CACC Spectator Code of Conduct

The Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference (CACC) is committed to creating and promoting sportsmanship and ensuring healthy environments for competition. The CACC and member institutions unanimously agree that sportsmanship and ethical conduct are of paramount importance in intercollegiate athletics. All student-athletes, coaches, administrators and spectators are expected to exhibit responsible conduct.

RESPECT... It's the name of the game.

Spectator Expectations:

• Act appropriately; do not taunt or disturb other fans; enjoy the game together.
• Cheer in a positive manner and encourage fair play; profanity and objectionable cheers or gestures are offensive.
• Help provide a safe and fun environment; throwing any items on the playing surface can cause injury to players and officials.
• Respect all players, referees and coaches by trusting their judgment and integrity.
• Be responsible for your own safety – be alert to prevent accidents.
• Respect locker rooms and all team related areas as private areas designated for players, coaches and officials.
• Be supportive after the game – win or lose. Recognize good effort, teamwork and sportsmanship.
• Be respectful on social media before, during, and after the game.
• Do not call out specific names or numbers of student-athletes and/or coaches on the opposing team.
• Be respectful of the opponent’s spectators.
• Alcoholic beverages are prohibited at all contest
• Noisemakers are prohibited at all contest.

(Violators of this Code are subject to eviction from the site.)