NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE WOMEN’S TENNIS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Grace Messina, Merrimack
(Sr., Caracas, Venezuela)

Messina went 6-0 on the week, winning all of her top flight doubles and singles matches, as the Warriors opened the season by winning all three of their NE-10 contests. She has now won 39 consecutive NE-10 regular-season singles matches and did not drop a set during the season’s opening week.

NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE WOMEN’S TENNIS ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Alexandra Vo, Stonehill
(Fr., Washington Crossing, Pa.)

Vo posted a combined 4-0 record in singles and doubles play in a 2-0 week for the Skyhawks in their first two NE-10 matches. She won both of her matches at No. 2 singles against Bentley and Saint Michael’s on Friday and Saturday, respectively, while recording a pair of doubles wins with two different playing partners.

AROUND THE NE-10

- It was the opening week of conference play for all 13 NE-10 teams last week, as Merrimack, Stonehill and Le Moyne each escaped unbeaten.
- Defending league champion Adelphi was pegged as the top team in the NE-10 Women’s Tennis Preseason Coaches’ Poll last month.
