Jeanine Nunez, Adelphi
(Senior, F - Staten Island, N.Y.)
Nunez netted a team-high five points in a 2-0 week for Adelphi, scoring two goals and adding an assist. She tallied the second goal in a 2-0 win over Mercy, and added a goal and an assist in a 6-1 win vs. Merrimack.

Drew Ribadeneyra, Pace
(Sr, D - Maybrook, N.Y.)
Ribadeneyra led the way for a Pace defense that recorded a pair of shutouts last week in wins over Georgian Court and Assumption. In fact, the Blue and Gold backline had to put in extra time in a 1-0 overtime triumph over GCU.

Marika Laurendeau, Saint Rose
(Sophomore, GK - Sainte-Julie, Quebec)
Laurendeau stopped eight shots (and did not allow a goal) during a pair of wins last week for the Golden Knights. She made five saves in a shutout win over Roberts Wesleyan on Wednesday, and then stopped three more Saturday in a win over Stonehill.

Gina Henson, Pace
(Freshman, M - Carmel, N.Y.)
Henson picked the perfect time to score her first collegiate goal in overtime against Georgian Court. The freshman’s tally in the sixth minute of extra time clinched a 1-0 triumph on the road for the Setters.

The 2017 NE10 Women’s Soccer Championship will begin with Quarterfinal Round play on October 31. The Semifinals will be held on November 3, with the Championship Final taking place on Sunday, November 5. All games will be hosted by the higher-seeded teams.

Adelphi was picked by the league’s head coaches to win the NE10 Championship in 2017.

Isabel Sandstrom, Adelphi (Fr, GK - Skummeslösstrand, Sweden)
In her first two college starts, Sandstrom went 2-0 on the week for #15 Adelphi. In her first college start, the freshman posted a shutout in a 2-0 win over Mercy, making three saves, and also made four saves in a 6-1 win over Merrimack in 70 minutes.

Jennifer Hackett, American International (So, F - Ludlow, Mass.)
Hackett had a brilliant game for the Yellow Jackets against Bentley to open conference play. She set up the opening tally of the match in the early going, then had the decisive serve in on a corner with under 40 seconds to play in double overtime that assisted the winning goal.

Casey Cook, Franklin Pierce (Sr., GK - Beverly, Mass.)
Cook stopped all five shots on her goal to post a shutout in a 0-0 draw at New Haven on Saturday night.

Marisa Pacapelli, New Haven (Jr, M - West Haven, Conn.)
Pacapelli finished a 3-0 week with her first two collegiate goals, which came on her only two shot attempts of the week. She registered her first collegiate goal in the opening game of the week, a 2-1 victory over Queens. Her first goal for the Blue and Gold came against the Knights, coached by her older sister, Nicole. Followed up that game with the game-winning tally in a 1-0 shutout of NYIT.

Kyra Wolonsavich, New Haven (Jr, GK - Beverly, Mass.)
Wolonsavich remained unbeaten on the season with three wins last week, including a pair of shutouts, now with three on the season. Overall, she allowed just one goal in 300 minutes of action and collected eight total saves.

Hayley Pascoal, Pace (Sr, GK - Freehold, N.J.)
Pascoal made six saves in more than 132 minutes of scoreless action in shutout wins over Georgian Court and Assumption. The senior keeper has still yet to allow a goal this season in more than 222 minutes in net.

Emma Sinanan, Pace (Sr, MF - Toms River, N.J.)
Sinanan tallied both of the Setters’ goals in a 2-0 triumph over Assumption on Saturday. The junior midfielder redirected a pair of crosses for her second and third tallies of the season. She was also a key component defensively for a pair of Pace shutouts.

Corey Murray, Saint Anselm (Jr., F - Scituate, Mass.)
Murray had a career-high five points on two goals and one assist for Saint Anselm in a 5-0 win over Nyack on Tuesday. The junior scored a goal in each half in addition to a first-half assist for the Hawks.

Juliana Santos, Southern Connecticut (Jr. - Newington, Conn.)
Santos recorded her first collegiate point and the game-winning goal to lift the Owls past Saint Michael’s 2-1.

Courtney Benson, Southern New Hampshire (Sr., M - Hopkinton, N.H.)
Benson put together a four-point performance during a 2-0 week for the Penmen. All of her damage came Wednesday in a 3-0 win against Post when she scored a goal and assisted on two more, including the game winner late in the 10th minute.

Abigail Maker, Southern New Hampshire (Sr., F - Naples, Maine)
Maker registered a four-point week as Southern New Hampshire went 2-0. She scored a pair of goals in SNHU’s 3-1 win at Le Moyne in its conference opener, knotting the game, 1-1, in the 52nd minute and then scoring the eventual game winner midway through the 69th.
