TONIGHT'S GAME

Yale has won three straight in the all-time series, coming over the last three seasons. The last two have come down-to-the-wire, with the Bulldogs winning 86-77 last season and 89-81 in overtime in 2016. Prior to 2015, the teams previously met in 2010, a 62-57 Lehigh victory on New Year's Eve. The two teams first met in 1903-04, a 20-14 Yale win. Yale won the first five meetings before Lehigh's first win on Jan. 9, 1993, 54-53.

LAST MEETING

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (12/6/17) - The Lehigh men's basketball team used a 30-6 first-half run to turn a 31-12 deficit into a 42-37 lead, but Yale responded and went on to close the game on an 11-2 run to beat the Mountain Hawks (4-5), 86-77 on Wednesday evening in Stabler Arena. Senior Kahirn Ross led the charge with 19 points and five assists to pull within one of tying Lehigh's career assist record. Freshman James Karnik and sophomore Jordan Cohen each added 14 points.

LAST TIME OUT

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (12/1/18) – Trailing 22-9 in the first half, the Lehigh men’s basketball team immediately answered with a 16-0 run, outscoring Arkansas State 3-2 over the final 11:14 of the first half to beat the Red Wolves, 82-70 on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 20 points, 16 coming in the first half, while junior Pat Andree scored 14 and senior Lance Tejada had 12 and a career-high tying six rebounds while Karnik scored nine. Ed Porter had four points and a career-high eight rebounds.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

With seven points, senior Kyle Leufroy would move into sole possession of 27th place in school history in career points. With 12 points, he would move to 26th.

STRONG WIN OVER SIENA (NOV. 21)
- Lehigh improved to 3-0 against the MAAC in 2018-19 with an 80-69 victory at Siena Wednesday, spoiling the Saints’ home opener. Siena actually jumped out to early leads of 12-5 and 16-10, but a 10-0 Lehigh run gave it a 20-16 advantage. The Saints responded to go up 27-22, but the Mountain Hawks took a 34-32 lead on a Jeameril Wilson three-pointer, and wouldn’t trail again, despite Siena often getting within striking distance.
- Senior Kyle Leufroy paced the offense with a career-high 25 points on 8-of-11 shooting. In the process, he moved from 33rd all the way to 30th in school history in career scoring (currently 1,071 points).
- No other Mountain Hawks had double-figure shot attempts Wednesday as Lehigh was efficient all evening. One game after posting its best field goal percentage defense against a Division I opponent in 10 years (vs. Princeton), Lehigh’s 58.0 shooting percentage vs. the Saints (29-of-50) was its best mark since shooting 59.2 percent on Feb. 4, 2017 at American.
- The Mountain Hawks’ 63.2 percentage from three (12-of-19) was tied for the best second-best percentage in the NCAA this season and was Lehigh’s best percentage since knocking down 66.7 percent (6-of-9) vs. Quinnipiac on Dec. 21, 2013. It was also the Mountain Hawks’ best percentage with double-figure makes since hitting 73.3 percent (11-of-15) on Dec. 5, 2007 vs. Stony Brook.
- Along with Leufroy’s 25 points, junior Jordan Cohen had 15 (on 5-of-8 shooting), sophomores Marques Wilson scored a season-high 12 (5-of-6) and Jeameril Wilson had a career-high 10 (4-of-6).
- Senior Pat Andree contributed eight (all in the second half), despite foul trouble while sophomore James Karnik was strong with six points and eight boards.
- Eight of the nine Mountain Hawks who played had at least one assist.
- Lehigh shot 68.0 percent in the first half (17-of-25) and 48.0 percent in the second (12-of-25) for the final 58.0 percentage. After allowing Siena to shoot 46.7 percent in the first (14-of-30), the Mountain Hawks held them to 35.3 percent in the second (12-of-34) to finish the game at 40.6 percent. The Saints also shot just 26.7 percent from three (8-of-30) and also over its previous two games (also vs. Princeton), Lehigh held its opponents to just 19.4 percent from three-point range (12-of-62).

3RD STRAIGHT W VS. PRINCETON (NOV. 16)
- The Mountain Hawks went on a big 31-7 run bridging the first and second halves to turn a 26-22 deficit into a 53-33 lead, on the way to beating Princeton for a third straight season.
- The Mountain Hawks are 3-0 over the last three seasons vs. Princeton after winning just four of the first 34 all-time meetings.
- Five Lehigh players scored double-digit points, led by the second-career double-double by freshman Nic Lynch. Lynch finished with 16 points and 10 boards, shooting 7-of-13 from the field. Senior Lance Tejada had 15 points and five assists, shooting 3-of-6 from three-point range while juniors Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen each had 12 points. Senior Kyle Leufroy recorded 10 points and nine rebounds as he and Andree (12 points, eight rebounds) almost joined Lynch with double-doubles.
- It marked the first time the Mountain Hawks scored double figures since last Feb. 21 at Loyola.
- For all the offensive prowess, the game was primarily about Lehigh’s D, which held Princeton to 66.4 percent from the floor, and from three, both came last Feb. 14 at Colgate when it shot 61.2 percent (18-of-29) and 40.0 percent (4-of-10), respectively.
- Five Lehigh players scored double-figure points, led by the second-career double-double by freshman Nic Lynch. Lynch finished with 16 points and 10 boards, shooting 7-of-13 from the field. Senior Lance Tejada had 15 points and five assists, shooting 3-of-6 from three-point range while juniors Pat Andree and Jordan Cohen each had 12 points. Senior Kyle Leufroy recorded 10 points and nine rebounds as he and Andree (12 points, eight rebounds) almost joined Lynch with double-doubles.
- It marked the first time five Mountain Hawks scored double figures since last Feb. 21 at Loyola.
- For all the offensive prowess, the game was primarily about Lehigh’s D, which held Princeton to 66.4 percent from the floor, and from three, both came last Feb. 14 at Colgate when it shot 61.2 percent (18-of-29) and 40.0 percent (4-of-10), respectively.
- That 28.3 percentage was the Mountain Hawks’ best field goal percentage defense since Jan. 8, 2013 vs. Muhlenberg (20.7 percent) and best against a Division I opponent since Dec. 31, 2008 against NJIT (22.0 percent).

