AROUND THE NE10

- The 2017 NE10 Ice Hockey Championship will begin with Semifinal Round play on February 24, with the Championship Final taking place on Saturday, March 3. All games will be hosted by the higher-seeded teams.

- Saint Anselm was narrowly picked ahead of Saint Michael’s by the league’s coaches to win the NE10 Ice Hockey Championship in 2017.
Cam Laughlin, Assumption (Sr., F - Natick, Mass.)
In Assumption’s 2-0 week, Laughlin played a major role in the offense. Against Saint Anselm, Laughlin tallied two goals, including the eventual game-winner, and an assist. He assisted on the first Hound goal to tie the game 1-1, and then in the third period he added back-to-back goals, one short handed, to extend the lead to 4-1.

David Zulauf, Assumption (So., G - Rochester, Mich.)
Zulauf made 67 saves in two conference wins to lead the Assumption defense this week. On Tuesday, the Hounds picked up a 5-2 win over Saint Anselm and Zulauf made 32 saves and held the Hawks scoreless on five power play opportunities. On Saturday, he made 35 saves against Saint Michael’s and also held the Purple Knights to no power play goals after six chances.

Colin Soucy, Saint Anselm (Jr., G - North Andover, Mass.)
Soucy went 1-0-1 with a 1.44 goals-against average and .949 save percentage for Saint Anselm this weekend. The junior recorded his first career shutout with a 26-save effort in a 7-0 NE10 victory over Franklin Pierce on Friday, before making a season-high 30 saves in a 3-3 tie at Southern Maine on Saturday.

Conor Cassidy, Stonehill (So., F - Wilmington, Del.)
Cassidy led the Skyhawks to a 1-1 week, including a 4-1 victory over Post University. The sophomore totaled four points over the week, scoring two goals and adding one assist against the Eagles and chipping in a goal in a 6-3 loss against UMass Dartmouth. The game against Post was Cassidy’s fourth career multi-point game and second career three-point game.
