NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE HONOR ROLL

Chris Waung, Assumption
(Jr., Bolton, Conn.)
Waung went a perfect 4-0 this week at No. 1 singles and No. 1 doubles. He partnered with junior Marco Leung for an 8-1 victory at Saint Michael’s before the pair won 8-6 at Bentley on Saturday. Individually, Waung claimed back-to-back 6-2, 6-3 victories on the week to help lead the Hounds to a 1-1 week.

Frank Vega, Merrimack
(So., Lima, Peru)
Vega went 4-0 between doubles and singles play over two matches for the Warriors, which were wins over AIC and regionally ranked Bentley. Vega won both of his singles matches at No. 3 in straight sets, only losing a combined two games against the Falcons. He won an 8-0 doubles decision at the Yellow Jackets before an 8-3 win versus the Falcons.

Caitlyn Burridge, New Haven
(Fr., Center Moriches, N.Y.)
Burridge won three of her four matches during a 1-1 week for the Chargers. She earned wins at both fourth singles and second doubles against Molloy on Saturday before picking up a win at fifth singles against Holy Cross on Sunday.

Thomas Bellio, Stonehill
(So., Saint Joseph, Mich.)
Bellio posted a combined 4-2 record in singles and doubles play in a 2-1 week for the Skyhawks. He posted identical 2-1 records at No. 1 singles as well as No. 1 doubles along with classmate Nikolay Lisichenok. Bellio was a double-winner in victories over Wheaton on Thursday and Saint Anselm on Saturday.

Nikolay Lisichenok, Stonehill
(So., Danvers, Mass.)
Lisichenok posted a combined 5-1 record in a 2-1 week for the Skyhawks. He won all three of his matches at No. 2 singles, while combining with classmate Thomas Bellio to win two of three matches at No. 1 doubles. Lisichenok opened the week with a three set (6-1, 3-6, 6-4) victory vs. Southern New Hampshire, and he was a double-winner in Thursday’s 5-4 win against Wheaton, as well as in Saturday’s 6-3 triumph at Saint Anselm.
