- reflects change in teams’ result, per NCAA Soccer forfeiture playing rules

Player of the Week

Tyler Biscone – Mount Saint Mary
Senior, Goalkeeper, Garden City, NY/Garden City
Second award in as many weeks...has backstopped the Knights to five-straight shutouts, after earning clean sheets last week in conference action against Sarah Lawrence (two saves) and Old Westbury (four)...has not let in a goal in the last 512:11 of play...leads the Skyline with seven shutouts on the campaign, while ranking third in goals against average (1.099).

Gavin Yingling – U.S. Merchant Marine Academy
Senior, Forward, Salisbury, MD/James M. Bennett
Second weekly accolade on the season (Sept. 19)...leads the Skyline with 14 goals and 29 points, after a pair of two-goal outings (to go with one assist) last week...bagged two goals (including the game-winner) and added one assist midweek versus Mount Saint Vincent...added a brace in a road Skyline showdown at Farmingdale, collecting his conference-tying fifth game-winner (Kevin Ferreira, Maritime) in the process.

Rookie of the Week

Chris Agbodoh – Old Westbury
Freshman, Forward, Far Rockaway, NY/Academy of Medical Technology
Registered first collegiate hat trick in the Panthers’ win to start the week over York (NY)...added the game-tying assist in the 72nd minute of action against St. Joseph’s-Long Island – a contest in which OW won in the second overtime...ranks third on the team in goals (four - tied) and fourth in points (nine).

Honor Roll

St. Joseph’s-Long Island senior midfielder Justin Heredia had a four-point week for the Golden Eagles, including the game-winning marker against Sarah Lawrence...Old Westbury junior striker Dominick Guidice had five goals in a three-game stretch, including a hat trick in the first 14 minutes of action against York (NY) and a pair (including the golden goal) against St. Joseph’s-Long Island...St. Joseph’s-Brooklyn junior forward Cesar Oviedo assisted on the equalizing goal, before netting the game-winner against Purchase...Farmingdale State sophomore Christian Campos buried the game-winning tally against Maritime, before scoring once against Merchant Marine...Maritime sophomore forward Parker Galt provided the only score in the Privateers’ triumph over St. Joseph’s-Brooklyn.
