Amherst College prepares students to use ideas to make a difference in the world. Since its 1821 founding in Western Massachusetts, Amherst has demonstrated steadfast confidence in the value of the liberal arts and the importance of critical thinking. Today, its financial aid program is among the most substantial in the nation, and its student body is among the most diverse. Small classes, an open curriculum and a singular focus on undergraduate education ensure that leading scholars engage daily with talented, curious students, equipping them for leadership in an increasingly global and complex world.

AMHERST ATHLETICS
Amherst College has the oldest athletics program in the nation, dating back to a compulsory physical fitness regimen that was put in place for all students in 1860. Today, over a third of the student body participates in varsity sports and eighty percent are involved in intramural and club sports teams.

With 27 intercollegiate athletic teams, Amherst College student-athletes have successfully blended academics and athletics for decades. In addition to capturing 13 NCAA Division III team championships - including 11 in the past 11 years - and 78 NCAA individual titles, Amherst student-athletes have also excelled in the classroom - earning 37 prestigious CoSIDA Academic All-America selections, including 23 selections since 2008.
EMILY YOUNG
Lake Forest, Ill.

“Emily is a strong player, reliable teammate, and encourager. Emily always has a positive outlook demonstrating she is a true team player. Throughout her three years of playing for the team, she has made a mark on the program. She has been a consistent player in our starting five all three years. All teams need consistency and a very consistent player; Emily has been this for us. Not only is she a consistent player, but she is an incredible leader. She looks out for each player on the team and is willing to lend a helping hand. I am looking forward to seeing what she can do senior year on and off the golf course. She has grown so much and will continue to do so. Any team is lucky to have a player like Emily, and I am glad she chose Amherst College as her home.”

MORGAN YUROSEK
Irvine, California

“Morgan is a top player and contributor to the Amherst Women’s Golf Program. During her first year, she won her first college tournament at Nehoiden Golf Club hosted by Wellesley College designating her as the Most Valuable Player. From there, she has continued to be in contention in every tournament she competes in. Due to these accomplishments, she was named 2016 NESCAC Rookie of the Year and ALL-NESCAC First Team in 2017 and 2018. Morgan is someone who is driven, and responsible, with great leadership skills. Morgan is always reliable when it comes to getting tasks done and encouraging others to follow. I have relied on her on many occasions and have found that no task is too large for her to complete. She has handled each task with steadfastness and poise. Morgan means a lot to our program, and I am thankful I have gotten an opportunity to coach her throughout her collegiate career. I am looking forward to watching her compete this year throughout her final year at Amherst. She has the ability to make a long lasting impact on the program both on and off the golf course.”

Head Coach
Elizabeth Davis, hired in the summer of 2016, enters her fourth season as the head coach of the Amherst College women’s golf team in 2019-20.
A 2015 graduate of the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor (UMHB) with a Master’s in Sports Administration, Davis brings a wealth of enthusiasm and playing experience to the Pioneer Valley.
A native of Houston, Texas, Davis was a standout on the UMHB women’s golf team since the 2012-13 season, and was a member of the 2013 NCAA Division III national team champion squad. In 2014, the Crusaders finished as the national team runners-up.
Davis, who helped drive UMHB to the American Southwest Conference (ASC) championship in 2013, earned First Team All-ASC honors in 2014 and 2015, and was a Second Team All-ASC selection in 2013. Named the team’s most valuable player in 2014, Davis was also awarded ASC All-Academic in 2014, 2015 and 2016, in addition to achieving ASC Distinguished Scholar award in 2015.
Most recently, Davis finished in a four-way tie for 35th place in the 2016 NCAA Division III Championship after carding a three-round total of 237 (78-80-79) in the rain-shortened four-day event. Davis finished her career as a two-time all-region honoree, and recorded five rounds of par-or-better - highlighted by a low-round of 71 twice during her senior campaign.
