Around the NE-10

Six NE-10 men’s golf teams competed at the Saint Rose Fall Shootout over the weekend. NE-10 Champion Le Moyne won the tournament with a 308-301-609. Saint Rose, Bentley, Franklin Pierce, Saint Anselm and Saint Michael’s also partook in the event.

What to watch this week: Post Eagles Invitational and Le Moyne Fall Invitational.

Le Moyne won the 2016 NE-10 Men’s Golf Championship last week, its second league title and first since 2008, finishing with a 586 team score. Saint Rose’s Corey Purcell took medalist honors with a 140 (-4).

Merrimack won its third straight NE-10 Women’s Golf Championship last month, setting a new tournament record with a 315-310-625. Alessandra Ricigliano repeated as medalist with a tournament-record score of 75-71-146.
AJ Cooney, Assumption (Sr., North Branford, Conn.) - Cooney placed seventh overall this past weekend at the Worcester City Championships, shooting a 5-over 77 to lead the Hounds in the event. Cooney had a pair of birdies and nine pars in the event.

Cal Meyers, Bentley (Jr., Richfield, Wis.) - At the Saint Rose Fall Shootout, Meyers tied for third place, finishing a stroke back of the co-medalists with a 75-75-150.

Jonathan Petrin, Le Moyne (Fr., Cicero, N.Y.) - Petrin tied for third place at the Saint Rose Fall Shootout this past weekend. After shooting a 78 on the first day, he bounced back with a 72 over the final round to finish with a 150, one stroke behind the leaders.

Collin Grady, Saint Anselm (Fr., Acton, Mass.) - In only his second collegiate tournament, Grady posted the lowest scores of his young career at the Saint Rose Shootout this past weekend. He fired an opening round 76 and followed that up with a 75 in the second round to post a total score of 151 to come in a tie for eighth place.

Michael Pilkington, Saint Rose (So., Bethpage, N.Y.) - Pilkington shot a two-day total of eight-over-par 150 to finish tied for third among 53 entries at the Saint Rose Fall Shootout that was held Friday and Saturday at Pinehaven CC.