LYNCH - PL ROOKIE OF WEEK (NOV. 12)
- After scoring double-figure points in each of his first two career games, including a double-double at an ACC opponent, freshman Nic Lynch was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week.
- Lynch averaged 26.0 points (10-of-16) and 8.0 rebounds in just 17.5 minutes for the week.
- At Mommouth, Lynch tallied 10 points and three rebounds in just nine minutes due to foul trouble. He shot 5-of-7 from the floor. Eight of those points came in the first 4:22 of the second half to help Lehigh turn a six-point halftime advantage into a 13-point lead at the under-16 media timeout. At Miami, Lynch had 10 points and 10 boards for his first-career double-double.

COMEBACK VS. MARIST (NOV. 13)
- Both teams were raining threes as Marist knocked down 15 of its first 24 while Lehigh finished 13-of-27. Despite the Red Foxes shooting treys at a 63 percent clip at one point, the Mountain Hawks hung within striking distance.
- When Marist missed its final five threes, Lehigh ended the game with nine straight points and 25 of the final 35, to win 78-72 and improve to 6-0 all-time against the Red Foxes.
- In the end, Marist was 15-of-29 from downtown, tied for the Stabler Arena record for most threes in a game (Lehigh or opponent). The Mountain Hawks’ 13 made treys were just two off the pace.
- Seniors Kyle Leufroy and Lance Tejada helped lead the charge, shooting a combined 8-of-16 from distance. Leufroy tallied 20 second-half points to finish the game with a career-high tying 23. He moved from

LEHIGH'S STELLAR SHOOTING

Lehigh’s shooting has been impressive, especially over the past several years. Last season, the Mountain Hawks shot 40.9 percent from three-point range, not far from the Patriot League record of 41.8 percent held by Holy Cross in 1990-91. Last season, Lehigh posted a streak of eight streak games with 10 or more made three-pointers (Jan. 17 to Feb. 10) and six straight shooting 50+ percent from distance (Jan. 27 to Feb. 14).

So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are shooting 43.4 percent from three, currently first in the Patriot League and ninth in the nation.

Three-Point Percentage

2017-18: 40.9 (9th)

2017-18 Season Highlights

- Lehigh defeated three reigning conference champions: Princeton, Mount St. Mary’s and Bucknell.
- Lehigh handed Bucknell its final loss of the regular season. Mountain Hawks were one of just two Patriot League teams to defeat the Bison.
- Lehigh was 4-3 against reigning conference finalists. Along with Princeton, Mount St. Mary’s and Bucknell, the Mountain Hawks also beat Siena.
- Lehigh’s four overtime victories and five overtime games marked its most since the 1986-87 season (when it also went 4-1).
- Lehigh posted a streak of eight streak games with 10 or more made three-pointers (Jan. 17 to Feb. 10) and six straight shooting 50+ percent from distance (Jan. 27 to Feb. 14). That six-game streak of 50+ percent from three was tops in the nation.
- Lehigh tied a Stabler Arena record for most threes in a game with 15 (on 26 attempts) vs. Holy Cross.
- Lance Tejada and Pat Andreu finished 1-2 in the Patriot League in three-point field goal percentage (45.3 and 42.9) (minimum 2.5 made threes/game). Tejada’s 45.3 percentage was just outside the top 10 in Patriot League single-season history (10th place is 46.8).
- The Mountain Hawks picked up double-figure Patriot League plays for a fourth straight season and sixth time in the last seven years.

- Lehigh earned a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for a fourth straight season and eighth time in the last nine years.
- Kahron Ross became Lehigh’s first-ever four-time All-Patriot League honoree, garnering second team honors.
- Tejada was also named second team All-League.
- Pat Andreu and Jordan Cohen were both named Academic All-Patriot League, marking the first time in program history that Lehigh had two honorees.
- Lehigh scored 54 points at the nation’s top defense and eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Virginia. For perspective, UVA allowed 53 or fewer points in 9 out of its 18 ACC regular season games.
- Tejada’s 22 points in that game were tied for the sixth most points scored against UVA this season (complete list below).

Marvin Bagley III, Duke, 30, 1/27/18

- Ross was twice named Patriot League Player of the Week while Marques Wilson was named Patriot League Rookie of the Week.
- Ross was named a candidate for the Senior CLASS Award, giving Lehigh three candidates over the past two seasons (also Tim Kempton and Austin Price).
- Ross broke the Lehigh career assists record vs. Mount St. Mary’s and Patriot League career assists mark at Navy. Ross graduates Lehigh as the school’s leader for assists in a game, season and career.
- Lehigh won its season opener at Marist for the first time since 2008-09, snapping an eight-game losing streak in openers.

February Success

- Lehigh finished last February 7-0, marking the second time in three years the Mountain Hawks posted a perfect February (going 9-0 in 2016). Prior to February of 2016, the previous undefeated month came in November of 1995 (and that only included one game).
- Over the last three seasons, Lehigh is 22-2 in the month of February.

Coach Reed Putting Up the W’s

Head coach Brett Reed reached 100-career Patriot League (regular season) wins last season, becoming just the fourth coach in league history to reach that plateau. Below is the list. Reed tied Jeff Jones of American coach for fastest to reach 100 PL wins in terms of number of seasons (11th season for both Reed and Jones). However, for both Flannery and Jones, it took fewer games to reach 100.

Here is where Reed stands among Patriot League laurels for total wins and Patriot League victories. Reed’s 200th win came earlier this season, during a 78-72 home-opening win over Marist (Nov. 13).

Most Patriot League Games Won (Regular Season)

152 Fran O’Hanlon, Lafayette (1995-present)
126 Pat Flannery, Bucknell (1993-04)
108 Jeff Jones, American (2001-13)
102 Brett Reed, Lehigh (2007-present)
95 Ralph Willard, Holy Cross (1999-09)
93 Don Devoe, Navy (1993-95)

Most Games Won, All Games as PL Coach

314 Fran O’Hanlon, Lafayette (1995-present)
234 Pat Flannery, Bucknell (1994-08)
205 Jeff Jones, American (2001-13)
203 Brett Reed, Lehigh (2007-present)
192 Ralph Willard, Holy Cross (1999-09)
184 Don Devoe, Navy (1993-95)
LEHIGH - PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE; LEHIGH PICKED FIRST
For the third time in the last four years, Lehigh has finished atop the Patriot League preseason poll, as announced on Wednesday, Oct. 17. In addition, senior Lance Tejada was named to the preseason All-League team. Lehigh finished first in the poll with 145 points, five points ahead of Bucknell in second. Each of the last two times the Mountain Hawks were picked first, they advanced to the Patriot League Championship Game in both 2016 and 2017. Tejada is coming off an impressive first season in the Brown and White, leading the Mountain Hawks in scoring (14.7 points per game), which was good for ninth in the Patriot League. Tejada was one of the nation’s top three-point shooters, converting 45.3 percent from long distance (77-of-170) (10th in the country). He scored double-figure points in 20-of-28 games while eclipsing 20 points on seven occasions. Tejada had three games of 25+ points and six of 20+ points, both marks most by a Lehigh guard since C.J. McCollum in 2012-13.

