University of Redlands Grow the Game Clinics are designed for kids interested in learning more about volleyball. Players will be coached by the UR coaching staff and players. We will teach basic volleyball skills and rules, while also playing games and focusing on physical fitness and having fun. These co-ed clinics are for kids in 3rd - 8th grade. Parents are welcome to stay and observe or leave and come back at the end of the session!