Thomas Bellio, Stonehill
(So., Saint Joseph, Mich.)

Bellio won at #1 singles, 6-4, 6-3, and at #1 doubles, 8-3, in the Skyhawks’ only match of the week - an 8-1 win over Eastern Nazarine College.

Andrew Schadt, Franklin Pierce
(Fr., Tolland, Conn.)

Over five matches at third singles, Schadt turned in a 2-3 record, with wins against Onondaga CC and Western New England. He went 1-1 in two matches at first doubles and 2-1 in three matches at second doubles for a 3-2 doubles record on the week.

Nine NE-10 men’s tennis teams were in action last week, including a pair of conference matches.

Merrimack was picked to repeat as NE-10 Men’s Tennis Champions in the league’s coaches’ poll, which was unveiled on March 9.

With all but one team having played at least one conference match thus far, Adelphi sits at the top at 3-0, while Bentley and Merrimack are 2-0, and Southern New Hampshire and Stonehill are each 1-0.

NORTHEAST-10 CONFERENCE HONOR ROLL

Matteo Cannavera, Adelphi
(So., Quartu Sant’Elena, Italy)
Cannavera posted a 3-1 record in Adelphi’s 1-1 week at the top spot in both singles and doubles. In a 9-0 win vs. Saint Michael’s, he dropped just five games -- winning 6-2, 6-2 at No. 1 singles and partnering Uladzislau Litvinchuk to an 8-1 win at No. 1 doubles.

George Samander, Bentley
(So., Willemstad, Curacao)
Samander posted a 2-1 singles record and a 2-1 doubles record during Bentley’s spring break trip to Florida. In singles, he claimed a win in the No. 3 spot vs. St. Cloud State and a No. 2 win vs. St. Thomas Aquinas. His doubles wins both came in the No. 1 position against the same two teams.