REED ANNOUNCES INCOMING CLASS OF 2023
Head coach Brett Reed announced the Mountain Hawks’ incoming class of 2023 on Thursday, Nov. 22, which features three talented student-athletes from around the country. Lehigh is set to welcome Jakob Alamudun, Jake Betlow and Reed Fenton to campus as freshmen for the 2019-20 season.

Fenton comes in from Latrobe, Pa. and Greater Latrobe High School. As a junior, Fenton averaged 23 points and five assists while garnering first team All-Section from Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, along with Pittsburgh Tribune-Review. Fenton is a student Council member and member of the National Honor Society, standing in the top 10 percent of his class.

Alamudun averaged 21.4 points, 8.6 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game, making 87.4 percent of his free throws as a junior at Marina High School in California to earn a number of postseason honors. He finished fourth in Orange County in both scoring and rebounding. Among the accolades were All-CIF Southern Section Division 3A, first team All-Sunset League and third team All-Orange County, while also garnering first team Los Angeles Times Daily Pilot Boys Dream Team recognition. Named to the 2017-18 Prep Hoops SoCal Most Improved List, Alamudun had multiple 15+ rebound performances, including a 30-point, 25-rebound effort in the Jim Harris Memorial Tournament of Champions. He was one of Orange County’s most productive players, helping Marina to its first season above .500 since 2009-10. In the end, Alamudun was named first team All-Sunset League for three years, was a two-time All-CIF honoree, won the CIF Character Award and was All-Academic Sunset League every year. In addition, Alamudun won the Adidas Summer Championship (Silver Division) with his AAU team, the Cali Rebels.

Meanwhile, Betlow has been a standout throughout his high school career, most recently playing at St. Benedict’s in New Jersey and helping his team to an unprecedented 12th State Prep A championship title in 2017-18. St. Benedict’s was ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation during the season, while being named the No. 1 Independent/Prep Team in the state. Betlow finished the season earning All-Prep honors while this year - as a senior - he is a team captain and ranked among the top 10 seniors in New Jersey. In his freshman and sophomore years, he was part of two teams that combined for a 47-9 record. During that stretch, Betlow won the Somerset County Tournament and advanced to the South Jersey, Non-Public B final. Betlow led Gil St. Bernard with 81 three-pointers and was second on the team with 12.2 points per game average as a freshman. He was named MVP of the Somerset County Championship and garnered first team All-County Tournament Team recognition, first team All-State freshman honors (by NJ Hoops/Rivals.com), first team All-Conference and honorable mention All-New Jersey (one of only two freshmen named in New Jersey). Below was named second team All-Area by Courier News and NJ Freshman of the Year by The Star Ledger. As a sophomore, Betlow went on to lead Montverde to a 22-4 record, which included finishing as runners-up in the Dicks National High School Basketball Championship.

NONLEAGUE SUCCESS
Lehigh finished last season’s nonleague schedule with a 5-6 record, but it had plenty of bright spots. The Mountain Hawks were 2-2 against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, defeating Princeton (Ivy League) and Mount St. Mary’s (NERC) while falling to USC (Pac-12) and Virginia (ACC). Lehigh was 3-2 against reigning conference finalists, beating Princeton, Mount St. Mary’s and Siena (MAAC) while falling to Yale (Ivy League) and Saint Francis (Pa.) (NEC).

COMMON HOMECOMINGS
Homecomings are common for the Mountain Hawks as head coach Brett Reed tries to schedule games near players’ hometowns whenever possible. Last season, the Mountain Hawks traveled to USC to face the Trojans on Thanksgiving Eve, marking a homecoming for Kyle Leufroy (Pasadena, Calif.) and Jordan Cohen (Tarzana, Calif.). This year, Lehigh is traveling to Miami for Lance Tejada’s (Miramar, Fla.) homecoming along with Kansas State to get a game close to the hometowns of Caleb Bennett (St. Joseph, Mo.) and Marques Wilson (Edmond, Okla.). The Mountain Hawks also opened the season at Monmouth, approximately a 15-minute drive from Pat Andree’s hometown of Colts Neck, N.J.

SUSTAINED SUCCESS
- Lehigh has enjoyed impressive success over the last nine years (2010-18), earning a Patriot League Quarterfinal home game in eight of those seasons.
- Over the last nine years, the Mountain Hawks are second in the league in number of championships (two), second in average finish (third) and second in quarterfinal home games (eight).
- Lehigh is also second in number of Patriot League (regular season) victories (90) and number of double-figure win seasons six.
- Over the last six years (even without current NBA standout C.J. McCollum), the Mountain Hawks still stand second in total (regular season) Patriot League victories in that span with 63.
- Lehigh is one of just two teams to post 10+ Patriot League regular season victories in each of the last four years.

MCCOLLUM STARRING FOR TRAIL BLAZERS
- Former Lehigh standout C.J. McCollum is starring in his sixth NBA season with the Portland Trail Blazers.
- McCollum is currently averaging 21.5 points per game this season (before games Dec. 4), averaging 20+ points per game each of the previous three years as one of the NBA’s most elite scorers.
- Among many highlights, McCollum scored 40 points against Milwaukee on Nov. 6, the most points ever scored by the Trail Blazers against the Bucks.
- McCollum was the talk of the NBA on Jan. 31, 2018 when he scored a career-high 50 points vs. Chicago. McCollum set a Portland franchise record for points in a quarter with 28 in the first. It also marked the most points any NBA player scored in a quarter this season. McCollum went on to tally 50 points on 18-of-25 shooting, including 6-of-9 from three-point range.
- It came in just 29 minutes as McCollum didn’t play the fourth quarter with the Trail Blazers leading comfortably. He became just the second NBA player in the shot clock era (along with Golden State’s Klay Thompson) to score 50+ points in less than 30 minutes.
- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially

STRONG IN THE CLASSROOM
- The Mountain Hawks take a lot of pride in their academic performance.
- Last spring, three Mountain Hawks were named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll - Pat Andree (3.60, Psychology), Shane Acoveno (3.50, Computer Science (EN)) and Jordan Cohen (3.53, Finance).
- Both Andree and Cohen were also named to the five-member Academic All-Patriot League team, marking the first time in school history Lehigh had two student-athletes on the team.
- Last fall (2017), four Mountain Hawks posted over a 3.4 GPA: Jordan Cohen 3.74 (Business), Pat Andree 3.59 (Arts and Sciences), Lance Tejada 3.40 (Sociology) and Jack Lieb 3.32 (Business).

