NESCAC Notes

The Amherst and Williams men’s teams earned automatic berths to the NCAA Division III Cross Country Championship after finishing as the top two teams, respectively, at the NCAA New England Regional. The Mammoths and Ephs will be joined in Wisconsin by Bates, Middlebury, and Tufts who were all awarded at-large bids to the national event. The Panthers placed third, followed by the Jumbos, in fifth, and the sixth-place Bobcats. Williams is making its 27th appearance in the NCAA Division III Championship, while Tufts is making its 15th appearance. Amherst, the 2018 NESCAC Champion, and Middlebury are both in the field for the ninth time, while Bates is in the event for the sixth time. Individuals selected to compete in this year’s national championship include Sean MacDonald of Bowdoin, the Connecticut College trio of Scott Mason, Danny Aschale, and Price Day, and Eli Decker of Colby.

Recent Results

Saturday, November 10
Amherst at the NCAA New England Regional - 1st of 58, 65 pts.
Bates at the NCAA New England Regional - 6th of 58, 161 pts.
Bowdoin hosted the NCAA New England Regional - 7th of 58, 193 pts.
Connecticut College at the NCAA New England Regional - 8th of 58, 236 pts.
Colby at the NCAA New England Regional - 9th of 58, 246 pts.
Hamilton at the NCAA Atlantic Regional - 14th of 45, 378 pts.
Middlebury at the NCAA New England Regional - 3rd of 58, 142 pts.
Trinity at the NCAA New England Regional - 12th of 58, 373 pts.
Tufts at the NCAA New England Regional - 5th of 58, 160 pts.
Wesleyan at the NCAA New England Regional - 17th of 58, 538 pts.
Williams at the NCAA New England Regional - 2nd of 58, 86 pts.

Upcoming Races

Saturday, November 17 - Winneconne, Wis.
Amherst at the NCAA Division III Championships - 1:15 p.m.
Bates at the NCAA Division III Championships - 1:15 p.m.
Middlebury at the NCAA Division III Championships - 1:15 p.m.
Tufts at the NCAA Division III Championships - 1:15 p.m.
Williams at the NCAA Division III Championships - 1:15 p.m.

NESCAC Notes

After finishing second in the NCAA New England Regional, Middlebury earned an automatic berth to the NCAA Division III Cross Country Championship. Bates, Tufts, and Williams are also in the field after earning at-large bids. The Ephs took third at the regional event, followed by the Jumbos in fifth and the Bobcats in sixth. Middlebury, the 2018 NESCAC Champion, owns six NCAA titles, most recently winning in 2010, and is making its 24th NCAA appearance. Williams is making its 27th overall appearance in the national championship, having won the title three times, most recently in 2015. Tufts is in the field for the 10th time, while Bates will make its fifth appearance in the event. Individuals who have been invited to compete in the women’s championship include Julia O’Rourke and Delaney Bullock of Bowdoin, 2018 NESCAC Champion Sophia Gorman and teammate Helen Chavey of Colby, and Grace Heller of Hamilton.

Recent Results

Saturday, November 10
Amherst at the NCAA New England Regional - 13th of 57, 366 pts.
Bates at the NCAA New England Regional - 6th of 57, 187 pts.
Bowdoin hosted the NCAA New England Regional - 9th of 57, 300 pts.
Connecticut College at the NCAA New England Regional - 14th of 57, 394 pts.
Colby at the NCAA New England Regional - 7th of 58, 191 pts.
Hamilton at the NCAA Atlantic Regional - 8th of 44, 259 pts.
Middlebury at the NCAA New England Regional - 7th of 57, 191 pts.
Trinity at the NCAA New England Regional - 15th of 57, 413 pts.
Tufts at the NCAA New England Regional - 5th of 58, 159 pts.
Wesleyan at the NCAA New England Regional - 11th of 57, 340 pts.
Williams at the NCAA New England Regional - 3rd of 57, 115 pts.

Upcoming Races

Saturday, November 17 - Winneconne, Wis.
Bates at the NCAA Division III Championships - 12:15 p.m.
Middlebury at the NCAA Division III Championships - 12:15 p.m.
Tufts at the NCAA Division III Championships - 12:15 p.m.
Williams at the NCAA Division III Championships - 12:15 p.m.