Jeff Kidd, LIU Post
(Jr., QB, Salem, Ore.)

Kidd completed 29-of-45 passes for a game-high 381 yards and three touchdowns in a come-from-behind 41-40 season-opening win at East Stroudsburg. He threw the eventual game-winning touchdown pass, a 37-yard strike along the sideline to Shane Hubbard with 3:47 remaining.

Donovan Phanor, Stonehill
(So, DB, Portsmouth, R.I.)

Phanor registered a career-high seven tackles and was responsible for two turnovers, both of which led to points for the Skyhawks. His fumble recovery at the end of the first quarter led to a touchdown, while his interception later in the quarter led to a field goal in Stonehill’s 27-10 upset of #11/14 Bloomsburg.

Jamir Gee, Pace
(Sr, DB, Paterson, N.J.)

Gee scampered 48 yards for a TD on a punt return in the first quarter to give the Setters a 7-0 lead, scoring the program’s first points in the new Pace Stadium. Gee garnered 78 return yards on the game, helping Pace to a 36-23 win over Ave Marie.

Malik Pierre, LIU Post
(R-Fr., RB, Holbrook, N.Y.)

Rushed for a game-best 117 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown in a come-from-behind 41-40 season-opening win at East Stroudsburg. It was the most rushing yards in a season opener since 2010 and also the most for a Pioneer making his debut since 2005. Pierre’s 330 all-purpose yards are the most since Ian Smart collected 363 yards versus UMass Lowell in 2002.
Four Northeast-10 teams claimed victories during the opening week of action.

Defending NE-10 champion LIU Post opened up the season with a 41-40 comeback win at East Stroudsburg on Thursday night.

Pace opened up the new Pace Stadium in front of a sellout crowd with a 36-23 win over Ave Maria.

Stonehill knocked off nationally ranked Bloomsburg, 27-10, on the road.

Assumption also picked up a road victory over a PSAC opponent, taking down Kutztown, 41-37.

The NE-10 went 3-3 against PSAC teams over the weekend.