DOUBLE THE PRODUCTION
- The Mountain Hawks own three double-doubles this season, two from freshman Nic Lynch (at Miami on Nov. 9, vs. Princeton on Nov. 16) and one from junior Pat Andree (vs. Marist on Nov. 13).
- Lehigh posted seven double-double last season, four from James Karnik - at Pitt (Nov. 26), at Saint Francis (Pa.) (Dec. 21), vs. American (Jan. 14) and vs. Bucknell (Feb. 5) - and three from Andree - at Lafayette (Dec. 29), at Colgate (Feb. 14) and at Loyola (Feb. 21).
- The Mountain Hawks tallied 22 double-doubles the year prior (2016-17), 21 from Tim Kempton and one from Andree.

OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUT
Lehigh is consistently near the top of the Patriot League in scoring, leading the way in 2009-10 (75.1 PPG), 2010-11 (73.6), 2011-12 (75.7) and 2012-13 (73.1). In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks finished second (76.0 points per game) before finishing second again last season (77.9). Every other year in between, Lehigh has finished in the top half of the league in scoring.

Last season, Lehigh scored 80+ points in six straight games (Feb. 3 to Feb. 21). Lehigh reached 90 points in consecutive games (91-90 overtime win over Siena then 95-70 win over Eastern) for a second straight season. Prior to 2016-17, it hadn’t happened since the 1999-00 campaign. The Mountain Hawks also scored 90 in a 92-89 overtime win over Bucknell (Feb. 5). They eclipsed 80 points in 21 other games.

So far this year, the Mountain Hawks are averaging 73.9 points per game, second in the Patriot League.

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE ARE FREE
Lehigh has continued to excel at the charity stripe, not only taking more free throws than its opponents, but also converting at an impressive rate. In 2011-12, the Mountain Hawks converted at a 76.8 percent clip (590-of-768) which was good for fifth in the nation. The following season in 2012-13, Lehigh knocked down 73.7 percent from the charity stripe (455-of-617) which was among the nation’s best. The Mountain Hawks attempted 105 more free throws than their opponents (617-512) and knocked down 100 more (455-355). In 2013-14, Lehigh knocked down 406-of-574 (70.7 percent) from the charity stripe. In 2014-15, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 72.5 percent of their free throws (430-of-593), which was second in the league and 62nd nationally. In 2015-16, Lehigh shot 72.7 percent from the line (411-of-565), tops in the Patriot League and 66th in the nation. In 2016-17, the Mountain Hawks knocked down 77.2 percent from the line (448-of-580), good for 12th in the nation. Last season (2017-18), the Mountain Hawks shot 77.7 percent (373-of-480), first in the Patriot League and 12th in the nation. For this year, Lehigh is shooting 69.3 percent (79-of-114).

The 2018-19 season is Dr. Brett Reed’s 12th as the Murray H. Goodman ’48 Head Men’s Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 11 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history, winning more than 70 percent of his games at Stabler Arena. During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. The same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2018-19 with 198 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed owns a 57.6 career Division I winning percentage, good for sixth in Patriot League history and second among active coaches. Reed’s 198 overall wins, and 102 Patriot League victories, are both fourth in league history. Reed has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times, and 102 Patriot League victories, are both fourth in league history. The same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. He enters 2018-19 with 198 career victories and is the Patriot League’s second longest-tenured coach.

Reed has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national post-season appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks have won the league title. Under Reed, the Mountain Hawks have won 20+ games four times in the last nine seasons and have finished in the top four of the league standings in eight of the last nine seasons. Reed’s teams have played their best basketball when it matters, posting a 22-2 record over the last three Februarys (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In his tenure, the Mountain Hawks are 54-30 in the month of February.

During Reed’s time, Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum ’13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum finished each of the last two seasons top 20 in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game in 2016-17 and 21.4 in 2017-18). Tim Kempton ’17 was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now playing overseas. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, having secured five of the last 11 Patriot League Rookies of the Year.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program’s third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth NCAA Tournament No. 16 seed to beat a No. 1 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks’ largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils’ runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men’s basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. Entering the following season, the Mountain Hawks were ranked among the mid-major’s best teams by numerous outlets. The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program’s previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks’ season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. After a slow start to Patriot League play, the Mountain Hawks rebounded by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the league schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals. Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league’s Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahlron Ross became the Mountain Hawks’ fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh’s thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program’s 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1995. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with 21-8 in school record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school’s single-season record for assists, posting 194. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and All-American Tyrese Rice. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Virginia Commonwealth, a Junior Austin Price was named a third team All-League honoree while Kyle Leufroy was named to the All-Rookie Team. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage (39.2).

The Mountain Hawks finished the 2016-17 season with a 20-12 record, tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Virginia Commonwealth, the Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. Kempton led the league in points (20.4) and rebounds (10.4) and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh’s first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese’s® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league. Among the victories was a thrilling overtime win over Bucknell in early February, handing the eventual Patriot League Champion its last defeat until the NCAA Tournament. Lehigh went on to finish the season 4-1 in overtime. Ross led the charge, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time career leader for assists. He was named second team All-Patriot League, becoming the program’s first-ever four-time All-League honoree. Ross also became the first student-athlete in program history to finish his career 4-0 at archival Lafayette. In addition to Ross, transfer Lance Tejada was named second team All-Patriot League in his first season donning the Brown and White. Tejada finished 10th nationally in three-point percentage (45.3) while teammate Pat Andree finished 23rd (42.9). In one stretch, Lehigh exceeded 50 percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight of 2018 and 10 of 11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn’t go away quietly. Lehigh posted a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings.

That season, Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Reed broke a tie with Tony Packer to become the all-time winningest coach in school history. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League’s all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed’s first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (22) and the all-time winningest coach in school history. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament’s history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh’s starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed’s second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school’s first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went on to become Lehigh’s first-ever Patriot League Men’s Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school’s first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks’ second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers, there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Hall, Carrington, Knutson, Holden Greiner, Mackey McKnight, Austin Price and Tejada join McCollum, Kempton and Ross as All-Patriot League performers. Lehigh has also featured high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2017-18, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer and Price have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh’s head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent the 1999-2000 season as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father’s program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor’s degree in 1995 before earning his Master’s at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men’s basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH REED

“Brett Reed is an excellent basketball coach. In just a few years, he has led the resurgence of Lehigh basketball and turned it into a power from the Patriot League. He’s building a program that can stand one of sport’s ultimate challenges – the test of time. It is undoubtedly an impressive accomplishment.”

