ICE HOCKEY

Week 1 – October 31, 2016

Northeast-10 Conference Player of the Week

Brian Farrell, Assumption

(Jr., F - Island Park, N.Y.)

Farrell scored four goals as the Hounds went 1-1 in their first weekend of the season. In the first game of the season against Suffolk, Farrell netted his first-career hat trick. His scoring continued into a 4-2 win over Becker when he scored the second goal of the game to keep the offensive momentum rolling.

Northeast-10 Conference Goaltender of the Week

Tom McGuckin, Franklin Pierce

(Jr., G - Clayton, N.J.)

McGuckin stopped all 13 shots he faced on Sunday against Post to notch his third career shutout in a 3-0 Ravens win.

Northeast-10 Conference Rookie of the Week

Cameron Wright, Stonehill

(Fr., F - West Dummerston, Vt.)

Wright assisted Stonehill to a 1-0-1 start in its two-game weekend against Lebanon Valley. He tallied the game-winner in the third period of the first contest, putting the Skyhawks on top for a 3-2 victory.

AROUND THE NE-10

- Saint Anselm was tabbed as the preseason favorite in the NE-10 Preseason Coaches’ Poll last week.
- Franklin Pierce and Southern New Hampshire opened their seasons at 1-0, while Stonehill went 1-0-1, Assumption went 1-1 and Saint Michael’s went 0-1.
- The Penmen and Ravens will kick off the NE-10 schedule on Friday, Nov. 4.
Taylor Fletcher, Franklin Pierce (Sr., Leominster, Mass.) - Fletcher tallied a goal and an assist (on the game-winning goal) on Sunday evening in a 3-0 win over Post.

Eric Salzillo, Saint Michael’s (Jr., Johnston, R.I.) - Salzillo went 11-for-18 (61.1%) on faceoffs while scoring his team’s lone goal in the Purple Knights’ season-opening 4-1 loss at SUNY Potsdam on Friday. Salzillo tallied the first goal of the game 15:29 into the first period.

Matt McLelland, Southern New Hampshire (Jr., Reading, Mass.) - McLelland notched a goal and an assist to help Southern New Hampshire open its 2016-17 campaign with a 5-2 win over Fitchburg State last Friday. He deposited his first of the year with a blue line blast to the top corner before assisting the Penmen’s final goal of the evening.

Griffin Rogers, Southern New Hampshire (Jr., Sanbornton, N.H.) - Rogers tallied a goal and an assist on last Friday, as Southern New Hampshire opened its season with a 5-2 win over Fitchburg State. He buried a shorthanded goal to put the Penmen up 2-0 in the first before adding an assist late in the second to put the game out of reach.

Ryan Slatky, Southern New Hampshire (Jr., Manchester, N.H.) - Slatky backstopped Southern New Hampshire to a season opening win over Fitchburg State last Friday. The junior netminder registered 40 saves in a 5-2 win over the Falcons, including 31 over the final two periods of play to preserve the lead and the victory.

Connor Collier, Stonehill (So., Madison, N.J.) - Collier assisted Stonehill in a 1-0-1 start to the season against Lebanon Valley as he tallied the first two goals of his career. In the first game, he notched the Skyhawks’ first power play goal of the season, which knotted up the game at 2-2. Collier then scored the first goal of the second game, once again tying the game, but this time at 1-1.
