NE10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Kacie Smith, Stonehill
Senior, F - Norwood, Mass.

Scored four of the No. 2-ranked Skyhawks eight goals in a 2-0 week to finish with eight points for the week. She was one of three goal scorers in Stonehill’s 3-1 comeback win at American International on Wednesday, and then netted her second hat trick of the year (17th career) in Saturday’s 5-0 win over Bentley.

NE10 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Chelsea Davis - American Int’l
Junior, B - Boonton, N.J.

Davis turned in another strong week for AIC. Her defensive save in the first half of the team’s game against No. 2 Stonehill tied the NE10 career mark and preserved what was a 1-0 lead at the time, and she scored a goal and set up another while helping hold the Owls to just one second-half shot in a 4-1 win at Southern Connecticut.

NE10 GOALKEEPER OF THE WEEK

Sara Freedman - Stonehill
Senior, GK - Hopkinton, Mass.

Posted a 0.50 goals against average, while averaging 5.50 saves per game in a 2-0 week for the No. 2-ranked Skyhawks. Registered a .917 save percentage for the week, conceding just one goal for the week. She finished with nine stops in posting her second shutout of the season in Saturday’s 5-0 win over rival Bentley. Stopped two shots in helping Stonehill rally for a 3-1 win at American International on Wednesday.

NE10 ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Emily Campbell - Southern New Hampshire
Freshman, F/M - Raynham, Mass.

Campbell scored the first two goals of her career, as the Penmen won their lone game of the week, 4-0, against Adelphi on Saturday.

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 5

Emily Power, Adelphi (Sr., F - Yorktown Heights, N.Y.)
Power scored three goals for Adelphi in a 6-0 conference victory over the University of New Haven on Wednesday, Adelphi’s win in a 1-1 week. It was the second hat trick of her collegiate career and her first goals of the season.

Meghan Brock, American Int’l (Sr., F - Rochester, N.Y.)
Brock had a strong week for AIC, including a two-goal performance at Southern Connecticut. Her first tally proved to be the decisive one in a 4-1 win against the Owls.

Mary McNeil, Merrimack (Sr., M - Canton, Mass.)
McNeil registered her third multi-goal game of the season on Saturday, leading Merrimack to a 4-2 victory over New Haven. McNeil attempted a career-high 15 shots, with seven of them landing on target. The midfielder led the program to its fifth consecutive victory.

Rachel Platko, Pace (Sr., M - Hanover Township, Pa.)
Platko served as the hero for the Setters in their double-overtime win over Franklin Pierce on Saturday. The senior registered the game-winner in the 82nd minute, clinching a 1-0 victory for Pace.

Maddie Bressler, Saint Anselm (Sr., F - Franklin, Mass.)
Bressler scored the game-winning goal over nationally-ranked Assumption this past week, doing so with under one minute remaining in regulation time, to lift Saint Anselm to a 2-1 victory.

Julia Hand, Saint Anselm (So., GK - Reading, Mass.)
Hand had four saves in Saturday’s 2-1 victory over No. 7 Assumption.

Melanie Rennie, Southern N.H. (Sr., GK - Madison, Conn.)
Rennie stopped all four shots she saw over the opening 59:45 of action in SNHU’s lone contest of the week - a 4-0 win over Adelphi on Saturday.

Carly Andersen, Stonehill (Sr, F - Cheshire, Conn.)
Totalled six points with two goals and two assists in a 2-0 week for the No. 2-ranked Skyhawks. Was among three goal-scorers, netting the gamewinner, in Stonehill’s 3-1 comeback win at American International on Wednesday. She tallied a season-high four points with a goal and two assists in Saturday’s 5-0 win over rival Bentley.

MacKenzie Greenberg, Stonehill (Sr, M/B - Mendon, Mass.)
Keyed a strong defensive effort for the No. 2-ranked Skyhawks which yielded just one goal over two games. She led the Skyhawks defensive effort in Saturday’s 5-0 win over rival Bentley for Stonehill’s third shutout of the year, leading a corner defense unit which fended off six penalty corners for the afternoon. Greenberg led a defensive effort which limited American International to just five shots, including two in the second half, as the Skyhawks overcame an early goal deficit for a 3-1 win. She was among three goal-scorers for the Skyhawks, netting the equalizing goal just before halftime.
