrie, Bentley
(Senior, QB - Foxborough, Mass.)

Lowrie threw five TD passes in Bentley’s impressive 40-21 Homecoming Day win over No. 9 LIU Post, with each one longer than the previous one. Distances were seven and 20 yards in the first quarter, 22 and 29 in the second, and 56 in the fourth. Overall, he was 18-28 for 255 yards in helping the Falcons improve to 3-0 in NE10 play.

NE10 Defensive Player of the Week

Nick Athy, Bentley
(Junior, SS - Holliston, Mass.)

Athy had a hand in five of LIU Post’s six turnovers as the Falcons handed the No. 9 Pioneers their first conference loss since November 2015, 40-21. He intercepted two passes (including one in the end zone), recovered two fumbles and also forced a fumble. In addition, he finished the contest with eight tackles and a pass break-up.

NE10 Special Teams Player of the Week

Brendan Burke, Bentley
(Senior, P - Norristown, Pa.)

Burke had his best punting day of the season in Saturday’s win over #9 LIU Post. The senior punted the ball four times for an average of 40.5 yards.

NE10 Rookie of the Week

Austin Ryan, Bentley
(Freshman, WR - Foxborough, Mass.)

In a 40-21 win over No. 9 LIU Post, Ryan caught three touchdown passes for a total of 107 yards, pushing his season total to five. He was on the receiving end of 22- and 29- yard scoring strikes and added a 56-yarder in the fourth after the Pioneers pulled within 26-21.

Around the NE10

- Assumption narrowly edged defending NE10 Champion LIU Post in the Coaches’ Preseason Poll.
- After forcing 11 turnovers the last two weeks, including four interceptions in the end zone, Bentley is 2nd nationally in turnovers gained (14) and fumbles recovered (8). Nick Athy is 2nd in fumbles recovered (3) and Austin Ryan is 2nd in yards per reception (29.0).
Isaiah Robinson, American International (So., LB - Staten Island, N.Y.)
Robinson had six solo tackles and four assisted tackles in the Yellow Jackets’ win over Southern Connecticut. Posted a sack and also forced a fumble and recovered it at the 1-yard line to keep the Owls from scoring.

Andrew Benson, Assumption (Sr., SS - Bridgewater, Mass.)
Benson was all over the field for the Hounds in limiting a third straight opponent to less than ten points as he recorded two interceptions, while adding eight tackles and a fumble recovery. His first interception occurred early in the first and set up Assumption’s first touchdown of the day while his second in the fourth set up the team’s final touchdown.

Marc Monks, Assumption (Sr., QB - Annandale, N.J.)
Monks accounted for five touchdowns in the first half to lead Assumption to a 56-7 victory over Merrimack on Saturday. He finished the day 18 of 30 for 307 yards and four touchdowns, while rushing six times for 39 yards and one more score in leading the team to its second 50-point game of the year.

Brandon Brown, Bentley (Sr., LB - Oxon Hill, Pa.)
In a 40-21 win over No. 9 LIU Post, Brown led the Falcons in tackles with 11, including six solo stops, and also had a tackle for loss and a forced fumble.

Javeon Ensley, New Haven (Fr., DB - Plainfield, N.J.)
Ensley’s breakout performance led the Charges as he finished with a career-high eight tackles, including six solo. Among them was a key fourth-and-goal stop in the fourth quarter that would at the time have prevented a game-tying touchdown. He also picked off the first interception of his career, one of three for the Chargers defense on Saturday.

Jhalen Bien-Aime, Pace (Jr., RB - Dorchester, Mass.)
Bien-Aime continued his fabulous 2017 season with 148 more rushing yards on Saturday against New Haven. The redshirt junior stays atop the NE10 in rushing yards per contest. In fact, Bien-Aime has 200 more yards than any other running back in the NE10 this season, and ranks sixth in the nation in total rushing at 554 yards.

Matthew Corrie, Pace (Sr., LB - South Setauket, N.Y.)
Corrie racked up a game-high and season-high 12 tackles (1.5 for loss) in Pace’s 21-20 loss to New Haven on Saturday. He also forced a key fumble (his third of the season) with less than three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. He also had a fumble recovery in the team’s one-point setback.

Kyle Hill, Saint Anselm (Jr., WR - Upper Marlboro, Md.)
Hill posted eight catches for 77 yards and a touchdown, moving to fifth all-time in Hawks history with 1,597 yards through the air.

Andrew Jamiel, Stonehill (So., WR - Yarmouth, Mass.)
Jamiel scored three touchdowns to lead the Skyhawks to a 28-14 triumph over Saint Anselm in the 13th annual “Battle for the Ol’ Bronze Hawk” on Saturday. He caught eight passes for a season-high 164 yards and a career-best three touchdowns, averaging 20.5 yards per reception. He opened the game with a 55-yard shoestring catch and run for a touchdown on the opening possession of the game to stake Stonehill to a lead. He added an 11-yard touchdown catch midway through the second quarter, and then added an impressive 26-yard touchdown over a defender with 3:29 left that sealed the team’s 14th straight win over the Hawks.

Matt Foltz, Stonehill (Sr., QB - Mount Joy, Pa.)
Foltz completed 16-of-27 passes for 240 yards and three touchdowns to help lead the Skyhawks to a 28-14 triumph over Saint Anselm on Saturday. He also rushed for a fourth touchdown that gave Stonehill a 14-0 lead five and a half minutes into the game. Foltz fired a 55-yard touchdown pass just 84-second in on the Skyhawks opening possession and then added a 26-yard touchdown pass with 3:29 left that sealed the win.

Anthony Marsilio, Stonehill (Jr., DE - Tyngsboro, Mass.)
Marsilio led a Skyhawks defense which limited Saint Anselm to just 244 total yards and 14 points in a 28-14 triumph. He posted a career-high seven tackles (two solo), including a career-best 3.0 tackles for a loss of 16 yards, with a career-high 2.0 sacks for a loss of 15 and a forced fumble.
