NE10 Player of the Week

Emily Miller, LIU Post
Junior, F - Bridgewater, N.J.

Miller helped the No. 4 Pioneers to a 2-0 week, totaling 12 points on six goals. The junior amassed a five-goal performance at Southern Connecticut on Tuesday and added another goal in the team’s win over Merrimack. It’s the second time this fall she’s been recognized with this honor.

NE10 Defensive Player of the Week

Mia Vecchione, Saint Anselm
Senior, M - Chelmsford, Mass.

Vecchione helped third-ranked Saint Anselm to back-to-back shutouts and was the flyer on the defensive corner unit that did not yield a single goal. She also added a penalty stroke goal to help her team outscore its opponents by a 6-0 margin.

NE10 Goalkeeper & Rookie of the Week

Julia Hand, Saint Anselm
Freshman, GK - Reading, Mass.

Hand had an outstanding week for No. 3 Saint Anselm, backstopping the squad to two shutout victories. She made seven saves against Assumption in a 3-0 victory on Tuesday, and made a single save against Bentley at home on Friday. Hand has posted five shutouts during her freshman campaign.

Around the NE10

- The 2017 NE10 Field Hockey Championship will begin with Quarterfinal Round play on October 31. The Semifinals will be November 3, with the Championship Final on Sunday, November 5. All games will be hosted by the higher-seeded teams.

- Saint Anselm was picked by the league’s head coaches to win the NE10 Championship in 2017.
Quarterfinal Round: Tuesday, October 31
Semifinal Round: Friday, November 3
Championship Final: Sunday, November 5
- Hosted by High Seeds Throughout -

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 7

Elizabeth Mercuri, Adelphi (Sr, F - Chelmsford, Mass.)
Mercuri scored two goals in two wins for the Panthers.

Meaghan Williams, Franklin Pierce (Sr, GK - Salem, N.H.)
Williams played every minute of a 1-1 week for the Ravens, who split a pair of games against nationally ranked opposition. She made eight saves against 10 shots on goal to post an .800 save percentage and a 1.00 goals-against average with one shutout. Made six saves against eight shots on goal in a loss to No. 9 Stonehill on Tuesday. Made a pair of saves to post a shutout in a 1-0 win over No. 6 Pace on Saturday.

Sammy Bell, LIU Post (Fr, M - Milngavie, Glasgow, United Kingdom)
Bell enjoyed a nine-point week during the No. 4 Pioneers’ 2-0 week. The freshman recorded four goals and an assist including the game-winner versus No. 10 Merrimack. She notched her first career hat trick in the Pioneers win at Southern Connecticut.

Julie Gysels, LIU Post (Jr, D - Boom, Belgium)
Gysels anchored the No. 4 Pioneers during their 2-0 week as they only allowed two goals while scoring 17 of their own. She also added an assist in each of the contests.

Paige Predmore, Pace (Jr, D - Harrisburg, Pa.)
Predmore provided the defensive stability for a Pace backline that yielded just a single goal last week. The junior led the way in the Setters recording their eighth shutout of the season in a 1-0 win over Southern New Hampshire last Tuesday.

Lesly Sanchez Alvarez, Pace (Sr, GK - Stamford, Conn.)
Sanchez Alvarez continued her stellar season last week, allowing just a single goal in two contests. The senior began the week by recording six saves in her league-best eighth shutout of the season against Southern New Hampshire. She yielded just her seventh tally of the season against Franklin Pierce on Saturday.

Emma Kincaid, Saint Anselm (Sr., F - West Bridgewater, Mass.)
Kincaid scored a goal in each of her two games played this past week, helping the third-ranked Saint Anselm field hockey team to back-to-back 3-0 victories over Assumption and Bentley.

Jenna Deschaine, Saint Michael’s (Sr., B - Claremont, N.H.)
Deschaine scored a game-winning goal while anchoring the defense for a team that went 2-0 with two shutouts, while allowing only 10 shots, and just four on goal. In a 2-0 win at American International on Tuesday, Saint Michael’s yielded just six shots, and one on goal, before allowing four shots, three on goal, in a 2-0 win against Southern Connecticut on Saturday. In that game, she potted the 45th-minute winner.

Anna Hurley, Saint Michael’s (So., GK - Sandwich, Mass.)
Hurley posted two shutouts during a 2-0 week. During a 2-0 win at American International on Tuesday, she had one stop before making three saves in another 2-0 victory over So. Connecticut on Saturday.

Michaela Antonellis, Stonehill (So, B - Watertown, Mass.)
Antonellis led a defense which held opponents to just 1.50 goals per game in a 2-0 week, yielding 11 shots and 5.5 penalty corners per game, with a shutout. She chipped in with a goal and assist for three points for the week. Stonehill posted a 2-0 shutout win at Franklin Pierce on Tuesday, holding the Ravens to just five shots and two corners. Helped the Skyhawks to a comeback win at SNHU, on Saturday with a goal and assist, while holding the Penmen to just six shots and a corner in the second half to key the 4-3 comeback win.

Sara Freedman, Stonehill (Jr, G - Hopkinton, Mass.)
Freedman backboned a Skyhawks defense which allowed 1.5 goals per game in a 2-0 week. She averaged 5.5 saves per game to go with her 1.50 GAA for the week. Had three saves in Tuesday’s 2-0 shutout win at Franklin Pierce and then totaled eight stops in Saturday’s win at Southern New Hampshire, including the 300th of her career.

Kacie Smith, Stonehill (Jr, F - Norwood, Mass.)
Smith had a hand in five of the Skyhawks seven goals in a 2-0 week with two goals and three assists. She played a role in all four goals in Saturdays’ 4-3 comeback win at Southern New Hampshire, with a goal and career-high matching three assists as Stonehill overcame a three-goal first half deficit with four unanswered goals, setting new program single-season records for assists (17) and points (79). Also scored a goal in Tuesday’s 2-0 win at Franklin Pierce.

Alexandria Sylvia, Stonehill (Sr, F - Brockton, Mass.)
Sylvia helped the Skyhawks to a 2-0 week with two goals and an assist for five points. Scored two goals to help lead Stonehill to a 4-3 comeback win at Southern New Hampshire, on Saturday, after dishing an assists in Tuesday’s 2-0 win at Franklin Pierce.