- Mike Krzyzewski, Duke University and U.S. National Team Head Coach

“I’ve known Brett Reed for over 10 years, and was fortunate to have him on my staff and watch him develop as a coach. I strongly believe Brett is one of the best young coaches in the country. His performance in 2011-12 was as good as or better than anyone in our profession. He’s an excellent basketball coach on the floor, has incredible demeanor on the sideline and has proven that he is a top-notch recruiter.”

“I am very proud of the success Brett has enjoyed as the head men’s basketball coach at Lehigh University. Brett is extremely intelligent, hard-working and passionate about the game of basketball and is a terrific role model for the young men in his program. I am excited for what Brett has been able to accomplish in his short time as the head coach at Lehigh and am confident that he will continue to be successful for many years to come.”

- Billy Taylor, former Lehigh and Head Coach and current University of Iowa Director of Operations

“Brett Reed is respected by our student-athletes, he is an excellent teacher and communicator and has been an extremely productive recruiter. I admire his values, his work ethic, his energy and his devotion to our players, their education and their experience.”

- Joe Sterrett, Lehigh Murray H. Goodman Dean of Athletics

Antoni Wyche enters his 10th season as an assistant coach at Lehigh in 2018-19, and eighth as associate head coach. Wyche has helped lead the Mountain Hawks’ program to new heights, which includes two Patriot League Championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in a three-year span, along with back-to-back trips to the Patriot League Championship Game in 2016 and 2017.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Wyche has brought a wealth of professional playing experience to the Lehigh program, having played professional basketball in numerous professional leagues in the United States and overseas for nearly a decade following his collegiate career.

Wyche made an immediate impact as the Mountain Hawks have gone 169-117 in his nine seasons in Bethlehem while winning the 2010 and 2012 Patriot League Championships, advancing to the 2013 College Basketball Invitational, hosting the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game and making it back to the title game in 2017. Lehigh has posted a winning record in all but one of the last five seasons, including an 11-4 mark in the month of February (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). In Wyche’s time, the Mountain Hawks are 49-20 in the month of February.

Wyche has coached plenty of talent, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year and top-10 NBA Draft pick C.J. McCollum, currently of the Portland Trail Blazers. McCollum has finished each of the last two seasons top 20 in the NBA in scoring (23.0 points per game in 2016-17 and 21.4 in 2017-18). Wyche has worked with several other top players, including two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Tim Kempton along with recently graduated Kahron Ross, the first four-time All-Patriot League honoree in school history. Ross also became Lehigh’s fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in a nine-season span in 2014-15, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League record holder for career assists (660). Kempton was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, and is now one of several Lehigh graduates playing professionally overseas.

A four-year member of the Notre Dame program, Wyche averaged 12 points, four assists and four rebounds per game during his time in South Bend as a point guard and shooting guard playing under head coach John McLeod. Also on staff for the Fighting Irish were former Lehigh head coaches Jim Corrigan and Jaya.

Harry Morra enters his fourth season as Lehigh assistant coach in 2018-19 following a stint with the program as video coordinator during the program’s historic 2011-12 season. After that season at Lehigh, Morra spent the next three years as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby DeSales University.

In his first season at Lehigh, Morra helped lead the Mountain Hawks to the 2016 Patriot League Championship Game. Lehigh won its final nine regular season games and saw its winning streak reach 11 (to tie a school record) after wins over Navy and American in the Patriot League Quarterfinals and Semifinals, respectively. The Mountain Hawks hosted the league championship game for the first time since 2010, reaching the title game for the third time in seven seasons.

Lehigh followed in 2016-17 by reaching its second straight title game. The Mountain Hawks finished 20-12, finishing the regular season tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh’s wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program’s first ever victory over a Top 10 opponent.

In the end, Tim Kempton led the league in averaging 20.4 points and 10.4 rebounds and was named a First Team All Mid-Atlantic player for a second straight season while Kahron Ross finished his career as the program’s first-ever four-time All-Patriot League honoree. He also graduated as the Lehigh and Patriot League record holder for career assists (660). As a team, Lehigh has earned a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals eight times in the last nine years.

Prior to Lehigh, Morra helped DeSales established itself as one of the top 20 winningest programs in NCAA Division III, playing in the Elite Eight, Sweet 16 and Round of 32 three times. In Morra’s time at DeSales, the Bulldogs went 102-39. He helped lead DeSales to two Regular Season Championships, two Freedom Tournament Championships, along with three NCAA Tournament wins. Morra helped develop three 1,000 point scorers, two All-Americans, two Freedom MVPs and a National Rookie Team Member.

As assistant coach, Morra designed and executed recruiting strategies for New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Delaware and Maryland. He planned and executed an annual Prospect Camp for 50 participants and Team Camp with 30 teams from all over the Mid-Atlantic region. He also prepared and presented scouting reports for the Freedom Conference Coach of the Year Scott Cova.

During graduate school at Lehigh, Morra took a year off from DeSales and was Lehigh’s video coordinator during a memorable 2011-12 season, which featured a Patriot League Championship and historic NCAA Tournament win over Duke. Morra was responsible for film exchange, advanced scouting and game/practice video breakdown.

Morra has worked camps at Duke, Villanova and Lehigh. After college, he was both a player and then assistant coach for Baylor State of the Sea, which competes in the 12-team Irish Superleague. He also has experience as Operations Manager for PeacePlayers International in Northern Ireland and South Africa, an ESPY Award winning basketball nonprofit organization based out of Washington, D.C.

As a player, Morra was a four-year member and two-year captain at DeSales, shooting 48 percent from three-point range in 2004 as a senior captain of the 24-5 MAC Champions.

Morra and his wife Kelly Lyons reside in Bethlehem with their four-year old son Marcus.
Noel Hightower begins his third season on the Lehigh coaching staff in 2018-19, and second as assistant coach, after serving as the director of basketball operations in 2016-17.

In his first season at Lehigh, Hightower managed day-to-day operations of the program as Lehigh advanced to its second straight Patriot League Championship Game.

Hightower helped coach a young team in 2017-18, which graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league, earning a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the eighth time in the last nine years. Among Lehigh’s victories was a thrilling overtime Championship Game.

