- ALEXANDRA PENNINGTON, FIELD HOCKEY, JUNIOR, EASTON, PA.
IT’S THAT TIME OF YEAR AGAIN, WHEN I AM FORTUNATE ENOUGH TO TAKE A MOMENT TO POINT OUT SOME OF THE BRIGHTEST MOMENTS OF THIS PREVIOUS ACADEMIC YEAR.

Ohio coaches, staff and administrators continually work to develop the student-athlete as a person, student, and athlete. Bobcat student-athletes continue to impress us in the classroom, in the community, and on the field of competition.

This booklet provides a platform for each department and team to reflect on the 2017-18 season as we head into the summer months.

Our success is a team effort. It requires the collective efforts of student-athletes, coaches, staff, university administration, donors, and fans.

Thank you for your continued support of Ohio Athletics and for helping us to make a positive and meaningful difference in the lives of over 400 student-athletes.

We look forward to creating more memories with you and celebrating even more successes in the upcoming season.

GO BOBCATS

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

BASEBALL

- The Ohio baseball team’s 2018 non-conference schedule was highlighted by a four-game road winning streak in which the Bobcats swept Towson in a weekend series, then bashed its way to a midweek win at High Point. Ohio posted wins of 5-2 (March 9), 10-9 (March 10) and 9-8 (March 11). In the 11-7 victory at High Point on March 14, the Bobcats batted a season-high five home runs – including two off the bat of senior third baseman Tony Giannini.

- The 2018 Mid-American Conference slate saw Ohio win a road weekend series over rival Kent State at Olga A. Mural Field at Schoonover Stadium in late April. The Bobcats took a series from the Golden Flashes, producing a 5-3 triumph in 12 innings on April 21, then recording a 6-4 win at Kent for the second time in the last four years. Dating back to the 2015 season, Ohio has now won eight of their last 10 games against the Golden Flashes.

Both garnered MAC weekly conference honors for the first times in their careers. Salisbury enjoyed the best outing of his Ohio career in game one of a Saturday (March 31) doubleheader against Northern Illinois, striking out a career-high 11 while giving up just one unearned run on four hits and no walks over seven strong innings to set the tone for a 6-1 victory for the Bobcats. Levy put his power on display for Ohio, smashing a team-high three home runs and slugging a team-best .889. He also drove in a team-high eight runs, tied for second on the team with seven hits and ranked third in conference play.

MEN’S BASKETBALL

• Ohio won seven of its 12 non-conference games in 2017-18, with the highlight being a 96-94 quadruple overtime thriller over Indiana State in the seventh-place game of the 2017 Gildan Charleston Classic at TD Arena in Charleston, S.C., on Nov. 19. The Bobcats played their first four-overtime contest since Dec. 18, 2010, and prevailed in quadruple overtime for the first time since a 112-104 win over Mid-American Conference rival Akron on Jan. 8, 2003. Ohio’s rally from 18 down represented the program’s largest comeback win of fourth-quarter head coach Saul Phillips’ tenure. The contest marked Phillips’ 100th game as the Bobcats’ bench boss.

• The Bobcats’ Mid-American Conference slate was highlighted by a 99-87 victory over East Division rival Akron on Feb. 6 at the Convocation Center, a contest in which Junior guard Jordan Dartis (Newark, Ohio) exploded for a career-high 38 points behind 10 three-pointers. As a team, the Bobcats drained 16 treys in the victory – the fifth-most in a game in program history. Dartis’ 10 made three-pointers marked the most by a Bobcat since former Ohio guard Javarez Willis drilled 10 in a 95-65 victory over archrival Miami on March 6, 2015 and tied him with Willis for the third-most three-pointers made in a game in program history.

• Dartis became the 39th play in Ohio history to eclipse the 1,000-career points milestone on Feb. 10 at Western Michigan. He finished the contest with 13 points. That performance, coupled with his 38-point outburst against Akron, landed him MAC East Division Player of the Week honors on Feb. 12, marking the first time in his career he garnered conference player of the week recognition.

• MAC play also saw Ohio record back-to-back wins over East Division rivals Miami (Feb. 19, 92-87 overtime) and Kent State (Feb. 20, 88-76). Phillips earned career coaching win No. 200 for his career when the Bobcats bested MAC East Division rival Bowling Green, 75-59, on Senior Night on Feb. 27 at the Convo.

