Clinic Description
The coaching staff at Franklin & Marshall College invites you to attend our 2019 Fall Prospect Camp on Saturday, October 19th, 2019 from 9am – 4:30pm. The camp will teach upper level baseball skills to high school prospects. Every camper will have his individual skills evaluated. All players currently enrolled or about to be enrolled in high school are eligible to attend the camp. This showcase will give you an opportunity to not only be seen by our entire coaching staff, but also to meet and work directly with current F&M players.

Clinic Staff
Head baseball coach Ryan Horning will lead the clinic. Coach Horning was named Head Coach at F&M in 2013 after serving as an assistant in Lancaster for five seasons. In 2019, Coach Horning led the Diplomats to a 27-15 record and was named Centennial Conference Coach of the Year for the second time (2015, 2019). Coach Horning has also coached at Cornell University, Longwood University, and St. John Fisher College.

Ryan Luke enters his fourth season as an assistant coach at F&M. His primary duties include working with the Diplomats defense while also helping Coach Horning with the hitters. Coach Luke spent the 2016 season as the Director of Baseball Operations at Lafayette College. Coach Luke graduated from Moravian College in 2015 where he was a three-year captain and led his team to the NCAA tournament twice and garnered All-Conference three times, while making the All-Region team his junior and senior years.