Kahron Ross led the charge, finishing his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time career leader for assists (660). He was named second team All-Patriot League, becoming the program’s first-ever four-time All-League honoree. Ross also became the first student-athlete in program history to finish his career 4-0 at archival Lafayette. In addition to Ross, transfer Lance Tejada was named second team All-Patriot League in his first season donning the Brown and White. Tejada finished 10th nationally in three-point percentage (45.3) while teammate Fat Andree finished 23rd (42.9). In one stretch, Lehigh exceeded 50 percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight in a row and 10-of-11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally. Lehigh posted a 7-0 record in February to improve to 22-2 over the last three Februaries.

Hightower is a 2016 graduate of Chestnut Hill, where he was a two-sport student-athlete. He won the Athletic Director’s Award, given annually to the male and female student-athlete who best demonstrates dedication to the mission of the College and excels in his or her sport of choice.

As a senior, Hightower averaged 6.1 points and a team-high 8.3 rebounds per game while serving as the heart and soul of the Griffs’ defense. For his career, he ranks second in school history in rebounds (577), second in offensive rebounds (225), fifth in defensive rebounds (352), seventh in rebounds per game (5.4), second in blocks (114) and fifth in steals (128). Hightower shot 53.4 percent from the field as a senior (63-of-118). He was also a standout track and field athlete, highlighted by winning a CACC Individual Championship in 2015 in the 110-meter hurdles.

Hightower has shown tremendous leadership, serving as a three-year captain. He was also a member of Chestnut Hill College’s Diversity Committee, vice president of the Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Presidential Leadership Award winner and the 2015 conference representative at the NCAA Leadership Forum.

Hightower has basketball experience outside of playing, which includes serving as a camp counselor at Lehigh’s summer camps from 2013 through 2015. He was Director of a 3 vs. 3 Basketball Tournament, where he managed the tournament’s operations, and assisted in game management at Chestnut Hill athletic events.

Billy Dunn begins his second season on the Lehigh men’s basketball staff and first as Director of Operations and Enrichment.

In his first season at Lehigh, Dunn served as a resource for the Mountain Hawks’ players and coaches, speaking into concepts of character and leadership while running a pregame chapel for those interested. Lehigh posted an eight-game winning streak to end the regular season, tying for third place in the league standings and earning a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals for the eighth time in the last nine years. Dunn received the team’s Sixth Man of the Year Award at its annual end-of-year banquet.

Dunn has worked locally in the Lehigh Valley in the game of basketball. He has served as assistant boys basketball coach at both Liberty High School and Allentown Central Catholic for five years each. Dunn was head girls basketball coach at Emmaus High School for three years and co-founder of Push The Rock in Emmaus, Pa. leading basketball camps and coaching internationally. The organization’s vision is to be a global leader in sports ministry.

Dunn earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Bible and Secondary Education from Cairn University, before going on to earn his Master of Science in Organizational Leadership, also from Cairn. He went on to serve as chaplain in professional sports for over eight years, including in the Philadelphia Phillies’ organization. Dunn is currently spiritual formation pastor at Faith Church in Allentown. He has also served as professor at Cairn University in Leadership Studies, has been executive director at Habitat for Humanity and has worked with Leadership Development at Push The Rock.

Greg Tarca enters his first season as video coordinator in 2018-19. Tarca came to Lehigh after graduating from Quinnipiac this past May as a four-year member of the men’s basketball program.

Tarca played in 18 career games for Quinnipiac, earning a full scholarship in December of his senior year after spending four years as a walk-on. Tarca started his Senior Day game vs. Saint Peter’s and scored a layup in the game’s final minute. His impact went far beyond the court, which included serving as legislative chair of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Tarca led a group of student-athletes in weekly meetings, spoke on behalf of the organization and more.

Despite being fresh out of college, Tarca does have experience as a supervisor/coach at the Grundy Hoops Academy, facilitating basketball clinics for students ages eight to 16 and teaching fundamental basketball skills. Tarca has also interned at The Hoop Group, assisting in the recruitment of future campers nation-wide, building relationships with high school, college and AAU coaches, and assisting with logistics, planning and day-to-day operations of camps.

The lead kept expanding as the half progressed. The final seven minutes vantage. Lynch helped spark the run, scoring eight early second-half points, joining Lynch and Jeameril Wilson as Mountain Hawks to do so on Tuesday.

Later in the half, a Cohen jumper gave Lehigh its first double-digit lead 16-7 lead with 13:35 left in the first half. Miami's Chris Lykes answered with a 5-0 run of his own, extending the Hurricanes' lead back within single digits at 51-42.

Hawks' defense bore down, allowing just one point the rest of the stanza. Miami's Chris Lykes answered with a 5-0 run of his own, extending the Hurricanes' lead back within single digits at 51-42.

Caleb Bennett's layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 61-51 with just 1:25 left on the clock. Lehigh scored seven straight points, including a coast-to-coast play for six points from Jordan Cohen, putting the Mountain Hawks ahead 58-51.

For the game, Lehigh shot 49.2 percent from the field (29-of-59), in including 43.3 percent from three-point range (11-of-26). The Mountain Hawks dominated the boards, 47-28.

Coral Gables, Fla. - The Lehigh men's basketball teamtrapped an 18-point lead down to six with 12:10 left in the second half, but Miami immediately responded, pulling away down the stretch to beat the Mountain Hawks, 83-62 on Friday evening at Watsco Center. In a homecoming game, senior Lance Tejada scored a team-high 19 points, 16 coming in the second half. Freshman Nic Lynch posted his first-career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds while senior Kyle Leufroy just missed a double-double with 12 points and nine boards.

Junior Pat Andree also recorded double figures for the Mountain Hawks with 10. Lehigh struggled to get going in the first half, but shot 45 percent from the field in the second half and 72 percent from the free throw line after marks of just 23 percent and 50 percent in the first.

Leufroy scored Lehigh's first five points, as his three-pointer pulled the Mountain Hawks within 6-5 with 18:09 on the clock. Miami answered with a 10-0 run as an Ebuza Izuendu jumper gave the Hurricanes a 16-5 advantage with 16:09 remaining in the first.

Tejada and Andree knocked down treys in the span of 48 seconds to pull Lehigh within 19-11, but the Hurricanes again extended their lead to double figures. A Marques Wilson trey pulled Lehigh within 25-16, but a 9-0 Miami surge gave it an 18-point, 34-16 advantage, with 7:19 on the first-half clock. Trailing 37-19 with 5:14 remaining in the first, the Mountain Hawks' defense bore down, allowing just one point the rest of the stanza. Lehigh scored seven itself, behind a Leufroy three-pointer and four free throws to pull within 38-26 following 20 minutes of play.