• Ohio continued its tradition of prolific three-point shooting under Phillips. The Bobcats’ 240 three-point field goals made represented the eighth-most in a single season in program history while its 638 three-point field goal attempted rank as the 10th-most in a single season in program history.

• Dartis and sophomore forward Jason Carter were named to the 2017-18 Preseason All-MAC East Division Team. Unfortunately, Carter was limited to just three games in 2017-18 due to a lower leg injury.

• Dartis earned All-MAC Honorable Mention at the conclusion of the season. He will enter his senior campaign at Ohio with 1,086 career points (33rd-most in program history). He is one of eight players in program history to sink at least 200 career three-pointers with 231, which ranks as the fifth-most in the history of the program.

• Guard Teyvion Kirk earned a spot on the 2017-18 MAC All-Freshman Team, giving the Bobcats three-straight All-MAC Freshman Team selections under Phillips following Dartis in 2015-16 and Carter in 2016-17. Starting at point guard in all 31 contests for Ohio, he averaged 15.3 points per game to lead the team and rank 12th among MAC players. He became the first Ohio freshman to average double figures in points since guard D.J. Cooper averaged 13.5 per contest in his rookie campaign of 2009-10. His 1.4 steals per game also led the team and ranked eighth in the MAC. Kirk led Ohio in MAC play with 16.1 points per contest, which ranked ninth in the conference and tops among the league’s freshmen. He also averaged 1.5 steals per game in MAC play, which ranked seventh in the conference.

• Junior forward Doug Taylor led the MAC with 2.0 blocks per game while his 67 blocks tied for the ninth-most in a single season in program history. He also shot 54.3 percent from the field, which ranked as the third-best field goal percentage in the MAC and fifth-best in a single season in the history of the program.
Redshirt sophomore guard James Gollon represented Ohio on the 2017-18 Academic All-MAC Team.

Following the 2017-18 season, senior guard Mike Laster was selected to participate in the inaugural Dos Equis 3X3U National Championship. The ground-breaking new event pitted 32 four-man teams consisting of players from every Division I college basketball conference against each other in a three day, 3-on-3 tournament. Laster put together a career year as a senior in 2017-18, averaging a career-high 14.5 points to rank second on the team and shot a career-best 47.7 percent (164-of-344) from the field to rank third on the squad. With the new eight-year deal that covers all varsity sports, the Portland, Oregon-based company became the official athletic footwear, apparel, accessory and equipment brand of the Bobcats through the 2024-25 athletic season. Ohio’s already strong national brand helped create a high level of interest from several apparel companies and led to a competitive RFP selection process.

“Ohio University Bobcat Athletics provides a tremendous national visibility for our university. We celebrate our student-athletes and their successes both on the field and in the classroom. I am proud of their passion and the pride they bring to Ohio University.”

DR. M. DUANE NELLIS, OHIO UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

“As valuable as intercollegiate athletics participation is for student-athletes, it is also an integral part of our vibrant campus community. Whether it’s connecting Bobcats from across the decades on a beautiful Fall homecoming weekend, cheering on Softball during their 2018 NCAA Regional run, or celebrating the individual accomplishments of student-athletes on and off the field of play - OHIO Athletics makes OHIO University and Athens a better place to live, work, and play for all of us.”

- DR. HEATHER LAWRENCE-BENEDICT, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR; ASSOCIATE DEAN OF GRADUATE PROGRAMS; ROBERT H. FREEMAN PROFESSOR IN BUSINESS

“As we enjoy the events at Peden Stadium, the Convocation Center, Bob Wren Stadium, Pruitt Field and other fine venues on the Ohio University campus, we often overlook all the effort that goes on behind the scenes. The many functions that support our athletic activities provide valuable experiences for many students who are not athletes. Sports Management and Sports Administration, Athletic Training, Physical Therapy, Accounting and Finance students, to name a few, are able to apply what they learn in the classroom to real life situations. This practical experience is often a key to students securing jobs before graduation. Intercollegiate athletics reaches far beyond the field, the court and the pitch.”
