NE10 MEN’S ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Leakey Kipkosgei, AIC
Senior, Kapsabet, Kenya

The defending NE10 Athlete of the Year, Kipkosgei won the 8K at the season-opening Adelphi Invitational on Friday. It is the second straight year he has won the event. His time of 24:43.1 was nearly 39 seconds faster than the second-place finisher. Kipkosgei also guided his team to their second straight team title at the Adelphi Invitational.

NE10 MEN’S ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Sean Engelfried, Pace
Freshman, Millersville, Md.

Engelfried led the Pace harriers at the season-opening Adelphi Invitational last week, shattering the school record in the 8K in the process. The rookie Setter placed 16th out of more than 100 runners, crossing the finish line in 26:58.7.

NE10 WOMEN’S ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Christine Myers, Saint Rose
Junior, Guilderland, N.Y.

Myers won the 5k at Saturday’s Saint Rose Invitational. The junior completed the Crossings of Colonie course in 18.42 to get the win by more than 80 seconds.

NE10 WOMEN’S ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Grace Henson, SNHU
Freshman, Cumberland, R.I.

Henson finished fourth overall in 19:56 at the Shacklette Invitational at Saint Anselm on Saturday. She helped lead the Penmen women’s team to a season-opening second place finish overall.

FOLLOW US

/THeNortheast10
/THeNortheast10
/THeNortheast10
Sunday, November 4
Hopkinton State Fairgrounds
Host: Franklin Pierce

Host: Franklin Pierce

NCAA Championship - Saturday, Dec. 1
Host: Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

NE10 HONOR ROLL - WEEK 1

MEN
Patric Clark, AIC
(Gr., Nottingham, United Kingdom)
Clark finished third overall in the men’s 8K at the Adelphi Invitational on Friday, running a time of 26:08.30 and improving 25 places from his finish at the meet a year ago. He also helped AIC win its second consecutive team title at the meet.

Cody Murphy, Bentley
(Sr., Dunbarton, N.H.)
Murphy opened his senior year by finished fourth overall, behind a trio of Southern New Hampshire runners, in the Shacklette Invitational with a time of 27:16 for 8,000 meters.

Riley Fenoff, Franklin Pierce
(Fr., Danville, Vt.)
Fenoff finished 12th on Friday afternoon at the Mount St. Mary’s 5k Duals, with a time of 16:08.45.

Chris Davitt, Le Moyne
(Jr., Delmar, N.Y.)
Davitt won the 6.2-kilometer Frank Dillon Memorial Invitational on Saturday with a time of 21:25.8 to finish first by over 32 seconds.

James Bull, Merrimack
(Fr., Walnut Creek, Calif.)
Bull had quite the debut as a Warrior at Saturday’s Shacklette Invitational. He led not only Merrimack despite his rookie status with a time of 27:23; he also was the race’s fastest freshman, a good indicator of what’s to come. He finished in fifth place overall at the event.

Micah Hewitson, SNHU
(So., New Market, Md.)
SNHU won its first ever Shacklette Invitational on 9/1 at Saint Anselm. Hewitson finished in a tie (27:13) with teammate Cedric Jocelyn, which was broken in Jocelyn’s favor with a video review. Top finish for Hewitson at SNHU.

Cedric Jocelyn, SNHU
(So., Nyack, N.Y.)
Jocelyn won the Shacklette Invitational at Saint Anselm on 9/1. Needed a video review to separate him from teammate Micah Hewitson as they hit the finish line together. SNHU won its first ever Shacklette.

WOMEN
Amanda Ashe, Adelphi
(Gr., East Meadow, N.Y.)
At the Panther XC Invitational hosted by Adelphi, Ashe was a top D2 finisher at the meet, placing fourth overall with a time of 19:01.00. This breaks the Adelphi record for the 5K.

Ivy Chepyegon, AIC
(Sr., Kabarnet, Kenya)
Chepyegon placed 10th at the Adelphi Invitational on Friday, clocking in at 19:28.4 on the 5K course. She helped guide the Yellow Jackets to a fourth-place team finish.

Brittney Mack, Le Moyne
(Sr., Poestenkill, N.Y.)
Mack won the 4.2-kilometer Frank Dillon Memorial Invitational on Saturday with a time of 16:29.2 to finish first by over seven seconds.

Katherine Ferrara, Merrimack
(Jr., Norfolk, Mass.)
Ferrara made noise right off the bat by winning Saturday’s Shacklette Invitational hosted by Saint Anselm. She won the event by nearly 20 seconds, winning her first collegiate race in 19:26 thanks to a 6:16 average split. She was the first Merrimack runner to win the event since Chandler Ortega in 2011.

Maura Coakley, SNHU
(So., Yorktown Heights, N.Y.)
Coakley ran to a second place finish in the Shacklette Invitation at Saint Anselm on 9/1. That was her top finish at SNHU.

AROUND THE NE10

• The 2018 NE10 Cross Country Championships will be held on Sunday, November 4 and will be hosted by Franklin Pierce at the Hopkinton State Fairgrounds