The Hurricanes opened the second half on a 10-3 run as a DJ Vasi-Jevic three-pointer gave Miami a 48-29 lead with 17:21 on the clock. A few minutes later, trailing 51-35, the Mountain Hawks staged a quick 7-0 run behind an Andree three, Tejada layup and two Tejada free throws, to pull back within single digits at 51-42.

After a Miami jumper, Tejada went on a personal 5-0 run, as his three-pointer pulled Lehigh as close as it had been since early in the first half, trailing by just six (53-47) with 12:24 remaining. That extended Lehigh's overall run to 12-2.

Miami's Chris Lykes answered with a 5-0 run of his own, extending to seven straight Hurricane points after an Anthony Lawrence layup. A Caleb Bennett layup pulled the Mountain Hawks within 61-51 with just over nine minutes remaining, but that's as close as they would come as Miami pulled away down the stretch for the 83-62 win.

LEHIGH 78, MARIST 72

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – The Lehigh men’s basketball team trailed 62-53 with less than eight minutes remaining against a hot-shooting Marist team, but the Mountain Hawks answered in a big way, scoring 25 of the final 33 points on their way to a 72-75 win over visiting Princeton at Stabler Arena as part of Knebel’s Night at Lehigh Basketball. The win marked Lehigh’s third straight against the Tigers in as many seasons after winning just four times in the last 34 all-time meetings. The Mountain Hawks’ defense stood tall, holding Princeton to just 28.3 percent shooting, Lehigh’s best mark since Dec. 31, 2008 when it held UConn to just 22.0 percent shooting.

With the Lehigh improves to 3-1 for a second straight season, marking the first time it has happened in consecutive years since 1924-25 and 1925-26. Freshman Nic Lynch led the offense with 16 points and 10 rebounds for his second double-double in his first four collegiate games.

Senior Lance Tejada had 15 points, including 3-of-6 shooting from three-point range. Two Mountain Hawks just missed double-doubles as junior Pat Andree had 12 points and eight rebounds while senior Kyle Leufroy had 10 points and nine boards. Leufroy has now tallied nine rebounds in three of his first four games this season, again helping Lehigh to a dominant edge on the glass (49-37 on Friday). Junior Jordan Cohen added 12 points as five Mountain Hawks scored in double figures.

A low-scoring start saw Princeton jump out to early leads of 5-2 and 7-4 before the Mountain Hawks used an 8-0 surge to take a 12-7 lead. The run included two points each from Leufroy, Andree, Lynch and sophomore Caleb Bennett, as Bennett’s driving layup gave Lehigh a 12-7 advantage with 11:42 left in the first half.

The Tigers pulled within three, but the Lehigh lead swelled back to eight as a Marques Wilson trey gave the Mountain Hawks a 19-11 advantage with 8:32 on the clock. Princeton chipped away, using a 5-0 run to pull within 21-16, then later used a 7-0 surge to go up 26-22 with 2:35 remaining. The Mountain Hawks answered with a 6-0 run to end the half, behind a Tejada three and Lynch three-point play, giving Lehigh a 26-28 halftime advantage.

Lehigh came out of the locker room with a vengeance, scoring the first seven points to take a 35-26 lead and force a quick Princeton timeout. Eventually, the run reached 16-3 to begin the second half (22-3 dating back to the first half) as a Tejada three forced a second Tigers’ timeout, then Andree’s second trey in the first 3:59 of the stanza gave Lehigh a 44-29 lead with 16:01 remaining.

The Mountain Hawks’ lead kept growing as the run eventually reached 31-7 since the end of the first half as a Lynch offensive layup and putback gave the Mountain Hawks a 53-33 advantage with 9:29 left in the second half. Princeton made a late surge to win now with 2:46 remaining, but the Mountain Hawks built their lead back to 15, which proved to be the final margin.

TIMES UNION CENTER
LEHIGH 80, SIENA 69

ALBANY, N.Y. – The Lehigh men's basketball knocked shot 80.0 percent from the field, including 63.2 percent from three-point range, while also clamping down defensively with the best mark most of the Mountain Hawks picked up a 80-69 win over Siena at the Times Union Center Wednesday evening. Senior Kyle Leufroy scored a career-high 25 points to pace the offense while junior Jordan Cohen had 15, sophomore Marques Wilson scored 12 and freshman James Karnik recorded a career-high 10. Siena jumped out to early leads of 12-5 and 16-10, but the Mountain Hawks turned the tides due in large part to opening up some space and limiting its turnovers. After eight first-half turnovers, Lehigh had just four in the second.

The Mountain Hawks improved to 4-1 with the win, marking their best start in 10 years, since beginning the 2008-09 season 5-1.

One game after posting its best field goal percentage defense against a Division 1 opponent in 10 years, Lehigh's offense took center stage. The team's 58.0 shooting percentage on Wednesday (29-of-50) is its best mark since shooting 60.3 percent on Tuesday, Nov. 21, 2017 at American. The Mountain Hawks' 63.2 percentage from three (12-of-19) is tied for the second best percentage in the NCAA this season and is Lehigh's best percentage since knocking down 66.7 percent (6-of-9) vs. Quinipiac on Dec. 21, 2013. It’s also the Mountain Hawks’ best percentage with double-figure makes since hitting 73.3 percent (11-of-15) on Dec. 5, 2007 vs. Stony Brook.

Leufroy's 25 points came on 8-of-11 shooting, including 4-of-5 from three-point range. No one else had more than eight attempts. Along with the four Mountain Hawks in double figures, junior Pat Andree scored eight points, all in the second half, while sophomore James Karnik had six points and eight boards.

Siena used an early 7-0 surge to take a 12-5 lead, later leading 16-10 with 13:48 on the clock. The Mountain Hawks immediately had an answer, posting a 10-run, with the first five points from Leufroy and the last five from Marques Wilson, to give Lehigh a 20-16 advantage with 11:07 left in the first.

Later in the half, the Saints used a 9-0 run to turn a 22-18 Lehigh lead into doubt. The run wrapped up with a Karnik dunk and four straight points from Wilson, Jeamier, and Caleb Bennett, who were playing in front of many friends and family in homecoming games. Two Cohen free throws and a Jeamier Wilson layup gave Lehigh a 17-13 lead with 11:41 left in the first.

