NE10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Kacie Smith - Stonehill
Senior, F - Norwood, Mass.

Netted four goals in a 2-0 week for the No. 5-ranked Skyhawks. Her eight points give her 225 for her career, breaking the program and NE10 career scoring records during her two-goal outing at Saint Anselm on Wednesday night. She scored both Stonehill goals in the 2-1 comeback win in double-overtime, netting the tying goals with 4:54 remaining in regulation and then potted the winner with 1:13 remaining in the second overtime. Smith added two more goals in the Skyhawks 6-1 win at New Haven.

NE10 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Delaney Yule - Merrimack
Senior, B - Southbury, Conn.

Yule delivered the primary assist on Merrimack’s game-tying goal at Assumption, and scored the Warriors’ equalizer against Southern Connecticut to contribute to a 2-0 week for the Warriors. The starting center back increased her season-long point streak to three games, and totaled the second most points last week for Merrimack with three.

NE10 GOALKEEPER OF THE WEEK

Katharina Ohmen - Merrimack
Junior, GK - Bremen, Germany

Ohmen registered another two victories for the Warriors, relenting just one goal in each contest last week for Merrimack. Ohmen began with a season-best 11 saves against Assumption, leading to a 2-1 triumph over the Greyhounds. She followed that up with three saves against Southern Connecticut, totaling 14 in the two matches to go along with a 0.91 goals-against average and a .875 save percentage.

NE10 ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Olivia Cameron - Stonehill
Freshman, F - Wakefield, Mass.

Matched her season-high with two goals and an assist for five points in the No. 5-ranked Skyhawks 6-1 win at New Haven.

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 8

Jackie Brown, Adelphi (So, M - Port Jefferson, N.Y.)
Brown scored two goals this week in Adelphi’s conference victory over Bentley University on Wednesday evening, 2-1. She scored off a penalty stroke, and later netted the game winner in the final 10 minutes.

Leah Savage, Adelphi (Fr, GK - Skowhegan, Maine)
Savage started every game in goal for the Panthers this week, tallying 15 saves over two games. Savage made the game winning save against Bentley University on Wednesday following a penalty corner with no time left on the clock. On Saturday against Assumption, the freshman keeper tallied eight saves.

Sarah Bodzinski, Assumption (Sr, GK - Southwick, Mass.)
Bodzinski was a crucial part of Assumption’s win over Adelphi this Saturday, where she earned the shutout win with ten saves and fended off five consecutive Adelphi corners when the time was expired. Bodzinski has a save percentage of .818 in her senior season and earned her 15th career shutout with this victory.

Allison Collins, Franklin Pierce (Jr, M - Sandown, N.H.)
Tallied three points, on one goal and one assist, in a 1-1 week for the Ravens. Scored the only goal in a 1-0 win at home over Saint Michael’s on Tuesday. Dished out an assist in a losing effort at LIU Post on Friday. Attempted four shots on the week, including three on goal.

Sammy Bell, LIU Post (So, - Milngavie, Glasgow, United Kingdom)
Bell scored five goals in the Pioneers two wins this week. She had the first hat-trick of her career against Franklin Pierce on Oct. 18.

Rachel Vellis, LIU Post (So, GK - Wayne, N.J.)
Vellis helped the Pioneers earn a 2-0 record on the week. She recorded 10 saves on the week including a shutout against New Haven on Oct. 17.

Jessica Palmer, Merrimack (Jr, M - Milford, Mass.)
Palmer led Merrimack in goals (2) and points (4), helping the Warriors to a 2-0 week with wins over Assumption and Southern Connecticut. Both of Palmer’s tallies came against the Owls, and both goals came in the second half including the game-winning goal. It marked the second multi-goal effort of the year and second of her career. She now ranks second on the team with six goals and 14 points.

Mia Lennon, Pace (So, D - Yorktown Heights, N.Y.)
Lennon piloted a Setters’ defense that allowed just two goals in a pair of victories last week. She also helped out on the attack, registering her fourth goal of the season in Pace’s 3-1 triumph over Southern Connecticut State.

Paige Predmore, Pace (Sr, MF - Harrisburg, Pa.)
Predmore was an offensive force for the fourth-ranked Setters last week, tallying two goals and two assists in a pair of victories. The Pennsylvania native began the stretch by assisting on Pace’s first goal in a 3-1, mid-week triumph over Southern Connecticut State. She then put together the best offensive game of her career courtesy of two goals and an assist in the Setters’ 3-1 win at Saint Michael’s on Saturday.

Kaelleigh Lord, Saint Anselm (Jr, B - Keene, N.H.)
Lord posted two defensive saves against nationally-ranked Stonehill - one of her defensive saves helped the Hawks go the other way and score the game’s first goal against the Skyhawks.

Hannah Potter, Saint Anselm (So., F - Harwichport, Mass.)
Sophomore Hannah Potter (Harwichport, Mass.) scored her first collegiate hat trick for the Saint Anselm College field hockey team in Saturday’s 5-0 victory over American International College.

Cassidy Huckins, Southern N.H. (RS-Jr., F - Loudon, N.H.)
Huckins registered eight points on three goals and two assists in an unbeaten week for Southern New Hampshire. Huckins opened the week with a career-high six-point performance in a 5-0 win over American International with two goals and two assists before closing things out with a goal in a 2-1 triumph over Bentley. In total, the redshirt-junior had a hand in five of SNHU’s seven goals.

Melanie Rennie, Southern N.H. (Sr, GK - Madison, Conn.)
Led Southern New Hampshire to a pair of NE10 victories last week, as she stopped four of the five shots she faced. Rennie stopped the lone shot she faced in a 5-0 blanking of American International before steering aside three shots in a 2-1 win over Bentley.