Not long after, the Wildcats used a 5-1 surge to take a 21-19 advantage, later taking a 24-21 lead. That's when Andree got hot from distance, knocking down two in the span of 24 seconds, followed by a Cohen jumper to cap off a 10-2 run which gave the Mountain Hawks their largest lead at 31-26 with 5:37 remaining in the first.

Siena scored 10 of the next 12 points, but two Cohen free throws in the final minute helped Lehigh pull within 37-35 at the half.

The Mountain Hawks struggled offensively early in the second, not scoring for the first 4:01. On the other hand, Kansas State scored six straight to open a 43-35 advantage, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:48 on the clock.

Behind a Leufroy layup and Cohen three-point play, the Mountain Hawks pulled back within 45-40 with 15:24 remaining.

Kansas State extended its lead back to 12 at 57-45 just over the midpoint of the half, but a Karnik three-point play with 7:56 on the clock pulled Lehigh back within nine, 57-48, with 7:56 to go in the stanza.

However, from that point, the Mountain Hawks were outscored 52-48 in the second half, leading to a 77-60 final.

GAME 6 - NOV. 24, 2018
BRAMLAGE COLISEUM
NO. 12 KANSAS STATE 77, LEHIGH 58

MANHATTAN, Kan. – The Lehigh men's basketball team found itself leading 31-26 late in the first half, but No. 12 Kansas State opened a 37-35 halftime advantage and pulled away in the second half to beat the Mountain Hawks, 77-58 on Saturday afternoon. Lehigh continued to hang around for much of the second half, finding itself within 57-48 with 7:56 remaining and 64-52 with 4:30 on the clock, but the Wildcats scored 13 of the game's final 19 points to improve to 6-0 on the season. With the loss, Lehigh falls to 4-2 with both defeats coming against Top 25 opponents.

Sophomore James Karnik led the offense with 15 points on 6-of-7 shooting, to go with eight rebounds and two assists. Junior Pat Andree had 12 points, including 4-of-7 from three-point range, while classmate Jordan Cohen posted 11 points and a career-high eight assists, along with three steals. Fourteen of the Mountain Hawks' 22 field goals were assisted.

After shooting 54.2 percent from the field in the first half (13-of-24), including 40 percent from three (4-of-10), the Mountain Hawks shot just 28.1 percent in the second (9-of-32) and 18.2 percent from distance (2-of-11).

Lehigh jumped out to early leads of 3-0, 5-3 then 7-5, with each of the Mountain Hawks' first seven points scored by Karnik. Kansas State used a 6-0 surge to take an 11-7 advantage, but the Mountain Hawks responded with 10 of the next 12 points, including three-pointers from Marques Wilson and Caleb Bennett, who were playing in front of many friends and family in homecoming games. Two Cohen free throws and a Jeamier Wilson layup gave Lehigh a 17-13 lead with 11:41 left in the first.

Not long after, the Wildcats used a 5-1 surge to take a 21-19 advantage, later taking a 24-21 lead. That’s when Andree got hot from distance, knocking down two in the span of 24 seconds, followed by a Cohen jumper to cap off a 10-2 run which gave the Mountain Hawks their largest lead at 31-26 with 5:37 remaining in the first.

Kansas State scored 10 of the next 12 points, but two Cohen free throws in the final minute helped Lehigh pull within 37-35 at the half.

The Mountain Hawks struggled offensively early in the second, not scoring for the first 4:01. On the other hand, Kansas State scored six straight to open a 43-35 advantage, forcing a Lehigh timeout with 16:48 on the clock.

Behind a Leufroy layup and Cohen three-point play, the Mountain Hawks pulled back within 45-40 with 15:24 remaining.

Kansas State extended its lead back to 12 at 57-45 just over the midpoint of the half, but a Karnik three-point play with 7:56 on the clock pulled Lehigh back within nine, 57-48, with 7:56 to go in the stanza.

However, from that point, the Mountain Hawks were outscored 52-48 in the second half, leading to a 77-60 final.
GAME 7 - DEC. 1, 2018
STABLER ARENA
LEHIGH 82, ARKANSAS STATE 70

BETHELHEM, Pa. – Trailing 22-9 in the first half, the Lehigh men’s basketball team immediately answered with a 16-0 run, outscoring Arkansas State 32-8 over the final 11:14 of the first half to beat the Red Wolves, 82-70 on Saturday afternoon in Stabler Arena. Senior Kyle Leufroy led the offense with 20 points, 16 coming in the first half, while junior Pat Andree scored 14 and senior Lance Tejada had 12 and a career-high tying seven assists. With the win, the Mountain Hawks improve to 5-2 on the season, their best record after seven games since the 2012-13 campaign.

Leufroy reached 20 points for the third time through seven games this season, a high in his career. He finished the game shooting 7-of-9 from the field, including a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range. Andree’s 14 points came on 6-of-11 shooting while Tejada shot 5-of-11 from the field, including 2-of-4 from long distance. Junior Jordan Cohen had eight points, six rebounds and five assists while freshman Jeameril Wilson scored eight points, all in the second half.

Ty Cofield led Arkansas State with 30 points on 9-of-21 shooting. He was the only Red Wolves’ player to reach double-figure points.

Five straight points in the early going, behind layups from Leufroy and sophomore James Karnik, gave Lehigh a 9-8 lead just over five minutes into the contest. Arkansas State responded with a 14-0 run as a Kobe Wilson three-pointer gave the Red Wolves a 22-9 advantage with 11:14 remaining in the first half.

Lehigh had an answer, posting 16-0 run, beginning with a three-pointer and layup from Andree, and ending with a Karnik dunk off a tremendous pass from sophomore Caleb Bennett. A Tejada jumper wrapped up the run and gave the Mountain Hawks a 25-22 lead with 5:19 on the clock.

Lehigh continued to build its lead and when all was said and done, the Mountain Hawks ended the half on a 32-8 run over the final 11:14. Leufroy ended the half with 16 points, including a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range, all coming in the final 4:40 of the half, to take a 41-30 halftime advantage.

Arkansas State scored 11 of the first 16 second-half points, pulling within five, 46-41, with 17:03 on the clock.

Not long after, Lehigh responded with an 8-0 run as a Bennett layup gave the Mountain Hawks a 56-43 advantage with 12:41 to go. Arkansas State had another run in it, getting back to within 59-54 with 9:50 remaining, but that’s as close as it would come. The Mountain Hawks later used an 8-1 run to erase any doubt, turning a 68-60 lead into a 76-61 advantage following eight straight points from Jeameril Wilson in the span of 1:04 – behind a three-point play, three and two free throws.
